The Spirit of Antichrist is Surging

ANTICHRIST

THE SPIRIT OF THE AGE

By Rev. Need

Revelation 20:3 And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season.

This is almost an addition to the last issue, but because of the strength of the spirit of the age, it is needful that we re-plough some old ground.

The following is harsh truth, and probably is more than you care to know, but harsh times require harsh truth.

Disagreement must be with the Word of God, and with honest history.

The current “conflict” continues the world-wide conflict that started in the Garden. The conflict there was NOT a carnal conflict any more than it is today. It is a war between two kingdoms. It is a spiritual warfare, the Spirit of Christ vs. the Spirit of the Antichrist—The Kingdom of God vs the Kingdom of man.

1 John 2:18 Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that anti-christ shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time. 22 Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son. (Christ was the beginning of the last time. 1 Jn 4:3, 2 Jn 1:7.)

John’s is the only identification of the antichrist. However, since John’s definition does not fit into prophetic calendar of the “Experts,” John is ig-

St John clearly tells us that the antichrist is not a man; rather, “he” is the spirit that wars against the truth, Jesus Christ—the Captain of the Lord’s hosts or army, Joshua 5:15. Though the antichrist is very active in the current war going on in the Middle East, his primary war is against the truth, the Kingdom of God on earth—the body of Christ. (Ps 2)

[It seems that Satan has been loosed upon the earth to do all the damage he can do in these last days as time moves on from the time of Christ. Revelation 20:3, 7. Of course, only the Judge of the whole Earth can loose him, and the Judge looses him to do the will of God.]

The Spirit of our Time is war. The ungodly smell power, money and death, so the Spirit of Warfare that is in the air. We are being pushed into a war that is none of our business.

The following is no light matter. If we “put boots on the ground” in the Middle East conflict, others will also. There will be a military draft of both men and women. There will probably be an outbreak of war here in North America courtesy of the Palestinian refugees who will be forced upon the WASP nations by the tens of thousands. They will war against those who support and finance Israel’s genocide against their home.

WORLD WAR III HAS BEGUN

By Gerald Celente

In these critical times, we cannot stand idly by as the world descends into chaos. The ongoing murderous wars, especially the Israel War, demand our immediate attention and action.

Silenced by the media and political systems, World War III has begun, and the pillars of freedom, peace, and justice are under threat. The genocide being committed in the Israel War is marked by unimaginable suffering, with innocent lives, particularly women and children, bearing the brunt of mass murder.

U.S. Senator Lindsey Graham proclaimed that this is a religious war: “We’re in a religious war here. I stand with Israel. Do whatever the hell you have to do to defend yourself and level the place.”

A religious war? What if I don’t believe in your God? And where are all the religions demanding peace and condemning Lindsey Graham for his hatred to “level the place”... i.e. slaughter the Palestinians in Gaza and bomb it into ruins.

Evil forces are at play, and the world is witnessing horror unfolding before its eyes. It is our collective responsibility to put an end to this madness. And it is up to We the People to change the course of history and unite for Freedom, Peace and Justice. United We Stand, Divided We Die.

Since 1897, the spirit of the antichrist has worked to destroy the Christian Character of the US. His primary effort has been through the humanist education system, and they have been highly successful.

Zionism, “A program for the enslavement of the world and the destruction of Christian religion.” (Theodore Herzl, 1897)

There will be and is a huge amount of propaganda and prophetic speculation that appeals to the Evangelical community to get them to support the massive slaughter of the Palestinians. This prophetic speculation is used to accomplish many things, including attempts to scare people into the Kingdom of God.

[11/13/23] On our way back from somewhere, we were listening to “Family Radio.” The program featured a “Prophecy Expert” to explain about the false prophet, the beast and the antichrist. He was connecting all the Prophetic “dots” in his new book. He used the same prophetic speculation that was used years ago when the emphasis was on number of nations in the European Union, 1970s. David Jeremiah puts the puzzle together thusly:

“Gradually yet steadily, the nations of Europe have come together. Rome is more integrated today than at any time since the days of Jesus. According to the prophecies of Daniel, this new Roman Empire represented by the feet and toes of Daniel’s beast and by the ten horns of the beast in Daniel 7 will have to be present when the end-time events begin to happen. ...

“Jesus’ return is nearer than ever. We may not know the day or the hour, but we can recognize the season. And one thing we do know: It is a lot closer to us than it was when these words were written and when these prophecies were given. There has never been a time like this.”

“Today is the day of salvation.... Make that decision now.”

Recently, our oldest granddaughter visited us. She wanted us to listen to a song she liked. After the good song, another video played. It was a preacher using the Great Tribulation and the assurance of a Rapture to escape the Tribulation. His effort was to get people to say Yes to Jesus so they could avoid the Great Tribulation. Question: How about the Christians in Palestine, in Muslim and Hindu nations, China, Sudan, North Korea, Russia, does he have an encouraging message for them that the Rapture will enable the Christians to avoid the Great Tribulation?

Beware of false prophets which come to you in sheep's clothing... (Mat 7:15) The false prophets are out in force intent to profit again as they have many times in the past with their vain prophecies and false hope. They use newspaper exegesis to control and shear the unsuspecting sheep. Knowing or unknowingly, they are leading sincere Christians down their broad path to defeat and destruction. Since the development of the Dispensational Faith in 1830, there has been great wealth in prophetic speculation.

This current war fits right into the Evangelical Dispensational calendar of future events. The "Experts" have it all planned out as though God consulted with them. Such is the high arrogance of fallen man against God. The "Expert's" plan is for Jesus Christ to return when things get bad enough. He will then enforce peace with His bloody sword. (Years ago, I taught the Dispensational Faith with the best of them.)

It is amazing how easily professed Christians can be convinced to part with their money and their blood for totally unbiblical, even wicked causes. Yet the same people see no need for Christian education. They see no hope in the gospel of peace through preaching and teaching the requirement of faith in and obedience to Christ, starting in the Christian family. They are clouds without water and empty wells of false hope.

This war is coming at a convenient time. Those who want to remain in power need to cancel the election, primarily because of Trump. They also need a war to coverup the Western financial collapse that can't be delayed much longer:

Over the years, we have seen that when all else fails to control public opinion, go to war. We older people missed Korea, but we did see Vietnam, and the several "wars" since. Everything is being done today to provoke a much wider conflict than the Middle East. Such a war will rapidly expand it to engulf most of the world. There is money, power and useless death and destruction in war.

• THE WAR

Prime Minister Netanyahu spoke to the house after the election of the new speaker. Pointing to the face of Moses looking down on the House, he pleaded for America to join with Israel in the war to destroy the Palestinians. He said that Moses led the Jews out of Egypt, so today's Jews deserved the total support of America. He was obviously looking for Evangelical support for the war.

He lied, and few Christians can identify his deceit from Scripture. Moses did not lead the Jews out of Egypt. Rather, he led the newly formed nation of Israel, the sons of Jacob as an army out of Egypt, and that nation went on to conquer the "Promised Land."

We cannot imagine what is at stake both financially and militarily for the State of Israel by keeping the world believing their deceitful claim that those who identify themselves as Jews are the legitimate heirs to the ancient Israelite name, and heirs to land of Canaan, Palestine. See October 31, this issue.

The first thing the Speaker should have done was secure our borders, which he still has not done. But the first thing he did was to promise to support Israel in its effort to completely destroy the Palestinians. That support was probably the reason he got the speakership over Jordan.

For the past several decades, the public has been programmed to accept the many lies about "Jews," making Netanyahu's lie believable. That lie is effective in getting unlimited support for the modern Israel.

My pastor used to say, "We must run everything through a Theological sieve." In order to do that, one must know the entire word of God.

Let us start by dealing with the word "Jew." Here are 4 definitions:

1) Jew: a man or woman of the tribe of Judea. About 742 B.C, (2 Kings 16) is first time the word Jew is used to identify those dwelling Jerusalem in Judea. The name Jew was expanded to include all of the Children of Israel regardless of where they lived. After being carried away by Babylon and allowed to return under Cyrus, the vast majority of the Children of Israel remained in Babylon where they were known as Jews. Talmudic Judaism was established in Babylon.

All traces of ancient National Israel that came out of Egypt were totally erased from history in 70 AD. The Sephardic Jews are the only ones who might have a claim to the physical heirs of Abraham, and maybe the Palestinians who were left in Judea after the Jewish-Roman war.

2) Jew: any person whose mother was a Jew or any person who has gone through the formal process of conversion to the Jew's religion, Judaism. There is no hint of any requirement to show one's connection to the ancient Children of Israel out of Egypt. The name Jew also applies to those today who identify themselves as Jews, or because others, such as Hitler, identified them as Jews.

3) Jew: any follower of or convert to the Jew's religion, Judaism.

