THY KINGDOM COME

COVID, A BLESSING FROM GOD

JUDGMENT WITH PURPOSE

Isaiah 6:8 Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me. 9 And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not. 10 Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed. 11 Then said I, Lord, how long? And he answered, Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate, 12 And the LORD have removed men far away, and there be a great forsaking in the midst of the land.

For many years, men of God have been warning of God's impending judgment upon the evils of this nation, the USA. (Amos 3:7) Yet the people have said, "We will not hear, nor turn from our wicked ways." Judgment, as promised by God, is now upon us in the form of a flu named Covid, among other things, which is being used to the fullest extent by the Nimrods of our day to fulfill man's ancient dream of a One World Order.

This flu has revealed that the population has departed far from the God of our Fathers, and now men fear those who can kill the body much more than they fear God Who can kill both the body and the soul. Sadly, this last year has shown that many "good" churchmen fear man as they closed their churches out of fear. Research has shown that a large portion of the population still claims to be Christian, yet this Covid Planneddemic has shown that there is no fear of God

before their eyes. Our proud and bold nation of the past now trembles in fear of unlawful "Executive Orders" flowing from the many self-appointed gods of this world.

Men and women who want to prove that they are lords of their limited domains have people submitting to astounding foolish requirements, e.g., proven worthless masks and plastic dividers to protect air from flowing from one person to another!! And the king of fool, Anthony Fauchi is leading the list of the "Pied Pipers" who lead people away from reality and sound reason. It seems that many have been rendered mindless Sheeple in their baseless fear. (Note that there is no flu season this year. Everything, even a runny nose, is labeled Covid. Multitudes of people die every year of flu symptoms. This year is no different. The media still reports COVID deaths in the hundreds of thousands even though the CDC reports that only 6% of the deaths are strictly COVID related, Our neighbour had two family members die, neither had any signs of Covid, yet the hospital listed them both as Covid deaths.)

People have become indifferent, even deaf to the Lord's call to repent and turn from their wicked ways. The result is that God has sent a flu bug named by "the learned men of science," Covid to shut down the economy. "In Science there is Hope." The flu plus various anarchist movements are leading us not only into astounding poverty, but into a very oppressive totalitarian state, such as China and Russia. (China is being permitted to buy up many tens of thousands of acres of US farmland. There is little doubt that China, at the very least, influenced the 2020 election.) The ruling elite will prosper beyond imagination, while the average person will be reduced to a pawn in the New World Order.

COVID—A Blessing from God

Reminder that the historical context is the first century church that existed during the time of Rome. Rome was at the height of its power and dominion over the known world. It was at the time of Rome's worldwide dominion that the Stone which was cut out without hands was prophesied to strike the image of man, break it into pieces, and it would enlarge to consume all the kingdoms of the earth. God would set up that Kingdom, and it would stand forever. (Daniel 2:41-45.) The Apostles, Paul particularly, laid the foundation of that kingdom which is Jesus Christ. The church's initial persecution was from the Jews, Judaism, until Rome discovered that Christianity was not part of Judaism. From the time of Abraham, the distinction has been clear – O foolish Christians, Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham. (Gal 3)

Hence, any idea of a "Judeo-Christian Heritage" is a lie of the Devil. Search both Testaments, especially the Apostles' writings, and one will find strong condemnations against uniting Judaism with Christianity. Rather, the Apostles worked hard to make a clear distinction between Judaism and Christianity. Satan is the one mixing the kingdom of light with the kingdom of darkness, which compromises the kingdom of light.

The goal of history is the expansion of His God's until it covers the whole earth. The Divinely promised goal of history—which started in the Garden—is the victory of the Kingdom of God over the Kingdom of Satan. Matthew 28:19, 20 is the command to expand the Kingdom; the command that comes with this warning,

Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God. (Acts 14:22)

Tribulation, affliction, trouble, anguish, persecution, distress of all kinds. These things shall come upon those who seek first the kingdom of God. (Mt 6:33) The Divine promise of victory is found in places like,

*All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the LORD: and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee. For the kingdom is the LORD'S: and he is the governor among the nations, Psalms 22:27, 28. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea, Isaiah 11:9. For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea, Habakkuk 2:14. All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O Lord; and shall glorify thy name, Psalms 86:9.

His eternal purpose has been and is to put all enemies under his feet; that is under the Son's footstool, and only then the end will come. (Ps 110:1, 1 Cor 15:24ff.) His enemies will be subdued through the church, and by the Spirit of God through the foolishness of preaching, teaching and applying the entire law-word of God.

*To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God, According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord: (Eph 3:10, 11)

We understand that from the beginning, all things have worked, are working and will continue to work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose. (Rom 8:28, this issue.)

In the everlasting counsel of the Triune God and before the foundation of the world, all history was established, and it was centered in the crucifixion of the Son for the benefit of those whom He chose for Himself before the foundation of the world. That is, the church which started with the promise of the redeemer in the Garden.

