

The Growing Prestige of Judaism

“Judaism is Zionist through and through”¹

Can one mix fire and water? Can one unite the Antichrist with Christ? Can light be mixed with darkness? Can there be a Christian Jew? Can there be a Christian Buddhist, or Christian follower of Mohammed? Yet how many professed Christians have tried and are trying to unite, and even merge Talmudic Judaism with Christianity—they support the Zionist’s cause and even remember Talmudic holidays. Yet despite all efforts, “For where there is Christianity there cannot be Judaism.”² Judaism must deny Christ, just as Christianity must deny and stand against Satanic Judaism. The Lord condemns those who try to unite the two as adulterous enemies of God.

“[T]he vast majority of Christians and many Jews know very little about the history of Judaism. Jews and Christians are aware that their respective religious practices are quite different, yet not many of them know why, and to what extent, their religions differ. People speak of ‘the Judeo-Christian tradition,’ yet they are not quite sure what this tradition is, or if it even exists.”³

The average person who identifies as a Jew, as well as the average person who identifies as a Christian, has little or no idea of what is involved in the religion with which he identifies. There are many reasons one may claim a Jewish or Christian heritage, e.g. someone in his family claimed to be a Jew or a Christian.⁴

Scripture and Judaism

I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan. Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee. (Rev 2:9)

Revelation 2:9

John Gill: And [I know] the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not; who asserted themselves to be the true Israel of God, Jews that were so inwardly, regenerate persons, or truly Christians; for the Christians, baptized persons {m }, were by the Heathens called Jews; but these were not, they professed Christianity in words, but in works denied it; they were men of bad principles and practices, and both blasphemed the ways and doctrines of Christ themselves, and caused them to be blasphemed by others also; they were false Christians, nominal professors, and shunned persecution for the Gospel; who were not what they would be thought to be: these were the broachers of heresies in this period of time, in which there was a multitude of them, and which chiefly respected the doctrine of the Trinity, and the person of Christ; and they were introducers of Pagan and Jewish rites into the church, and were men of flagitious lives and conversations, and paved the way for the man of sin: but [are] the synagogue of Satan: were the children of the devil, imitated him, and were influenced by him, and were the forerunners of antichrist, whose coming was after the working of Satan.⁵

R. J. Rushdoony: “I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan” (Rev 2:9). In a masterpiece of fantasy, Rist characterizes this statement as “anti-Semitism.” In actuality, the Jews of Smyrna not only opposed the church, but also worked with the emperor cult to bring Christians to trial and death. Much later, about A.D. 160, the Jews took an active part in the martyrdom of Polycarp of Smyrna, even bringing fuel to burn him, even though it was their Sabbath day. This was an especial horror to the Jewish believers, who, like Paul, yearned intensely for the old Israel’s salvation (Rom. 10:1), for the ties of blood were strong. Against all this, the Lord stated the harsh reality: the “Jews” are not the true Jews or Israel of God any longer, but a synagogue or assembly of Satan, the opposer of God. They must be seen historically, not sentimentally or idealistically. The members of this synagogue, instead of being in any kind of relation to God, were in open blasphemy against Him through His saints and hence truly ‘the synagogue of Satan.’⁶

The Jews, who might have been “the Church of God,” had now, by their opposition and unbelief, become the synagogue of Satan. So “the throne of Satan” (Re 2:13) represents the heathens’ opposition to Christianity; “the depths of Satan” (Re 2:24), the opposition of heretics.⁷

Professed Bible believing Christians who seek to identify with and maybe even support Zionism, i.e., Christian-Zionist or Judeo-Christians, might believe they are doing God’s work by supporting Zionism’s various projects. However, according to God’s Word they are supporting and financing the work of Satan against Jesus Christ; they are supporting “the synagogue of Satan.”

Paul gives Titus strict instructions to rebuke sharply those who give heed to Jewish fables, commandments of men, e.g., the Talmud and the Torah. The Talmud and the Torah, including the "Oral Torah," were, and are the foundational law of Judaism in the first century as surely as the Holy Scriptures were and are the foundational law of Christianity.⁸ Paul identifies especially those of the circumcision as unruly, vain talkers, deceivers, liars and evil beasts. He called those who give heed to Jewish fables and commandments of men abominable, disobedient reprobates, who are to be confronted with sound doctrine. (Titus 1:10-16.)