According to Rabbi Kertzer, though there are many kinds of Jews, their unifying point is their common commitment to live a life of Torah, by which we mean that the totality of Jewish wisdom, which we refer to generally as "Torah," forms the basis of what we do. We have been called "The people of the Book," and indeed we are that. Torah is therefore primarily a series of books, beginning with the Bible, and then continuing rabbinic writings thereafter: the Mishnah, the Talmud, midrash, laws codes, commentaries, and, commentaries on commentaries. Jewish literature encompasses legal texts, philosophical inquiry, mysticism, poetry, prayer books, history, satire, autobiography, and even ethical wills — wills that record how parents lived their lives and advise children who survive them how to best continue the values for which the parents stood" (What is a Jew, p. 35)

There is far more to the "Torah" than the law of Moses. It includes mysticism, occult and demonic magic. (Kabbalah, Torah, Mishnah, Talmud, Midrash, as well as the Jewish holy days such as the Passover, Yon-Kipper, &c., are all defined at <https://www.biblicalexaminer.org/JudaismOpen.html> .

In 2019, America's foreign policy concerning Israel was being formulated and implemented by Trump's son-in-law, Jared Kushner. He is an ordained minister in the Universal Life Church, an Orthodox Jew, a follower of Jewish mysticism, Cabbalism, or Kabbalism which consists of the occult, magic and spells, and he prays to a famous dead Jewish mystic. Moreover, Ivanka Trump wears a noted symbol of Kabbalah....

Thus, a "Jew" can mean any follower of the Jew's religion, i.e. Judaism: Both the New Testament and Jewish writers identify the Jew's religion, Judaism, as the "tradition of the elders," or the religion of the Pharisees, which was established in Babylon. The term "tradition of the elders" is very common in the New Testament, and is soundly condemned.

4) Jew: All who follow the Lamb of God. They alone are the Jews, the Israel of God.

Romans 2:29 But he [is] a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision [is that] of the heart, in the spirit, [and] not in the letter; whose praise [is] not of men, but of God. Galatians 6:16 And as many as walk according to this rule, peace [be] on them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

The word "Jew" is used many times in the New Testament, and the word can be very confusing, and can be used to great advantage to deceive those who do not know or ignore the Word of God. The word can be used by a speaker to mean what he wants it to mean, and the hearer understands something else, e.g., Netanyahu in Congress. Accordingly, "Jew" has several meanings, and the context will usually tell which meaning to use.

Its common use in the Old Testament meant a person of the tribe of Judah, which was one of the 12 tribes of the Hebrew Nation of Israel that came out of Egypt and settled in Canaan. The "Jewish nation" did not come into existence until David's grandson, Jeroboam was on the throne of the united kingdom of Israel. According to the prophecy against David's sin, the united kingdom split under him into two nations, Judah and Israel.

The word Jew has been a topic of discussion since the word was first used about 742 B.C in 2 Kings 16:6 At that time Rezin king of Syria recovered Elath to Syria, and drave the Jews from Elath: and the Syrians came to Elath, and dwelt there unto this day.

Paul, a Benjaminite, was a zealous follower of the Jew's religion:

Galatians 1:13 For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it: 14 And profited in the Jews' religion above many my equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers.

The Jew's religion was and is Talmudic Judaism, and is identified by Paul as the traditions of the fathers as formulated in Babylon. Judaism was soundly condemned throughout the New Testament. It was the leaders of the Jew's religion who crucified Christ, and persecuted and still persecute the church. (Cf. Mark 7:13, Col 2:8 2:8, 1 Pet 1:18, 19.)

In John 8:44, Christ clearly identified Talmudic Judaism as demonic. He firmly states that those who follow the Jew's religion are children of the Devil who loves murder, lies and mayhem of all kinds. Paul and John did the same.

John 8:44 Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

Christ himself identified the followers of the Jew's religion as children of the Devil. Judaism is an example of the spirit of the antichrist incarnate. The followers of Talmudic Judaism are controlled by the lusts of their father the devil, and they have no problem using murder and lies to fulfill their lusts.

According to the Word of God, Judaism embodies the spirit of the antichrist, which makes "Judeo-Christianity" a deceptive Satanic lie meant to get public support for unholy causes. True history shows that "Jews" had no part in the foundation of America. Our heritage has nothing to do with Judaism. "But we both follow the 'Torah,' the Commandments of God!" There is far more to the Torah than what is commonly known, things which the Christian must avoid.

We are in a spiritual warfare, so the devil's spirit of John 8:44, the spirit of the antichrist is alive and very active today in the followers of Judaism, as they profess to be something they are not.

Revelation 22:15 For without [are] dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie. Those outside the Kingdom of God love and make lies in order to fulfill their lust for wealth and power.

The Jew's religion of New Testament time was and still is the religion of the Pharisees as found in the Babylonian Talmud. Judaism came out of Babylon, and the followers of the Jew's religion, Judaism, admit that the Talmud is the source of all Western Occult teaching; it is a religion of Black Magic, demonology and deceit.

• THE WAR

Very few people today realize that Israel has several times admitted that they are the descendants of the Aryan Turkish tribe of Ashkenazi, a son of Gomer. 95% of Jews today are Ashkenazi Jews, and they are at war today to take over all of the Old Testament land of Canaan, and establish a powerful Jewish state, Zionism.

Modern Zionism was founded in 1897 when Theodore Herzl wrote the "Protocols of Zion." He presented the Protocols to the inner circle of the first Zionist Congress in Basel, Switzerland. He presented them as "A program for the enslavement of the world and the destruction of Christian religion."

In 1919, the United States Military Intelligence Division Report admitted that the Protocols of Zion were authentic. The Report was classified until 1973, and the Report can now be downloaded. The Protocols played a big part in the 1917 Bolshevik Revolution, which was an act of revenge against Christian Russia—many Jews were involved, e.g., Marx, Lenin and Troskey.

To this day, Zionism is trying to distance itself from its foundation established by Herzl in the "Protocols," The "Protocols" have been vigorously denied. Those who might mention them are immediately accused of "Anti-Semitism" and of conspiracy. But let honest history speak for itself. Talmudic Judaism and even support for the Zionist movement to destroy Christianity now controls Evangelical Christendom. Both are making inroads into the Orthodox, or the Reformed faith.

"Judaism is Zionism," though not all Jews will admit that fact. However, Christ identified all followers of Judaism as children of the devil.

The "red flag" for Christians should be the vocal condemnation, even from Christian leaders, of any who might make an Anti-Jewish statement. On the other hand, there is no condemnation of those who make anti-Christian statements.

Christian Zionists—Christians who support the building of a strong Jewish State—do not know what they are doing as they support their own destruction by financing the Zionist Jewish State of Israel.

Who are the modern Jews, those who admit they are Ashkenazi Jews? Who are the Jews the US is financing in their effort to possess all of Palestine?

Are they, in Netanyahu's words, the Jews Moses brought out of Egypt? If they are not, who are they and from where did they come?

Below we identify the Jews who are forcing us into a war that could easily spread over the nations with the support of Evangelical Christianity.

The table of nations in Genesis 10 identifies them:

Ham is the father of the Canaan. He was the father of the 7 nations destroyed by Israel when they went into the land. Ham is the father of the dark skin people, the African nations. Egypt is identified as the land of Ham.

Shem in the father of the children of Israel who were brought out of Egypt by Moses are descendants of Shem; they are Semites, as are all the eastern, oriental nations, or yellow skin peoples, including the Arabs. Though the Israelite nation was destroyed in 70 A.D., there are many Semites still around, including those who might have been left in the land after the Jewish Roman war.

Japheth is the father of all the Ayran or white nations, Russia, Germany, Turkey, &c. Japheth had 7 sons. Gomer, Magog, Madia, Javan, Tubal, Meshech, Tira, who are all listed in Ezekiel 38, 39. Gomer had 3 sons, Ashkenaz, Riphath, Togarmah. Thus, those listed in Ezekiel 38 are Ashkenazi's uncles. I do not want to get too far in the weeds, but let us look at Ezekiel 38:

1 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 2 Son of man, set thy face against Gog, the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him, 3 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I [am] against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal: 4 And I will turn thee back, and put hooks into thy jaws, and I will bring thee forth, and all thine army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed with all sorts [of armour, even] a great company [with] bucklers and shields, all of them handling swords: 5 Persia, Ethiopia, and Libya with them; all of them with shield and helmet: 6 Gomer, and all his bands; the house of Togarmah of the north quarters, and all his bands: [and] many people with thee.