We commonly pray thy kingdom come, thy will be done... deliver us from evil. Do we think that one day we will wake up and find the glorious kingdom here? Are we expecting to be carried to heaven on flowery beds of ease while others fight to win the prize? (“Am I a soldier of the cross,” Trinity, 481.) Thy kingdom come is a call for God’s righteous judgment upon the evil world system in which we now live. It is a plea for God’s judgment against all of the enemies of His Son.

Paul warned the new converts of the distressing times ahead for them as they worked for the expansion of the Kingdom of God over the whole earth. He exhorted them to remain faithful to their calling, and not give up The Faith.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done. Thy kingdom come depends upon judgment against this present, evil kingdom of men, for there can be no justice without judgment and punishment against the wicked. We are living in the time of that judgment as God answers the prayer for vengeance against the enemies of his kingdom. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done and deliver us from evil.

The ultimate source of any flu virus is God, e.g., Covid. According to His divine predetermined plan, judgment is upon us according to the Lord’s Prayer as it is prayed without thinking worldwide, thy kingdom come... Of course, with the massive Covid testing, comes massive increase in the number of cases. (There is no test, for the “virus” has not been identified in the lab, and China refuses to provide the needed samples.) The death toll is also being inflated well beyond the truth, as hospitals are paid according to the number of deaths they attribute to Covid. This virus is not nearly as bad as viruses of the past:

* The Spanish Flu killed up to 50 million worldwide, or 2.78 percent of the world’s population.

* COVID, inflated number of deaths, 500,000: world population 7.8 billion. Death rate, .006412 percent

* Asian Flu deaths about one million between 1957-1958.

* The 1968 Hong Kong flu killed just over one million.

* Swine flu basically killed children and young adults.

* COVID primarily kills the elderly and adult with significant pre-existing health issues. Only the death of two US children, 4-16, has been attributed to COVID.

Though scientific evidence shows that masks are dangerous, the Facebook fact checkers deem such information is false. With so many adverse effects and even deaths documented from the “experimental vaccine,” why the Oh so desperate effort to get everyone to take jab numbers 1, 2 and soon to be number 3? The CDC is proposing internment camps for those who fail to volunteer to be part of the worldwide experiment.

Comments:

We are to give thanks to God, for we know He is working all things for his glory and for the benefit of the Elect: In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you. (1 Thess 5:18)

Count your blessings, name them one by one.

The blessings of COVID 19

1. It exposes the foolishness of the wisdom of this world. There is no wisdom as every “wise” man has a different opinion. Sound reason is gone, replaced by foolishness which borders on idiocy.

For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent. Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? (1 Cor 1:19, 20)

2. It exposes the controlling love of money and power. Everything possible is being done to keep people in mortal fear, so they will agree to take the experimental depopulation “vaccine.” The desire for worldwide vaccinations is a gold mine for the pharmaceutical industry. The love of money and power by the rich and powerful will keep people fearful as the wealth of the average man is transferred to the pharmaceutical industry. Though the experimental vaccine is quite dangerous and does not work, it is being “forced” everywhere. <https://canadafreepress.com/article/covid-vaccine-damage-and-break-through-deaths>.

From now on, there will be fear mongering over Covid variants, and the need for more “jabs.” “Herd Immunity” will never be achieved. Vaccines have never been able to “conquer a flu season,” which is why there are new vaccines developed every year.

For the love of money [and power] is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows. (1 Tim 6:10)

3. It exposes the truth that the vast majority of politicians and those in public office are liars; from the top to the bottom, their goal is money and power. (Ps 116:11) This last election shows that those demanding power will do ANYTHING to gain and retain power. (China bought this last election.) Over the years, we have seen that any threat to the ‘powers that be’ will be dealt with—death, i.e., “Clintonized.” Four Capitol riot police have killed themselves. An astounding coincidence or was it murder of those who might have been inclined to “talk?”

4. It exposes the ungodly Marxist controlled school boards. The goal of consolidation back in the 1950s was to wrest local control of the education process from the parents so the State could control many communities with few “highly educated humanist ‘educators,’ superintendents and principals.” (School Boards are elected. We Christians need to do our job, and take over the SBs.)

5. It exposes the great need for homeschooling, which is no doubt the greatest blessing of this Planned Demic, as God is forcing Christians to take the responsibility for the godly instruction of their children. For years, parents have been urged to get their children out of the antichrist public schools that are at war against the Kingdom of God. Many parents are now enjoying the satisfaction of training their own children.

Sparked by pandemic fallout, homeschooling surges across US

Especially among Blacks, <https://abcnews.go.com/US/wireStory/sparked-pandemic-fallout-homeschooling-surges-us-79046869>

6. It exposes the truth of the political leaders who used lies and deceitful words to get into office where they can issue their many unconstitutional “executive orders” to support Marxism. It seems that few people want to hold them accountable. BLM is an open communist organization, yet they are allowed to operate freely to burn down cities. Their call to “defund” the police is a key element in creating the chaos they need to overthrow a government. Out of the government created, financed and controlled chaos, the Marxists promise to bring order, a centralized New One World Order, as is typical in China, Russia and N. Korea. Proof: not only do the local gods ignore the destructive chaos, but many times even support it by refusing to allow law enforcement to intervene. Moreover, though a violent criminal might be detained, he is soon released so he can continue his mayhem and destructive chaos.