Jewish History

According to Mezvinsky, Jewish history is usually divided into four major periods.⁹

1. When most of the Christian Old Testament was written until about the fifth century BC, scripture identifies the inhabitants of the small kingdom of Judea as Israelites, or “sons of Israel” to distinguish them from other peoples of the world. “Only a minority of Israelites followed those tendencies from which Judaism subsequently arose. ... Judaism, as it came to be known, did not exist during the biblical period.” (Rather, it was known as Phariseism, or “the traditions of the elders,” ed.)
2. “The second period of Jewish history, usually called the Second Temple period, began in the fifth century BC and lasted until the destruction of the Second Temple by the Romans in AD 70. ... The term ‘Jews,’ which denotes those people who followed the distinctive religion of Judaism and the name Judea, which denotes the land wherein Jews lived, appeared in this period.... the Romans adopted the term ‘Judea’ in describing Palestine.” (Talmudic Jewish history began with the return from Babylon, ed.)¹⁰

⁶ Rushdoony, Thy Kingdom Come, p. 107.

⁷ Jameson, Fausset, Brown.

⁸ Christianity, Judaism and Islam all claim the Hebrew Scriptures as their source of faith and practice. However, the Talmud with the Kabbalah is Judaism’s holiest book and is exalted over Scripture. Hoffman, Judaism’s Strange Gods, p. 41

⁹ Mezvinsky, Jewish Fundamentalism In Israel, pp. 10, 11.

¹⁰ Sand, Invention of the Jewish People, p. 69.

Growing prestige

3. “Most historians date the beginning of the third period in AD 70 with the destruction of the Second Temple. ... Modernity began when Jews were granted rights as citizens equal to those granted to non-Jews and consequently when their autonomy, which entailed subjection to the rabbis, ended. This occurred in the United States and France, for example, by the end of the eighteenth century; this did not occur in Russia until 1917 or in Yemen until the 1950s.”

4. The “modern period of Jewish history is the one in which we live. It began at different times in different countries; many Israeli Jews passed directly from pre-modern to modern times.”

The Christian of today is bombarded from all sides with reference to our “Judeo-Christian Heritage,” our “Judaean-Christian Civilization,” and the “brotherhood” which should prevail, presumably, between Christian and Talmudic Judaism. Such propaganda could only succeed if one is in ignorance as to the nature of the Talmud and the total antagonism between present-day Judaism and Christianity which necessarily must exist.¹¹

Do those who make a “Judeo-Christian” connection realize that they are uniting Jesus Christ and the Gospel Church with “the synagogue of Satan?” Though the Truth is hidden from the public, especially from the Christian community, rabbis have studied, and know the hidden things of dishonesty contained in the Talmudic Judaic faith.

Fear of Man

Fear of organizations such as the Anti-Defamation-League (ADL) and fear of public ridicule has silenced many Christians and pulpits from using God’s Word to challenge antichristian religions, particularly Zionism. The fear also includes political and legal fear, as US laws moves toward making Talmudic Zionism a protected movement.¹²

As we consider Judaism – which “is Zionist through and through” – one will see the seductive spirits working to unite Talmudism with Christianity in order to advance Zionist’s goals.

The average Bible-believing Christian in the United States knows very little about post-New Testament Judaism. He may be vaguely aware that American Judaism is divided into three theological wings: Reform (liberal), Conservative, and Orthodox. He may also be aware that European Judaism has two great ethnic branches: the Sephardim (those whose ancestors once lived in Spain, Portugal, or the Eastern Mediterranean) and the Ashkenazic Jews (those who came west from Russia and Poland), who were the Yiddish-speaking Jews in the late 1800's and early 1900's, prior to their linguistic assimilation into American culture. But as to how these Jewish groups overlap, or which group dominates Judaism this either in the U. S. or in the state of Israel today, the average Christian has no idea.¹³

This book pinpoints the political importance of Jewish fundamentalism in Israel, a powerful state in and beyond the Middle East that wields great influence in the United States. Jewish fundamentalism is here briefly defined as the belief that Jewish Orthodoxy, which is based upon the Babylonian Talmud, the rest of talmudic literature and halachic literature, is still valid and will eternally remain valid. Jewish fundamentalists believe that the Bible itself is not authoritative unless interpreted correctly by talmudic literature.¹⁴

Mr. Hoffman:

The idea that the Bible cannot be understood without the mediation of the rabbis of Judaism --without Talmudic explanation, or in the case of Kabbalism, without the intervention of gematric numerology¹⁵ -- makes the Old and in some cases even the New Testament captive to the “traditions of the elders.” The pernicious fallacy of the religion of Judaism, that one can't truly know the Bible without commentary and interpretation from Talmudic and Kabbalistic rabbis and their traditions, is growing among “Christians,” commensurate with the growing prestige of Judaism within Christendom. The acceptance of this deadly error effectively enables the enemies of the Bible to keep the teachings of Jesus from the common people to whom He had originally preached.