[V. 2] Who were a people that came from Magog the son of Japheth, Ge 10:2. Magog also here signifies a certain country so that by these two countries which had the government of Greece and Italy he means the principal enemies of the Church, Re 20:8. (Geneva)

Ezekiel 38 lists the enemies of Israel. In light of Paul's words, the Israel of chapter 38 & 39 is the new Israel of God, the Gospel Church. The end-time war listed in 38, 39 is against the Church, the Kingdom of God on earth. There is a wonderful and encouraging study of the sure "Victor in Jesus" for the church here in Ezekiel. (For those who might like to pursue the idea of the Antichrist's war against the church, see Daniel 7 & Rev 13 & 20.)

The identity of Gog in 38:2 is speculated to be the chief power behind the army listed in vv. 2-6. Gog is identified as the chief prince who moves his army against the church. The devil is identified as the prince of the power of the air, so he could be the one who gathers his army against the Israel of God.

We do know what has been stated publicly: That is, Zionism's intention and goal is to enslave the world, and to destroy the Christian religion. The stated goal at the founding of Zionism fits well with the war listed in Ezekiel 38, 39. And we know from Christ's words that the followers of Judaism are children of the devil, and their war involves lies and murders.

We are in a war between two spiritual entities, the Spirit of Christ and the spirit of the antichrist. 1 John 2 tells us that the antichrist is not a man. Rather, "he" is the spirit who wages war against Jesus Christ who is the Captain of the Lord's hosts, the Gospel Church. Though the antichrist spirit is active in the conflict in the Middle East, his war is against the body of Christ, the church.

So how did Ashkenazi, who was a son of Gomer a son of Japheth become known as Jews, when they admit they have no connection to Shem? (The term "Anti-Semite" is a lie used to shame anyone who speaks against the Ashkenazi Jews. Ignored is the fact that the Arabs are true Semites, Genesis 25:12.)

How did the Ashkenazis, a Turkish tribe in the lineage of Gomer, become known as Jews who have the right to purge Palestine of all non-Jews?

In as few words possible, let us look at the beginning of what is taking place today. That cause can be traced back to 930-940 AD.

930-940 A.D. Conversion

In 930 A.D., a descendent of Gomer, Ashkenazi King Joseph of Turkish descent was the king of the richest and most powerful kingdom of his day. The Ashkenazi's home was in the Russian Steppes. King Joseph's people, the Ashkenazim, were extremely wicked in their pagan religion. King Joseph got tired of the perverseness, so he converted to Talmudic Judaism.

When he converted, so did all his kingdom. He insisted that all new babies born would have a Hebrew or Hebrew sounding name; he hired "memory merchants," experts to rewrite history in order to connect the Ashkenazi's with Biblical Israel, and prove that Canaan was their legitimate homeland. They thus identified themselves as Jews in every way possible, and claimed Palestine as their historic homeland. But their homeland was in Russia.

• PROPAGANDA WORKS

Since 1897 when Theodore Herzl wrote the "Protocols of Zion," there has been an all-out propaganda campaign to convince the world that the children of Ashkenazi are the legitimate heirs to Palestine. And their campaign has been very profitable, especially now as they wage an all-out war to gain control of all the land, a war that is being supported by Evangelical Christians and financed with fiat money by the US central bank, the FED.

• FALSE FLAG

The border between Israel and Palestine is one of the most heavily guarded borders in the world, and the border was probably financed by the US. Several men with their finger on current events have made the obvious observation that Israel had to allow the attack by Hamas in order to get world-wide support to destroy the Palestinians and take over their land. Such an event is known as a False Flag. False Flag events have been a common practice of war throughout history. Common throughout American history False Flag events have been used to accomplish specific political goals. It is now common knowledge that Japan was encouraged to attack Pearl Harbor in order to get public support for WWII. (See "October 32" article.)

Jabalya is a densely populated refugee camp established shortly after the Arab-Israeli war of 1948, when hundreds of thousands of Palestinians fled or were expelled from territory that encompassed the newly established State of Israel.

The UN at the pleading of the Ashkenazi Jews, confiscated Palestine and gave it to the followers of the Jews' religion, Talmudic Judaism. Israeli forces then removed the Palestinian owners of the land off of their land with tanks and bulldozers. Those forced off settled in the Jabalya refugee camp in 1948.

"Netanyahu knows that he can slaughter all of the "human animals" (Zionist term for Palestinians) that he wants with complete and total impunity. The sheer terror and inhumanity against innocent women and children mean absolutely nothing to this Zionist devil. He is immune from any form of criticism or accountability from anybody—and he knows it.” <https://chuckbaldwinlive.com/Articles/tabid/109/ID/4449/Erasing-Palestine.aspx>

There is no immunity before God, and the wicked know the truth in their heart.

The picture today looks bleak; however, Ezekiel 38 holds the great promise of judgment against those who war against the church, and confidence in the Victory in Christ.

Ezekiel 38:21 And I will call for a sword against him (Gog) throughout all my mountains, saith the Lord GOD: every man's sword shall be against his brother 22 And I will plead against him (Gog) with pestilence and with blood; and I will rain upon him, (Gog) and upon his bands, and upon the many people that [are] with him, (Gog, including Gomer which includes Ashkenazi) an overflowing rain, and great hailstones, fire, and brimstone. 23 Thus will I magnify myself, and sanctify myself; and I will be known in the eyes of many nations, and they shall know that I [am] the LORD.

Honest history and Biblical truth hold a bleak future not only for the sons of Gomer, the followers of Talmudic Judaism, but for those who are in the snare of the anti-christ Spirit of the Age.

If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed. John 8:36 concerning “Banksters”, “False Flag” and other negative articles that have been offered over the years. The overwhelming evidence throughout Scripture is that God’s unseen hand is guiding all of history according to his own eternal purpose and for his glory. I do not want to be perceived as one who sees conspiracies controlling history, for they do not. Certainly, there has always been the general conspiracy by sinful man against God since the Garden. But our God sits in the heavens and laughs at foolish men and their conspiracies against him, Psalms 2. My intention is not to generate fear, for God hath not given us a spirit of fear; but of power, and of love and of a sound mind, 2 Timothy 1:7. Since TBE started in 1985, my intention has been and is to keep God’s people informed not only from God’s Word concerning false teachings, but also informed about anti-Christ activities that are quietly taking place which affect us all. My concern is that Christians be able to make informed decisions as led by the Lord. Proverbs 22:3 A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself: but the simple pass on, and are punished. The prudent must make proper preparation based upon what he knows to prevent being presumptuous, and if he expects the Lord’s preservation. Proverbs 21:31 The horse is prepared against the day of battle: but safety is of the LORD. Prepare and trust the Lord.

Daniel 4:35 And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth: and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou? (Acts 4:28, Eph 1:11, Rom 11:33-35, &c.)

Those who have been on this mailing list over the years know that men’s conspiracies have been and are condemned, especially when used to sell books and draw crowds; however, Christians cannot ignore what is going on around them so he can prepare accordingly.

I believe it is advantageous to keep abreast of the “conspiracies,” so we can know how to plan. But I have spoken very clearly that the answer is not exposing and dealing with them. The only answer I have offered over the years is preaching the gospel, baptizing the converts, and teaching those converts how to implement the command-word law of God into every area of society. Society is in its current mess because Christians have not been taught the importance of and how to implement the command-law of God. Though some mailing may seem “dark,” they do not depart from the above mentioned intent.

THANKING OUR GREAT GOD

By Dr. H. Rondel Rumburg

“And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him” (Col. 3:17).

INTRODUCTION

An essential element in honoring God and living happily in His world is the giving of proper thanks to Him. Thanksgiving is a necessity and not an option for God’s human creation. Harvests were celebrated by times of thanksgiving. Deliverances were celebrated by times of thanksgiving. Life and manifold benefits were celebrated by thanksgiving.

History has many examples of those who were thankful. As we shall see the Apostle Paul was certainly one of them for the thankful spirit is a mark of Christianity. For example: Just think of the multitudes of times that President Jefferson Davis, Robert E. Lee, Stonewall Jackson and many other Confederate leaders and chaplains gave thanks for the blessings of the Lord. President Davis often reminded the Confederate nation to be thankful. Also, General R. E. Lee, in his dispatch announcing his great victory at Fredericksburg, wrote a brief but significant sentence—“Thanks be to God.” This was very commemorative of Paul’s words, “But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ” (1 Cor. 15:57).

Stonewall Jackson issued the following order after a victory:

Soldiers of the Army of the Valley and Northwest. I congratulate you on your recent victory at McDowell. I request you to unite with me this morning in thanksgiving to Almighty God for thus having crowned your arms with success; and in praying that He will continue to lead you on from victory to victory, until our independence shall be established; and make us that people whose God is the Lord.

The chaplains will hold divine service at ten o’clock A.M. this day in their respective regiments.

Paul, whom the Lord chose to write our text, was thankful as well as an advocate of thanksgiving. Thanksgiving is not something which is automatic in a fallen world. It must be given! Thanksgiving is an attitude of gratitude from the Christian's heart.

Remember the apostle Paul's warning regarding the loss of the ship in which he was being transported to Rome as a prisoner. He gave a warning to his guards before they set sail; he declared that sailing at that time would bring "hurt and much damage." However, they sailed in spite of the warnings of a prisoner like Paul. There was a violent storm that broke over the ship, and from the human perspective all seemed lost. The four anchors had been cast into the sea, just off the coast of Malta, but the anchors did not seem to help control the ship. But Paul "gave thanks to God in presence of them all" (Acts 27:35). He broke bread and began to eat. He did this because he had faith in the Word and promise that God had given to him. He was grateful to God.

Paul, in different places in the inspired writings, gave reasons for giving thanks to God in a vast array of areas.

First, he was thankful for his daily bread—"And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in the presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat" (Acts 27:35).

Second, he gave thanks for the faith of other saints—"First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world" (Rom. 1:8).

Third, he gave thanks for being caused to triumph in Christ—"Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place" (2 Cor. 2:14).

Fourth, he gave thanks for deliverance from temptation—"O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death? I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord" (Rom. 7:24-25).

Fifth, he gave thanks for the memory of friends—"I thank my God upon every remembrance of you" (Phil. 1:3).

Sixth, he gave thanks for kindnesses in the day of trouble—"And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Appii forum, and the three taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage" (Acts 28:15).

And seventh, he gave thanks for the "unspeakable gift" of God (2 Cor. 9:15).

Consider the context of our text in verses 12-17. In verse 17, Paul tells us what is "most efficacious to regulate our life in holiness and the fear of God" (John Davenant). "Whatsoever ye do in word or deed" is a very comprehensive statement. It encompasses preaching or teaching the word of truth as it is in Christ; in hearing and learning the word of truth; in singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs; in human relations, whether personal, family, local church or civil; or in the practice of things normal, spiritual, physical, ethical, etc. Everything which is done in word or deed is to be done for the glory of God. And whatsoever is done, must be all done "in the name of the Lord Jesus" and this means under His authority, with His strength, in the assurance of His love, according to His mind (that is the mind of Christ), in His Spirit (Eph. 5:20), and all done for the glory of God. Absolutely everything in life is to be done in the light of the revelation of our Lord. It will then be harmonious with that Word.

The words, "Giving thanks to God and the Father by Him," This directs us as to how to conduct ourselves before God the Father. The latter part of verse 17 concerns us with three things: [1] the meaning of thanks; [2] the method of thanks; and [3] the mediator of thanks.

FIRST, THE MEANING OF THANKS.

The Word Meaning — What does it mean?

[1] "Thanks" (eucharistountes) means to be grateful or to express gratitude to God as an act of worship. The root word expresses the sense of joy or that which causes rejoicing. It expressed an attitude of great joy culminating in thanksgiving. This is the Greek word primarily used to express thanksgiving to God. Every prayer, for example, must be accompanied "with thanksgiving."

This is what Paul is saying. Lightfoot noted that thankfulness for past blessings was a necessary condition of acceptance in offering any new petitions. What is the meaning of the word “thanksgiving” (eucharistia) which should never be absent from any of our devotions? Thanksgiving is “the grateful acknowledgment of past mercies, as distinguished from the earnest seeking of future (ones). As such it may, and will, subsist in heaven (Rev. 4:9; 7:12); will indeed be larger, deeper, fuller there than here: for only there will the redeemed know how much they owe to their Lord; and this it will do, while all other forms of prayer, in the very nature of things, will have ceased in the entire possession and present fruition of the things prayed for” [Trench]. True thanksgiving includes the spirit of gratitude while also being submissive in spirit to God’s will thus precluding anxiousness, for all things are working together for good in the will of God.

[2] Thanksgiving to God is a necessary and permanent element in the Christian life—“Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ” (Eph. 5:20); and it is God’s will—“In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you” (1 Thess. 5:18). There is no way to pray without it—“Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God” (Phil. 4:6; Col. 4:2; 1 Tim. 2:1). The essential catalyst is thanksgiving! Thanksgiving must be given for all things at all times. The one to whom thanks is to be given is not creation, but the Lord, as the text will point out. [3] This is the word, which is the key to our enjoyment, for “thanks” is a necessity to joy “otherwise we are inferior to the brute animals” (Davenant). “For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving: for it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer” (1 Tim. 4:4-5).

The Word Manifested — How is it manifested?

[1] Thanksgiving must be done in spirit or with the heart. Words are not sufficient. Gratitude must well up in the heart for thanks to be properly given. N. Byfield noted, “When we give thanks we should do it with such tenderness, that our praises should awake the graces of God’s Spirit to make them get life and grow. Our praises should stir up faith in God’s promise, love to God’s glory, fear (or reverence) of God’s presence, hatred of our sins, joy in the Holy Ghost.” [2] Thanksgiving must be given with the deep sense of our personal unworthiness as the twenty-four elders demonstrated it when they cast down their crowns and fell on their faces—“And when those beasts give glory and honour and thanks to him that sat on the throne, who liveth for ever and ever, The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying, Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou has created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created” (Rev. 4:9-11); “And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, Saying, Amen: blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen” (7:12). [3] Thanksgiving must be a perpetual duty. If we must pray without ceasing and we should; thanks is a necessary part of prayer it stands to reason we must give thanks without ceasing (Eph. 5:20; Rev. 7:12). Byfield expressed it, “Nay, when prayer shall cease, because all mortal infirmities and wants shall cease, yet thanksgiving must go with us within the vale, and live with us forever in heaven.”

SECOND, THE WAY OF THANKS.

We shall see that thanks [1] must be given, and [2] must be given to God the Father.

Thanks, must be Given—“giving thanks.”

[1] The text made this clear, for Paul spoke of “giving” thanks. You cannot “take” thanks any more than you can take love. Thanks, should be cheerfully given in order to mean anything, just as God loves a cheerful giver, even so He loves a cheerful giver of thanks.

[2] “Giving” thanks is the mode God reveals. Only this way can we have “thanksgiving.” Psalm 136 presses this point quite well.

Thanks, must be Objective—“to God and the Father.”

[1] The aim of thanks is centered in our “God and Father.” Our gratitude must be bestowed on the proper person. Not only must there be proper motive in giving thanks, but there must be the proper objective of giving thanks. Thanksgiving is not aimless and nameless. It is imperative that the right person be thanked. God the Father is eternally the Father of Christ by nature and of all His people in Christ eternally by adoption. The Father is the fountain of Deity and the head of the family. He is the Author of all good that we receive by His Son's mediation and the Holy Spirit's action.

[2] The words, “to God and the Father,” are not to be taken separately, but together, in order to declare who is our God. Our God is He who has proved Himself a Father in Christ, loving us in Christ, and accepting us in the Beloved. God is the Father of our souls, our mercies, and our Saviour. N. Byfield said in the 1600's, “He is a God, there is His majesty: He is a Father, there is His love, and therefore great encouragement is given to go to Him with all suits and praises. With all suits, He is God, and therefore able to help; and Father, and therefore willing to help. With all praises, He is God, and therefore meet to be worshipped, He is a Father, and therefore will accept the calves of our lips, not according to what we bring....”

THIRD, THE MEDIATOR OF THANKS

Christ Is the Mediator of Thanks—“by him.” “We are accepted in the Beloved.” Look at the first part of verse 17.

[1] It is through Christ alone that thanks can be given acceptably. Thanks, is a sign that one has rightly received Christ and is rooted in Him—“As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him: Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving” (Col. 2:6-7). Thanks, is a sign that the peace of God that passes understanding has come through Christ—“Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus” (Phil. 4:6-7). Thanks, is a sign that one has a contented mind in Christ and always rejoices (1 Thess. 5:18).

[2] Everything done in word or deed is to be done “in the name of the Lord Jesus.” And if it is “in” our Lord's name it will also be “by” Him. John Davenant commented, “Moreover in every success and issue of things, and every action of ours, thanks are to be given; because all things co-operate for good to those, who undertake lawful and honest things by invoking the name of Christ.”

[3] Thanksgiving is a paramount element in the Christian life and without Christ it is nonexistent as acceptable behavior before God the Father. The only channel by which we may pour forth the elixir of thanks is through Jesus Christ the channel by which we were reconciled to God. Jean Daillé remarked, “Our thanks themselves cannot be grateful to the Father, nor come into His presence before the throne of His grace, except they are addressed and presented by Jesus Christ, who alone is able to perfume both our persons and our poor performances with that odor which is necessary for all that would appear without confusion before this Supreme Majesty.”

Christ Must Be the Mediator of Thanks.

[1] There is no salvation in any other. It is through Christ that we have access to God the Father. He had to remove the middle wall of partition. He had to remove the bondage of sin and death. He had to remove the wages of sin. We may come boldly to the throne of grace in prayer, and if thanksgiving is a necessity to prayer, and it is, we must come with thanksgiving (Col. 4:2).