Instead, the rabbis, through their frontmen in the Church, mold and redirect “Christian” dogma based on interpretations of the Bible by the Pharisees of antiquity, further “clarified” by modern rabbinic pronouncements as filtered through the latest university theology seminars and trendy Church synods and councils acting as their mouthpieces.

This process is also abetted by supposed former adherents of Judaism who allegedly convert to Christianity and yet bring their Talmudic and Kabbalistic baggage with them into the Church, and attempt to baptize these traditions of theirs (“Messianic-Judaism”) and present them to Christians as the “true” Christianity “practiced by Jesus” and withheld from the people as part of a conspiracy by wicked anti-semites and medieval inquisitors.¹⁶

The Frontmen

Who are these frontmen? Mr. Hoffman does not identify any frontmen by name, but we can hear the results of their work as they contend that in order to properly understand the Hebrew scripture one needs a rabbi who is familiar with the Talmud. Moreover, “They mock ‘replacement theology,’ claiming Christians will never replace the Jews and God’s Chosen people,” and have passed along that Talmudic philosophy.

Mr. Hoffman reveals that the goal of the frontmen was and is to undermine and corrupt all scripture that has been given by God, particularly the Old Testament law and prophets.

The rabbis send men of talent and ability to fake conversion to the Christian religion. They use their talent to deceitfully work their way into important positions in various respected Christian institutions and organizations, particularly higher education. From their respected positions, they quietly undermine the Word of God which defines Orthodox Christianity with Jewish traditions and fables.

The frontmen have effectively advanced the Prestige of Rabbinic, Talmudic Judaism: Talmudic Judaism has worked its way down from these highly placed “Christian” frontmen to the pulpit; it now seems that the whole world has been captivated by “Christian Zionism.” The result is that Judaized Christians will vote for those who promise the most support for Zionist project to possess all of the ancient land of Israel and beyond.

This writer has some books by Christian authors who have sought to develop the mystical system of letters and numbers.

Growing prestige

Christ warned his church, “Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.” In other words, it only takes a few false teachers in the right places to “leaven the whole lump.”¹⁷ “Modern Judaism is especially the religion of ‘the Rabbis,’ and the Pharisees were the first Rabbis.”¹⁸

Rabbi Kertzer tells us that modern Jewish rabbis are the heirs to the Pharisees. That self-professed claim to the first century Pharisees makes them joint heirs with the Jewish religious leaders who killed Jesus Christ. Throughout the New Testament, the church is warned against the influence of Jewish false doctrines made up of fables and traditions. The leaven of the Pharisees has been inserted by the frontmen, and is revealing itself in the “Weird Cult of Judeo-Christianity,” and Christian Zionism.

Evidence of the frontmen’s success: Dispensationalism, corrupt Bible translations, dismissal of the law and the prophets from Christian theology, &c.¹⁹

“The growing prestige of Judaism within Christendom” is also revealed in this “classic statement of modern Protestantism’s view of Judaism, as presented by conservative Presbyterian theologian Douglas Jones:”

- 1) Abraham is the ancient father of Judaism and Christianity
- 2) Christianity needs to be considered “in the light of Judaism.”
- 3) Judaism and Christianity are not “two distinct religions.”
- 4) Christianity “saw itself as the continuing outgrowth, the fulfillment, of true Judaism.”
- 5) “Christ was the fulfillment of the ancient promises of Judaism” as given to Adam.
- 6) To understand Christianity, one must consider “its very Jewish roots.”
- 7) Christianity is like Judaism, “unless Christ, the final prophet authoritatively changed a practice.”
- 8) Judaism permeates Christianity.²⁰

However, “Christianity did not embrace Judaism, but Judaism embraced Christianity, for where there is Christianity there cannot be Judaism.”