[2] Without Christ all is vain. How can one sing praises with a heart empty of Christ (Col. 3:16)? How can one give thanks with a heart empty of Christ? How can one have peace with a heart empty of Christ — the Prince of peace (Col. 3:15)? “Christ is all, and in all” (Col. 3:11). God's mercies, which come through Christ, breeds thanks. Since Christ brings down God's mercies, He also carries up our thanks and praise to God. We must pray in Christ's name, and we must give thanks in His name. [3] Our thanks will not have a pleasing sound to them before our God unless mediated “by Him.” We have no merit or acceptance before heaven without our Lord, our King, our Redeemer, our Mercy Seat, our Advocate, our Intercessor or our Daysmen, Jesus Christ. We are only accepted in the Beloved. All our righteousnesses are as filthy rags and thus we have no standing without that righteousness of Christ imputed to us by grace.

CONCLUSION:

Paul's constant urging to give thanks reflects on our nature of neglectfulness in giving thanks. There are many ways to give thanks to God: [1] we give thanks when from the heart we worship with thanksgiving in spirit and in truth; [2] we give thanks when we are obedient in the Lord's Supper, for we receive the "cup of blessing;" and [3] we give thanks when our lives are ordered according to the revealed will of God, and we offer the praise of thanksgiving.

The giving of thanks in public worship gives as it were the people an opportunity to say "Amen" (1 Cor. 14:16). The precious providences of God along with His promises and provisions must not be received without thanks. All of us have been taught to say thank you to persons giving us help or gifts. This being true, what should we offer to our exalted and all-glorious God? The supplying of the saints with necessities and all else should cause much thanksgiving to God (2 Cor. 9:11-13).

[1] Paul sought to incite the Colossians, as well as us, to the holy practice of daily thanksgiving. We cannot be pleasing to God without it.

[2] Paul sought to humble us if we are unthankful or neglectful in our giving of thanks. A person, for example, who eats unto the Lord is one who gives thanks (Rom. 14:6).

[3] Paul reminds us that not glorifying God as God, and our unthankfulness to God, engenders a vain imagination and a darkened heart which is foolish (Rom. 1:21).

"September 18 was Thanksgiving Day by order of President Davis. A message from the Forty-third Alabama Regiment was received requesting me to hold their thanksgiving service. The First Presbyterian Church was tendered for our use; but when I consulted General Kirby Smith he wisely advised me to decline the offer for good reasons, and we worshipped at this encampment" [Christ in the Camp].

LET US GIVE THANKS TO THE LORD GOD ALMIGHTY!

COVENANT WITH GOD

The earliest immigrants to this land believed that they, as a people, had entered into a sacred covenant with God. This was clearly expressed by John Winthrop who, in 1630, led a flotilla of eleven ships with 700 passengers to New England and founded the city of Boston and the Massachusetts Bay Colony.

During their journey across the Atlantic, Winthrop formulated a sermon entitled "A Model of Christian Charity." In it he exhorted his fellow pilgrims that "the eyes of the world are upon us" and that God would have them, in their new home, to be that "city on a hill" of which Jesus spoke, a shining light exhibiting a model of Christian living for the rest of mankind to see.

He also spoke of the seriousness of the covenant with God into which they had entered. He exhorted,

We have entered into an explicit Covenant with God. We have drawn up indentures with the Almighty, wherefore if we succeed and do not let ourselves be diverted into making money, He will reward us. Whereas if we fail, if we fall to embrace this present world and prosecute our carnal intentions, the Lord will surely break out in wrath and make us know the price of the breach of such a Covenant....

AGING IS NOT A DISEASE

Actress Says Cosmetic Procedure Turned Her Into 'the Spawn of Satan'

By Lorri Wickenhauser, November 11, 2023 at 7:35am

At 59 years old, former "Little House on the Prairie" child actress Melissa Gilbert has embraced aging.

She talked frankly and openly with People this month about letting her hair go gray and going through menopause — subjects that would make most Hollywood stars run the other way.

But it hasn't always been that way for Gilbert.

She recalled being consumed with her appearance when she appeared on "Dancing with the Stars" in 2012, when she was in her late 40s.

"I was approaching 50 and there was this panic of, 'This is it. I've got to wring this out while I can,'" she told People.

That era "was the peak of Botox, fillers, spray tan, hair extensions, big boobs,” she explained during another People interview, in 2018.

She got a wake-up call of sorts when she caught a glimpse of herself in a photo from an event she had attended.

“I literally looked like Carrot Top the comedian,” she told the outlet this month.

“My hair was too red, and when I did Botox, I became the spawn of Satan with pointy eyebrows. I had no facial expression, which is anathema considering what I do for a living.”

Not long after those realizations, she met and married actor and director Timothy Busfield, who, she said, encouraged her to embrace her aging.

“When I would say, ‘I think I’m going to stop coloring my hair,’ he’d say, ‘Can’t wait to see what color it is. This is so exciting!’” she told People.

“When I said, ‘I think I want to get my breast implants taken out permanently,’ he said, ‘Do it!’ It’s incredibly uplifting to be with someone who says, ‘I love you exactly the way you are.’”

The freedom she experienced from that thinking encouraged her to develop Modern Prairie, a “lifestyle brand” and online platform for older women. Modern Prairie markets clothing and household items “inspired by the Little House ethos of ‘love, community and family,’ made by women-owned or women-run businesses,” People reported.

Gilbert described it as an antidote to the standard approach of labeling everything for older women as an “anti-aging” product.

“There’s no such thing!” Gilbert insisted. “It’s derogatory and demeaning. The idea that we’re trying to teach people to be afraid of aging is a mistake. Aging is a gift. I like to say I’m aging gratefully.

“Aging is not a disease. It’s time we celebrate it. I think it’s so amazing that I get to grow old.”

It’s refreshing to see a celebrity encouraging a healthy outlook on one of the most natural processes in the world.

In a culture that seems to value only the youngest, strongest and most physically perfect, it’s nice to see someone who has come to realize that people on the other end of the aging spectrum have beauty and worth.

It’s an idea found in Proverbs 16:31: “Gray hair is a crown of glory.”

It’s fortunate that Gilbert has someone in her life who has encouraged her to accept herself — gray hair, wrinkles and all.

Of course, she was just using humorous hyperbole with her “spawn of Satan” remark, but isn’t that just like the Enemy, whispering in our ear about all our faults and failures?

As Gilbert told People, that era of frantic striving to reclaim her lost youth was before she met Busfield, now 66, whose love and encouragement gave her the freedom to accept herself.

Not everyone is blessed to encounter a spouse like that, but we all have a chance to encounter a Savior like that — someone who meets us and loves us where we are as described in Romans 5:8 — empowering us to disregard the doubts and become the one He created us to be.

It appears Gilbert has her family priorities in order, as well, as she talked without envy of her fellow actresses “who are still a size 2 or a 0, but that’s not what my life is right now.”

“It’s attainable, but it’s fleeting,” she told People. “You have to keep it up. I did that in my 20s, and I don’t have the wherewithal to do it anymore. If that’s what you want to do with your time, great. I’d rather get down in a sandbox and play with my grandchildren.”

HALLOWEEN

THE DEVIL’S DAY TO CELEBRATE DEATH

What took place on October 31, the day when death is celebrated? That day Israel, financed by the U.S. struck Gaza's Jabalya Refugee camp, killing or wounding at least 200 people with U.S. made and supplied bombs.

According to CNN, a top UN official resigned, stating the UN and USA have been captured by Zionists.

The reason given for the right to slaughter an unlimited number of civilians in Gaza is because Israel "has the right to defend itself."

<https://www.cnn.com/2023/10/31/middleeast/jabalya-blast-gaza-intl/index.html>

Israel has continued in their determination to destroy that refugee camp under the guise of "Right of Self-defense."

[October 31] Tuesday's air strike in Jabalia caused a huge explosion that destroyed several residential buildings in the centre of the refugee camp, where before the war 116,000 people were living in an area of just 1.4 sq km (0.5 sq miles).

Jabalia resident Ragheb Aqal said it had felt like there was "an earthquake".

"I went and saw the destruction... homes buried under the rubble and body parts and martyrs and wounded in huge numbers," he told AFP news agency.

Video footage and photos showed hundreds of people searching the wreckage afterwards. "We're filling bags with children," cried one man, holding up a small white cloth bag covered in blood. ...

<https://www.bbc.com/news/world-middle-east-67276822>

"It was the Celts who chose the date of October 31 as their New Year's Eve and who originally intended it as a celebration of everything wicked, evil, and dead. Also during their celebration, they would gather around a community bonfire and offer as sacrifice their animals, their crops, and sometime themselves. And wearing costumes made from the heads and skins of other animals, they would also tell one another's fortunes for the coming year." ("Trick or Treat.")

"The celebration remained much the same after the Romans conquered the Celts around 43 A.D. The Romans did, however, add a ceremony honoring their goddess of fruit and trees, and thus the association with apples and the custom of bobbing for them."

(World Book Encyclopedia, quoted in Atlanta Journal & Constitution, Associated Press, October 6, 1977.)

What really happened on 7th October?

ONE SWORD IS YET WANTING

A slender young boy slipped out of his bed to prepare himself for the biggest event of his life. He was a small, sickly-looking boy, but his eyes shone with a radiant luster that seemed to glow with an inner light. Some remarked of him that he was an “angel in the body of a boy.” But this boy, a humble Christian, would have been the last to call himself an angel

Before getting dressed, he slipped to his knees to pray. This was a habit he carried all through his life. Kneeling beside his bed, he prayed a prayer that his tutor had taught him and he had memorized, “Almighty and most merciful Father, I have erred and strayed from Thy ways like a lost sheep. I have followed too much the devices and desires of my own heart. I have offended against Thy holy laws. I have left undone those things which I ought to have done; and I have done those things which I ought not to have done; and there is no health in me. But Thou, O Lord, have mercy upon me a miserable offender. Spare Thou me, O God, which confess my faults, restore Thou me, that am penitent; according to Thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for His sake, that I may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of Thy holy name. Amen.”

These words are now famous as one of the important prayers in the English Book of Common Prayer. But in this day, they were the words composed by a Godly preacher named Thomas Cranmer for the personal use of his young charge, a prince named Edward. The boy prayed this prayer, not as liturgy, but as the fervent prayer of a humble heart.

Finishing his prayer, Edward allowed his servants to enter his private chamber in the Tower of London. They were already waiting to attend him. For three full weeks, they had been preparing for this event. They dressed their young master in a long gown of crimson velvet. The outer garments were embroidered with silver and gold. Rubies were set in his belt. Upon his head was placed a white cap set with diamonds and pearls. As the boy emerged onto the street, he was greeted by a shout of triumph from crowds assembled in the streets, “God save the King!”

Edward was only nine years old, but today was the procession to his coronation ceremony as King Edward IV, ruler of one of the most mighty and respected kingdoms on the face of the earth. In spite of the warmth of his long velvet robe, he trembled at the weight of responsibility he now carried. A pang of sadness also passed over him as he thought upon the event that made this day so important. Only recently he and his two sisters had wept together over the death of their father. The crown had passed by dynastic law to the head of Edward, the only son.

Finally, the young king was ready. First there would be a royal procession from the Tower of London through the streets of the city to Westminster Abbey, where the coronation ceremony was to take place on the following day. A magnificent horse was brought forward, and the young king had to be lifted onto the back of the noble steed. Bishops, dukes, lords, and officers took their places in the royal train.

Three swords were brought forward, emblematic of the three kingdoms under his dominion. These swords were to be carried in the procession. Edward now spoke up with a remark that surprised his attendants, “One sword is yet wanting.”

For a moment, the attendants thought they had omitted something in the royal ceremony. Had a treaty been made, a kingdom added, that they were unaware of? No. The youthful king had in mind a different sword. When the nobles and attendants inquired what the king meant, Edward replied, “The Bible. That book is the Sword of the Spirit, and to be preferred before these swords. That ought in all right to govern us, who use them for the people’s safety by God’s appointment. Without that sword we are nothing, we can do nothing, we have not power. From the Bible we are what we are this day. From it we receive whatsoever it is that we at present do assume. He that rules without it is not to be called God’s minister or king. Under the Bible, the word of God, we ought to live, to fight, to govern the people and to perform all our affairs. From it alone we obtain all power, virtue, grace, salvation, and whatsoever we have of divine strength.”

At these words, a Bible was brought and carried in the royal procession in front of young King Edward. At Westminster, the king was prepared for the official coronation, which was to take place the following day.

On this next day, at Westminster Abbey, the King was brought before the people. The King of England lay prostrate before the Throne of God as Thomas Cranmer prayed for Divine Blessing upon the new king. Edward was anointed with oil, and then the Crown Imperial was placed upon his head. The crown he wore was actually a reproduction, specially made to fit his small head. Trumpets sounded in the hall as the people cried, “God save the King.”

Thomas Cranmer, the minister of God, now gave a charge to the king. For the first time in many long years, a King of England was crowned, not by the authority of the Roman Pope, but by the authority of Jesus Christ. Cranmer announced, “Not from the bishop of Rome, but as a messenger from my Saviour Jesus Christ, I shall most humbly admonish your Royal Majesty what things your highness is to perform.”

Cranmer then proceeded to give the king a charge from the Bible. He quoted the duties of a king from the Book of Deuteronomy. He admonished King Edward to see that Jehovah be worshipped in truth, to destroy idolatry, and to banish the tyranny of Roman bishops from his dominions. He commanded him “to reward virtue, to avenge sin, to justify the innocent, to relieve the poor, to procure peace, to repress violence, and to execute justice” in his dominions.

Cranmer then compared the young king to Josiah, the eight year old king of Judah of whom it was written “while he was yet young, he began to seek after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images” (II Chronicles 34:3).

Concluding his address, Cranmer invoked the blessing of the God of David, Solomon, and Josiah upon the head of the new English monarch, “The Almighty God in His mercy let the light of His countenance shine upon your majesty, grant you a prosperous and happy reign, defend you, and save you; and let your subjects say, ‘Amen, God save the King.’” Edward VI reigned only six short years. But his brief reign was a model of Godliness. Cranmer once said of the young king that he had “more divinity in his little finger than we have in our whole bodies.” Edward wrote a scholarly treatise “Against the Primacy of the Pope” when he was only 12 years old. He outlawed the idolatrous mass in England, enforcing the prohibition even against his own sister, Mary. His tender letters to his older sisters are a model of gracious but firm Christian witness. He elevated Godly preachers such as Hugh Latimer and Nicholas Ridley to places of influence. He also secured the release of John Knox from the French galleys, paving the way for the Scottish Reformation. On the practical side, Edward founded schools for the poor and hospitals for the needy. Under his reign thirty-four editions of the English Bible were printed and disseminated over the land. This was all less than a decade after William Tyndale, the translator, had been burned at the stake.

Edward VI died at the age of fifteen. Bishop Hopper wrote of his life and death, “He died young but lived long, if life be action.” Edward VI has been called, and rightly so, the “British Josiah.” His example serves as an enduring model of what a Christian ruler over a Christian people ought to be. The “Sword of the Spirit” was the guiding rule of his life and reign, and God’s Word did not return void.

WHAT IS THE SOUND OF WOKE POSTMODERNISM?

By Jeffrey Tucker

The first strike of the first bell was impossibly low and rumbling. It seemed to shake the air and even the table at which I was sitting. I was eating a late breakfast on the sixth floor of the building next door to the Metropolitan Cathedral in Mexico City, the oldest and biggest in the whole of the Americas. I looked up in alarm and saw the size of the bell ringing. I couldn’t imagine how anything could hold it up, much less a many hundreds-year-old tower.

Before that first bell, the main sounds that could be heard were the rattles and drums of the Mayan and Aztec priests below, where they set up their wares outside the cathedral to provide blessings for those who want the best possible odds in Pascal's wager.

It was noon and the Angelus—the Catholic noon prayer—was beginning. Everyone else expected it but it was new for me. The lowest and largest bell in the left tower began the series—more of a noise than a pitch, probably owing to the materials, age, and the limits of the human ear. The Cathedral itself was 250 years in the making, so that no master craftsman nor their children saw the work from early to late stages.

They toiled to build, not complete.

The bell rang again, then again, and then with increasing frequency, then joined by a smaller bell, similarly noisy but with a distinctly higher pitch that remained so replete with overtones that it could never be placed on a scale. The pace of ringing grew as the bells warmed, and then other bells joined from lower in the tower and then across to the second tower. This went on for an incredible 10 minutes, eventually involving all 25 of the bells hundreds of years old, during which time the only way to carry on conversation was with elevated volume.

I wonder how all of this was accomplished. For that matter, I wondered how in the heck the entire machinery still worked. I looked as closely as I could and thought I was seeing an illusion at first. I saw men high in the towers, going here and there passing from one place to another and appearing and disappearing. Only then did I fully realize that every bell was being rung by a person assigned to it, and being rung by hand with large ropes. The skill of timing is surely something years in training.

At the peak at perhaps 7 minutes, when all 25 bells were ringing in close succession and rapidly, the overtones of strikes, groans, bongs, and rings created an amazing sound that seemed to combine cacophony and symphony, beauty and ferocity, chaos and order.