Rabbi Kertzer lists many similarities from the Old Testament. “We both believe that history will end with the coming of a perfect messianic reign of God...,” and that his throne will be in Jerusalem.²¹ It is a common practice for the rabbis to present Judaism in Protestant terms to get the Protestant’s support.²²

At every opportunity, Talmudic Judaism uses well-known Scriptures such as Ps 122:6 to implant Zionism in the heart and minds of Christians, e.g., “for some two thousand years, Jews have prayed for the well-being of Jerusalem” or “pray for the welfare of Jerusalem”²³

“Chanukah (i.e. Hanukkah, ed.) is popularly known as the Feast of Lights... for better or worse, it has been built up to balance Christmas in a Christian society. ...”²⁴

Growing prestige

Evidence of the Growing Prestige

First, the desire to seek after a rabbi to give proper understanding to the Hebrew Scriptures. Second, believing that the Hebrew Scriptures can be better understood through rabbinic numerology. Third, believing that the true Christianity practiced by Jesus was Talmudic Judaism, and Christian conspirators withheld the truth of his Talmudic message from the people. Fourth, Judaism's influence into Christianity as spread by frontmen who, though they professed Christian conversion, have brought Talmudic Judaism and Zionism with them. Fifth, Judaism's frontmen succeeding in reaching places of importance in Christian circles. The silent infiltration of the frontmen has allowed Jewish doctrines into "university theology seminars and trendy Church synods and councils." As a result, Talmudic Zionism has become welded to Christianity in the minds of the simple. These ambassadors of Zionism have undermined the Lord Jesus Christ as the Word of God from his proper place in the "Christian" education system. Sixth, the success of Judaism's undercover frontmen in combining Christian doctrine with Judaism, i.e., Phariseeism is evident in the Dispensational faith as proclaimed from numerous pulpits of the world. Seventh, the growing prestige of "Messianic-Judaism by the church is realized" in Dispensational Millennialism which was introduced into Protestantism in the early 1800s.

Growing Prestige in the US

There are several indications of the gradual establishment of Talmudism in the U. S.

First:

Donald Trump, America's first Jewish president. Donald Trump will protect Israel and its supporters, strengthen day schools and move the US embassy to Jerusalem.

On policy, there is no question that Donald Trump is the most pro-Israel, pro-Jewish candidate to ever run for the U.S. presidency. And this year's Republican Party platform is the most pro-Israel political platform in the history of the United States, on either side of the political aisle. That is why when Jewish and pro-Israel voters learn about Donald Trump's policies, they support Donald Trump. Let's examine the evidence and look at other ties that bond Mr. Trump to Israel and the Jewish people.²⁵

Trump plan said to give Israel sovereignty throughout Jerusalem, all settlements

The Trump administration's Israeli-Palestinian peace plan — to be presented next week at the White House to Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu and his rival Blue and White party leader Benny Gantz — provides for full Israeli sovereignty throughout Jerusalem, for Israel to annex all West Bank settlements, and for no significant "return" to Israel of Palestinian refugees, Israeli TV reported Thursday night.²⁶

Second:

The American taxpayers' subsidy of "U.S. Holocaust Museum" in Washington, D.C. The "Holocaust museum" excludes any reference to holocausts perpetrated by the Communists against Christians in Russia and Eastern Europe, from 1917 onward.²⁷

Judaism is the star at a Bible museum built by Hobby Lobby

Newest DC institution celebrates Jewish origins; Israel's ambassador to US and host of Israeli dignitaries attend opening ceremony²⁸

Hobby Lobby presents the glories of Judaism.

NPR interview Introduction: "The Museum of the Bible opens to the public on Saturday in Washington, D.C. NPR's Michelle Martin talks to the museum's executive director, Paul Anthony 'Tony' Zeiss.

Museum Of The Bible Mission Shifts "To Engage All People" In The History And Narrative

... MARTIN: The original charter called for a different mission. It was explicitly evangelical, which is a particular perspective of Christianity, a perspective - a particular point of view. The original charter stated that the mission was to inspire confidence and the absolute authority and reliability of the Bible. So two questions to that. When did that mission change to broaden the perspective of the mission?

ZEISS: You know, I have to tell you, I really don't know. It was very early on, I'm told. But I've only been here since January of this year. I think they came up with that because the Green family, they happen to be evangelicals, and that's certainly their choice. And so they wanted to do what they thought fit within their own belief system. But they very quickly figured out, wait a minute, this Bible is the foundation for many faith traditions and many religions so we need to broaden that. And that's what they did....

The question by NPR was "Why did the Green family change from the original charter of presenting the glories of the Christian faith to presenting the glories of Judaism?" Zeiss' answer was non-answer. The admission is free now, as it draws in multitudes of Christians to see the glories of Talmudic Judaism. An additional question: Why did the Green's decide to spend $500 million to promote Talmudic Judaism rather than Christianity?²⁹

Fourth:

The recent movement within the Church to declare opposition to Judaism an accursed form of 'anti-semitic racism' is, in its inspiration and praxis, thoroughly Talmudic, for it either extinguishes the New Testament's teachings or distorts them to such a degree that they are effectively made 'of none effect.' This movement must also ignore or negate 2,000 years of historic Christian exposition of these teachings. The extra-Biblical and anti-Christian nature of this fifth column within the Church is patent. It derives its credibility almost entirely from the blind allegiance it commands from Christians duped by usurpers and traitors occupying high ecclesiastical office, (frontmen, ed.) and by the tremendous glamor which the media accord it.³⁰

When the modern church publicly states that opposition to Talmudic Judaic Zionism is racism, the church has replaced Christian history with the imaginative Judaic history. The frontmen have effectively worked

Russian Soviet Government. Concurrently, Jewish machinations in the United States, Germany and elsewhere helped set the stage for the take-over. their way up the ecclesiastical ladder with their Talmudic doctrines. Fear of being charged with “anti-Semitism” has prevented the church from speaking out, and identifying Talmudic Judaism as Christ did, Phariseism. Jesus Christ identified the Pharisees thusly: “You are of your father, the Devil!” Even the disciples feared the Jews until they saw Christ.³¹

Semites-Antisemitism

Christianity has learned to be tolerant, and is forever compromising, but Judaism does not practice the same tolerance. Anything said against Talmudic Judaism draws a rapid response, and loud public ridicule from Jewish organizations—such as the ADL and the Simon Wiesenthal Center—whose mission is to deceive Christians and non-Jews concerning the extreme antichrist attitude of the Talmud against Christ and Christianity.³²

The "Judeo-Christian" idea, i.e., unity of Judaic Zionism with Christianity, has been so ingrained into the public's consciousness, that any effort to call attention to that unholy alliance of the two is met with ridicule, great anger, charges of anti-Semitism, and the coming prospect of jail time for “antisemitism.” However, it is a well-established fact, even confessed by the Israeli Children of Ashkenaz, that the self- defined Jews are not Semites—children of Noah's son, Shem.³³

While Renan, in the preface to his history of the Semitic languages, warned against wresting individual passages from the context, and insisted that the racial element was counterbalanced by many other influences; while he said that the Jews of our age are not Semites, but modern men; and while he even denied the existence of a Jewish race (Le Judaïsme comme Race et comme Religion Paris, 1883), it was, nevertheless, he who had forged the arms which the anti-Semites used in their attacks on Jews and Judaism.³⁴

The New Testament clearly reveals that Christ and his Church fulfilled all of the Old Testament promises which the Children of Ashkenaz have claimed for their own.³⁵

My, how the church needs to exalt Christian Truth, so it will see the totality of the Word of God, Jesus Christ!

Apostate Prayer

Psalms 122 “Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee” is a clear reference to the Gospel Church, for which the redeemed are commanded to pray. Talmudic Judaism has laid a false claim to a precious promise that belongs only to the Gospel Church, the New Jerusalem, the City of God, the city Abraham sought in Hebrews 11:10.

Growing prestige

How many Christians and religious leaders, even from the pulpits, presently “pray for the peace of Jerusalem,” yet their “prayers” are for the carnal city of self-proclaimed Jews. According to St. John, those who pray for the peace of and blessings upon carnal Jerusalem are asking God to bless and prosper those who openly identify as anti-Christ, as they openly, publicly and vehemently deny the Father and Son. Such prayers are absolutely forbidden to the Christian, and stink before the Lord.³⁶

For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist. Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward. Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son. If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed: For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds. (2 John 1:7-11)

Those who confess not Jesus Christ is come in the flesh are deceivers and antichrists. Those who pray for God’s speed upon them make themselves partakers of their evil deeds.