It was impossible not to be awestruck by the entire experience. Then at 8 and 9 minutes, they calmed down again, leaving at the end the one lone large bell ringing with ever less frequency, enticing everyone to wonder when the last one would sound. One could not know but the human ear could not stop listening for it even when it stopped completely, which might have been the whole point.

When the bells stopped, we could again hear the drums and rattles of the native rituals below as communicators left the cathedral for their blessing with the Aztec priest with incense and freshly picked herbs. Off in the distance, you could hear the organ grinders on the streets of Centro, where their hand-cranked players pumped out music that was only listenable once one becomes cognizant that their entire experience was as acoustic today as it was in the 19th century.

These are all sounds of centuries, continuing today, likely with very little change, forming a soundtrack of the ages, connecting generations and experiences back in time. An audible liturgy of life.

The central part of Mexico City was made famous by the James Bond film "Spectre" which opens with a celebration of Día de los Muertos, complete with crazy skeletons and skulls, loud bands and parades, and seeming lunacy all around. It's a religious holiday rooted in the old faith before the Spaniards brought Christianity to the country, but easily folded into the new faith through the doctrine of Purgatory, on which the faithful are instructed to reflect and pray so that their ancestors will enter Heaven. The celebrations took place coincident with All Souls Day in the Christian calendar, which directly connects with the decidedly secular celebration of Halloween.

The remnants of the celebration, which lasts a full week, were everywhere in evidence.

This is not a country that tears down monuments and erases traditions. The people revel in them, if anything intensifying them with more exuberance and love as time goes on. The Bond movie riveted the entire country with joy that their own traditions had become an international phenomenon. The holidays became even more intense, with gigantic and colorful skulls put out on the sidewalks along the streets in the main city center.

It's strange what visiting a new country does to the mind of a person raised entirely in one country his entire life. We think we are going somewhere else to see something new. What it actually achieves is to focus the mind on seeing one's own country perhaps for the first time.

Nothing is so invisible as that which surrounds us.

That is especially true in living through times of decline, as all Americans are doing today. Do we even see it anymore? It's happening very quickly in the course of time but slow enough for all of us to get used to the new order of things in real time, enough to believe that whatever we experience is normal even when it is not.

The very first evidence I saw of the huge difference between America and Mexico concerns the hunger and passion for real work. Barely leaving the airport and traveling the streets to downtown, I was overwhelmed by the sheer busyness of everyone and everything. The streets were teeming with enterprise of the sort I have not seen in years.

Yes, it is a much poorer country but this is not owing to a lack of enterprise, entrepreneurship, and work ethic. The only "homeless people" I've seen—and this was true of my last trip—were very obviously disabled to an incapacitated state. Otherwise, every able-bodied person is expected to do something to earn whatever pesos they have.

The second evidence is the fascinating layers of Mexico culture, the way mariachi music seamlessly integrates with modern dance pop, and how old and new clothing styles mix side by side.

It's even true with religion: the old faith is still here alongside the new, and sometimes it is hard to tell when one ends and the other begins. The city is busy restoring the ruins of the old Aztec temple on the same lands as the Cathedral now stands. It's not that anyone is seeking converts from one to the other. It's simply a matter of showing piety for the past without which a culture and people are lost.

And here we see the major difference between Mexico and the United States. In the United States, activists are demanding we tear down all the monuments. It began with the hated Confederate war memorials and generals, as if we citizens are unable to see evidence of the past with a critical mind.

No, we have to wipe it out as if we are all snowflakes, too weak and shallow to come to terms with the good, bad, and complex mixtures of both that form the main line of the long historical narrative. Of course it did not stop with the Confederates: it moved on to the Founding Fathers, then the American Revolution, and now extends all the way to Lincoln and Wilson. Everything is today on the chopping block.

It should not matter whether we like these historical figures or not. We cannot even consider them? They must be entirely expunged from the public mind? It appears so. The great reset means resetting everything from all time. There is no past. The future is endlessly up for grabs. We can't hardly plant down roots or find meaning when the roots are ripped up again and our sense of clarity and meaning is denounced in bitter terms.

Back to the bells of the cathedral. These are the sounds of a nation, a people, a ritual, and tradition, and people cling to them for meaning, sparing no expense in keeping them in full operation every day. I cannot say for sure but I'm guessing that the bell ringers themselves feel enormous pride in their craft.

Where is our meaning? Where is our pride? The commanding heights of American culture are mainly now engaged in acts of destruction against everything civilized.

But what is the sound and aesthetic of woke postmodernism? No doubt that myriad social media "influencers" would be happy to lay it all out for me, but I think I would rather not know. The soundtrack of our time is the sound of nothing pious toward the past or responsible to the future. It is only what artificial intelligence (AI) can generate on the spot.

I like this sound better: [<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=bYqLzxF-PvA>]

<https://www.theepochtimes.com/opinion/what-is-the-sound-of-woke-postmodernism-5528440>

• OBSERVE:

250 years to build by master craftsmen few of whom saw the finished Cathedral! Look at the quality and attention to detail in this Cathedral—unheard of today. We cannot imagine the expense in today's dollars required to do this kind of work.

The bells were rung by the trained, skilled person who was assigned to that bell. They had to work the bells in unison.

Mexico hangs on to its past culture, though primarily pagan. America is allowing the destruction of our Christian culture, including its passion for real work. Everyone in Mexico City was doing something to earn whatever pesos they have.

The Great Reset which we are now experiencing is removing everything of the past from memory, including all incentive to work. The Great Reset is rewriting history in the attempt to build their imagined grand new society more to the liking of those hoping to build the New World Order.

• “Central Banks now hold 1/5 of all gold ever mined.

In the last year, central banks made their largest gold purchase in over 73 years. They are now holding over 35,000 metric tons of gold, which accounts for about 1/5 of all the gold ever mined.

Why? It’s simple. To diversify their reserves and protect against the devaluation of fiat currencies. These are the institutions responsible for PRINTING our money, and they are stacking up on gold.

A recent report from the World Gold Council and Reuters stated, ‘Central banks bought the most gold on record last year.’

Now, consider this: While central banks continue to print more and more money, devaluing our purchasing power, they are buying up gold at an unprecedented rate.”

<https://www.allamericanassets.com/why-buy-gold>

Question: The above is from and ad to sell gold. However, doing a simple search will document how central banks are purchasing huge amounts of gold, e.g., Central Bank of China, 181 tonnes this year. Is this the reason the price of precious metals is being severely suppressed, so the central banks can load up on gold? The FED prints fiat “money,” and that fiat paper is used to purchase gold. You do the math!! It appears the gold is being obtained at no cost to the non-wealth producing banks, and leaving the depositors with paper “wealth.”

‘MIRACLE’

Muslim Men in Gaza Seek Christ After Over 200

Dream of Jesus on Same Night – Report

Over the past two days, we have ministered to hundreds of fathers who have lost most, if not all, of their children in the war. As we moved these men to safety, we fed them, washed their clothes, and began to read the Bible to them — sharing the way of peace through Jesus. Then, a big miracle happened. Last night, Jesus appeared to more than 200 of them in their dreams! They have come back to us to learn more from God’s Word and are asking how to follow Jesus.”

I side with Israel in this war; not necessarily for theological reasons but because Hamas and those backing it are pure evil. Yet, I know that not all Palestinians support Hamas. In fact, they will be punished severely if even suspected of not supporting Hamas. Let’s pray that this war can be over soon and that Israel can eradicate Hamas so that Palestinians can be free . . . of Hamas!

https://www.westernjournal.com/miracle-muslim-men-gaza-seek-christ-200-dream-jesus-night-report/?utm\_source=Email&utm\_medium=WJBreaking&utm\_campaign=breaking&utm\_content=western-journal

The “war” is against Hamas, but it the victims are Palestinians. Neither Israel nor Hamas care how many innocents they must kill, nor did the US when we bombed Japan.

Some time ago, there was a video produced—More than Dreams—that presented the account of four Muslim men who had dreams. In those dreams they WERE NOT given any kind of “do this, and you will be saved.” Rather, they were sent to particular men would direct them in the way of salvation. There are also some books that tell of the great credence Muslims place in dreams, as well as the name they give to Jesus, “Isa.”

PERSONAL

• When we moved to Iowa, we did not want to live in town, but we needed what is available in town: natural gas, good broad-band, and medical care. We certainly do not need the high property tax that goes with a town. So, this is the first time I have lived in a town, though Bettie lived in Richmond many years ago. We are in Knoxville IA, population about 7500. We are maybe 20 minutes from Bettie’s youngest daughter and their 11 children who are still at home. It very much has a small-town atmosphere. Every year they have a Christmas tree lighting event on the town square, 11/16 this year, 5-8 pm. The businesses around the square have various “goodies,” available to the public, including popcorn at the movie theater. Several hundred people with a good number of children attend. It is an enjoyable community event looked forward to by many.

• Warning: Bettie had some tooth implants placed a few years ago that are now infected. There is no warning about infection by those who profit from the implants. $1,000 each to have them removed, which is more than to have them placed. Implants obviously are not what they are purported up to be, so beware.

Thank you for your faithfulness in providing Biblical answers to the relevant questions we face as the world around us crumbles under the weight of its ignorance and wicked motives. . . .

Joe Morecraft

• Good morning Mr. Need,

Your October article of the Biblical Examiner was great and I had never heard that Jesus was not a Jew.

I am among the many in my generation who are not only moving away from Zionism, but are opposing it. We aren’t afraid of being called names like “racist” or “anti-semitic” for the sake of the truth, found chiefly in Christ. Moreover, I appreciate someone like you writing things that aren’t allowed in any “respectable” circles. It is what is needed at this hour. I look forward to future installments of the B.E. and will make time to read your heavier material in the near future.

Thanks for not being afraid of writing what the world hates.

God bless, Ben

• A young man and I were talking at church, and he asked about the importance of going to seminary. He then told me about his experience at a Southern Baptist seminary. (We know from experience that Seminary does not equip one to pastor. Obvious calling unto that office, study and experience are the qualification.)

Concerning my experience at college:

There were several things that I found myself being disgruntled with during my two years at seminary. But the thing that particularly bothered me and inevitably became my core reason for leaving pertained to one of my assignments. The assignment was to identify and write about why certain books ought not be counted as academically credible. Of course, this is something that is necessary for aspiring scholars to be versed in. There is a plethora of academically incredible resources at our fingertips today and it is of the utmost importance that the work that we build our theology and worldview upon is trustworthy. No, my concern came when I discovered that one of the books that I was to critique as being “academically unreliable” was the Matthew Henry Commentary. What’s more, my professor’s reasoning for this conclusion was that the commentary was “old” and linguistically “outdated”. This unsettled me greatly. By this standard, far too many classics of theology ought to be disregarded and replaced with “modern” reiterations. This reasoning has opened the door to myriad false teachings. With every new translation, every step further towards modern language, we lose the thoughts and reasonings of scholars past and find more credence to read between the lines. The implications of this are devastating. It is time for the Church to return to its roots and build back what has and is being lost in the name of enlightenment.

I have a fair bit here. Feel free to use as much, as little, or whatever you desire of this. Let me know if you have further questions.

In Christ, Pierce

Evidently, in order to be a scholar, one must question the old translation of the Bible from the time of the 1599 Geneva and earlier, and question the godly men of the past. Matthew Henry!! The Christian community is calling down God’s wrath upon itself. Hosea 13:9 O Israel, thou hast destroyed thyself; but in me [is] thine help. (1 Peter 4:17)

All Power

OVER ALL FLESH

By Rev. Need

John 17:1 These words spake Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee: 2 As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him.

First, notice from where His power came—the Father in heaven.

Second, this is power over all flesh. “All means all and that is all it means.” There is not much more that can be said about this point. In this is total control of all history through His divine providence: He is the unseen cause of all things.

Third, this power was His from all eternity past. Christ had this power while He was here, Matthew 11:27.

Fourth, this power is shown by His ability to give life to whomever He will.

Humanistic man does not identify power as the ability to give life, but as the ability to control others, even to take life. Included in this is the temporal power of forcing one’s will upon others. The Lord said, The love of money is the root of all evil. Why does sinful man love money so much? It gives him power over others; enables him to enforce his will upon others.

Therefore, we have a difficult time identifying the incarnate Christ here on earth with total power because He did not go around enforcing His will upon others.

Total power would be total control of life and death. Men can claim this “total” power and, at times do, but their power is far short. All they have is the power to kill, John 8:44. Sinful man desires to exercise total power over life and death. This is the motive behind a vast portion of research of our day—Man attempting to be as God. Science is desperately seeking the power “to make alive,” which would give them the power of life.

Without the power to give life, man’s only chance to be as God is to have the power of death for those who will not be in total subjection to the elite, leaving only those they make alive i.e., allow to live. Only the Lord knows how far He will allow man’s vain efforts to create life go. We do know that these great efforts and vast amounts of money are being expended to ‘create life’ in order to rebel against God and his created order.

This power which belongs to the Lord Jesus Christ is total. His power is over life and death, proved many times as He walked here among men by raising the dead. And then by Him willingly giving His life—He was not killed, He yielded up the ghost. His power over both death and life was provided by His resurrection by the might of His own power.

John 1:4, 5:25, 11:25, 14:6, tells us that Jesus is life, which means that He is total and complete power. His power includes power over the soul, Matthew 10:28. He alone can lay claim to any power over life.

It is interesting that the devil is given power by God in Revelation 13:15 (And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.) to bring life to the beast, but notice the use of this power to cause death to whomever he pleases. It is not power to bring life so that people could worship the beast. This beast was given power by God to cause others to join him in his rebellion against God, and to cause death if they didn't. Those who enjoy killing have been given that power by God.

The application here is so obvious that it shouldn't even need repeating. Christ always brings life. If His offer of life is refused or usurped for the wrong purpose, death follows.

The Christian who is following the Lord brings life wherever he goes, he leaves life after him when he leaves. He will always leave the situation better in relationship to God's word than when he came upon the scene.

John 7:38 He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

Christ does not have to have everyone bowing before Him to have total power, although the time will come when He will manifest His power in this way. He had total power while He was here among us, because He had the total power of life. Christ (godly power), brings life because He is life. The devil only has power to kill and destroy.

Fifth, notice that this power which Christ had was not the ability to do even as He pleased. He only gave life to as many as had been given to Him by the Father, John 5:21, 6:39, 40 (Lk. 7:12-17). This causes as much turmoil today for humanistic man as it did when Christ was here. Man does not like to admit that he does not control God. Humanistic man desires to have God at his control and to be able to command eternal life as he desires. "Just ask Jesus to save you, and you are home free."

Christ has total power, but He does not give life to everyone. That life is only given according to God's eternal purpose, Ephesians 1:4-11. We hear many explanations of this passage trying to make it say something other than what it says.

Sixth, getting a little ahead of ourselves, His power was also to keep those He has been given, and to raise them up in the last day, John 6:37-40, 17:12.

We may have the power or the ability to do something, but that doesn't mean we should do it. Hence, we see that having the power or ability to do something doesn't necessarily mean that God is in it. Any ability or power we might have must be used as the Father directs in His word.

Seventh, another thing the power of Christ is used for is to reveal the Father to those the Father chooses, and to reveal that life is through the Son, John 17:3, 6. Thus, nothing can prevent the power of Christ from working.

Eighth, one day this power will be manifested in the form of all people being subdued to where they honor Jesus as King, but for present, it is not so manifested, 1 Corinthians 15:24-28.

Therefore, even though we do not see all knees bowed to Him at this time, this does not say that He is not as powerful today as He was when He created the heavens and the earth or as when He walked here on this earth. His power is shown in His revealing the Father to His people, giving them life and in keeping His people.

1 Peter 1:3 Blessed [be] the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, 4 To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, 5 Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

[V. 5.] (2) Now he shows by what way we come to that glory, that is, through all types of afflictions. Wherein nonetheless faith maketh us so secure, that we are not overcome with sorrow. But through the beholding of God himself (who otherwise is invisible) with the eyes of faith, we are made unspeakably joyful. Because all such things, as they are but for a time, so are they not applied unto us to destroy us, but as it were by fire to purge us, and to make us perfect that at length we may obtain salvation. (d) This is that time which Daniel calls the time of the end, when the great restoring of all things shall be, which all creation looks for;

Romans 8: 19 For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God. 20 For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected [the same] in hope, 21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. 22 For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.

Christ's victorious resurrection set in motion the reclaiming of all creation back from the curse of sin, and to the subjection of Christ.

(14) Introduction to the Talmud. (15) The Talmud. (16) Gog and Magog & The Final War---Ezekiel 38, 39 (In this writer's opinion, this fits best with the context.)

"For where there is Christianity there cannot be Judaism." (Ignatius, Do Not Accept Judaism. The Ante-Nicene Fathers, Volume I, p. 63.) Judaism must deny Christ, just as Christianity must deny and stand against Satanic Judaism. Judaism is the spirit of the Anti-christ, for it denies Christ.

Ignatius warns, "Do Not Accept Judaism: But if any one preach the Jewish law unto you, listen not to him. For it is better to hearken to Christian doctrine from a man who has been circumcised, than to Judaism from one uncircumcised. But if either of such persons do not speak concerning Jesus Christ, they are in my judgment but as monuments and sepulchers of the dead, upon which are written only the names of men. Flee therefore the wicked devices and snares of the prince of this world, lest at any time being conquered by his artifices, ye grow weak in your love. ..."