Finally

“The growing prestige of Judaism within Christendom” is shown in a new Christian Zionist’s effort which is now infecting the church as would a communicable disease. That new effort is the establishment of

“THE DAY OF PRAYER FOR THE PEACE OF JERUSALEM, first Sunday of every October. [DDPJ]”³⁷

Knowing that there are riches to be obtained by supporting Judaic Zionism, a good number of Zionist Christian leaders have united in praying according to Talmudic Judaism’s understanding of Psalms 122. They are asking God to bless those who deny the Father and the Son. Some of the better-known names include Dr. William M. Wilson - President of Oral Roberts University, Dennis Balcombe - Revival Chinese Ministries International, Kenneth Copeland - Kenneth Copeland Ministries, Matt Sorger - Matt Sorger Ministries, Pastor John Hagee - Cornerstone Church, &c.

There is little doubt that without the support of the Christian Zionists, e.g. the late Jerry Falwell,³⁸ Douglas Jones, Darrell L. Bock, John Hagee, Pat Robertson, and a multitude of other dispensational Christian leaders in high places, Zionism would not hold its current place in world.³⁹

Dispensationalism has placed the promises of the Old Testament which are fulfilled in Jesus Christ into a future dispensation. Judaism’s Millennial faith has made itself known in the Evangelical community in the form of Dispensational Millennialism.

I believe that the people of Israel have not only a theological but also a historical and legal right to the land [of Palestine]. I am personally a Zionist, having gained that perspective from my belief in Old Testament Scriptures. I have also visited Israel many times. I have arrived at the conclusion that unless the United States maintains its unswerving devotion to the State of Israel, the very survival of that nation is at stake ... Every American who agrees Israel has the right to the land must be willing to exert all possible pressure on the powers that be to guarantee America’s support of the State of Israel at this time.’” Wikipedia.org

Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee. (Ps 122:6)

The redeemed are told to pray for the peace, prosperity and the advancement of the Kingdom of God on earth, the Gospel Church which is the New Jerusalem, the new Mt Sion.⁴⁰

The tireless work of Judaism's frontmen has fabricated a link with Christianity – “Judeo-Christianity” – that is not there. That link has allowed Judaic Zionism to gain the needed public support, money and even military might to implement the “Zionist project.”⁴¹ Christian and public support has allowed the Children of Ashkenaz Jews who now inhabit Palestine to force the Arabian Palestinians from their homeland, and claim that land for their own “Jewish Homeland.”

How can there be peace when war is in the heart? (Ps 55:21) How can the Palestinians forget what the UN did to their fathers in 1947? How can the Palestinians ignore what the nation of Israel is doing to them as Israel, with the financial and military support of Christian Zionists, openly flaunt the 1993 Oslo Accord? The Israeli disdain for the Oslo Accord is shown by building a city named after Trump.⁴²

The idea of a Judeo-Christian connection has permitted Judaism to make great inroads into not only in US politics and foreign policy, but also into the Christian religion. If the roots of a “Christian” nation, or the roots of Christianity itself is Judaism, those roots cannot be Christian. (Can one serve two gods—the Antichrist and the Christ of the New Covenant?)

Follow the Money, and one will find the fountain head of the Judeo-Christian cult.⁴³

“For where there is Christianity there cannot be Judaism.”

A Cruel Hoax

[T]he large majority of surviving Jews in the world is of Eastern European—and thus perhaps mainly of Khazar— origin. If so, this would mean that their ancestors came not from the Jordan but from the Volga, not from Canaan but from the Caucasus, once believed to be the cradle of the Aryan race; and that genetically they are more closely related to the Hun, Uigur and Magyar tribes than to the seed of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Should this turn out to be the case, then the term “anti-Semitism” would become void of meaning, based on a misapprehension shared by both the killers and their victims. The story of the Khazar Empire, as it slowly emerges from the past, begins to look like the most cruel hoax which history has ever perpetrated.⁴⁴

For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. (Is 9:6)

⁴⁰ Ps 47:2: “[he is] a great King over all the earth; as he must needs be, since he is the great God and our Saviour; and is King of kings, and Lord of lords. He is now King of Zion, and head over all things to the church; and before long the kingdoms of this world will become his, and he will take to himself his great power and reign, and shall be King over all the earth openly and visibly; he shall be one, and his name One, #Zec 14:9 Mal 1:14; which is another reason for joy and gladness among the people.” John Gill. “He is a great King over all the earth] As having taken possession, by his wonderful ascension, of the universal kingdom given him by his Father, and gathered himself a Church out of all mankind, which he wonderfully ruleth and defendeth against the rage of earth and of hell.” John Trapp. 1 Tim 6:14-16.