7. It exposes the truth of mail-in voting, which would mean the end of our system of government as the wicked could then control the vote through the Post Office as they did in 2020. (Mail-in ballots were and are an ideal means of controlling the outcome of an election. Too bad it took the “conservatives” so long to address the danger they knew was there. Ignoring the problem cost us an election, but the blindness was and is of the Lord. He rises up and puts down whosoever He will.)

8. It exposes the truth that Americans have been neutralized. It is almost as though the general population has had a lobotomy, and they no longer have a will to resist tyranny. We were warned many years ago that fluoride and many food additives would lessen the will to resist. We now see that the average population is no more than sheep submitting to illegal “executive orders.” The rulers of this world must have a docile people who will not cause trouble for them nor their servants. They must create a docile people with education, entertainment, drugs, food, &c.

9. It exposes the truth that a complete social-economic collapse is needed in order to get people’s attention for the Lord. We are now in the midst of that collapse, and the bankers are buying up the world with their fake money produced by the FED. We find it interesting that Congress believes it can create money by a majority vote to increase the “debt ceiling.”

10. It exposes the truth of what many of us have been preaching against: debt, The amount of individual debt is astounding as people have borrowed in order to stay in the “middle class.” How many can come up with $1,000 cash for an emergency? People will not be able to pay the debt that they owe to the banks that make up the FED. That debt WILL come due, and with nothing to make the payments, the banks will own the world. How many are borrowing money in order to pay the interest on the money they have already borrowed? The US is quickly reaching the point where “we” will need to borrow from the FED to pay the interest on the money borrowed from the FED.

11. It exposes the truth that will very soon be reality. That is, free money must result in hyperinflation. The time is coming where the FED paper will be as worthless as was the German Mark in WWII. That is why various “too big to fail” banks are stockpiling gold with their fiat money. The monetary system will move to a digital system, for that is the only way “Big Brother” can control all buying and selling.

It is so tempting to discuss “Nimrod’s” need for 5G and AI at this point,

12. It exposes the truth that has been on the lips of many, i.e., for safety's sake, get out of the big cities; those who have remained are paying the price. (However, we do not believe God has called all of His people to forsake the dangerous city areas where His witness is most needed. If the Lord leads, stay there for a witness to those in desperate need of His saving grace.)

Conclusion

Isaiah preaches to God's people throughout the ages about their hardness in sin, the lack of justice in their land, and their unwillingness to repent. Jeremiah 5 closes with this statement:

V. 31 The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof? & And it shall come to pass at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with candles, and punish the men that are settled on their lees: that say in their heart, The LORD will not do good, neither will he do evil. (Zeph 1:12)

Religious leaders give the people what they want to hear: "Get more spiritual and don't worry, be happy!" So, the sheep settle down, and the messages of the false shepherds bring upon their sheep "threats of God's physical chastisement." Woe to them that are at ease in Zion, (Amos 6:1)

Amos 3:7 Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets.

In Isaiah 6:8-13, text, the Lord said, Whom shall I send to warn the rebellious people of my impending judicial wrath and judgment upon their nation for its sin?

And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not. Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed. Then said I, Lord, how long? And he answered, Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate, And the LORD have removed men far away, and there be a great forsaking in the midst of the land.

JUDICIAL BLINDNESS AND JUDGMENT.

Preaching the law-word of God makes the rebellious sheep fat, deaf and blind, and there can be no healing until God's judicial wrath against hardness of sin is past. (Isa 6:9-13) That is, there can be no healing until God's judgment is past, vv.10-13.

When thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness. (Isa 26:9)

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. (Matt 6:10)

Do we really believe what we pray Thy kingdom come that His Kingdom will come? Do we really believe Thy kingdom shall be established by obeying the "Great Commission" just as sure as there is a just and righteous God in heaven? Is the "Lord's Prayer" simply a ritual prayer we pray without thinking? Do we really believe that He will subdue all opposition to His Son through the preaching of the everlasting gospel? Do we believe the Word of God as stated in places like 1 Corinthians 15:27,

For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him. 28 And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

Or must He say of His church today, O Faithless generation?

The "Lord's Prayer" is a post-millennial prayer throughout, for it requests the Father to judge the evil doers on this earth, and establish His kingdom throughout the earth. As we go through the ritual saying Thy kingdom come, they will be done, we are praying for God's righteous vengeance against not only the wicked warring against His kingdom on earth, but also against the compromised apostate church, and we use the word "church" very loosely.

Q. 102. What do we pray for in the second petition?

A. In the second petition, which is, Thy kingdom come, we pray, that God's kingdom of grace may be advanced, ourselves and others brought into it, and kept in it, and that the kingdom of glory may be hastened.

Let Thy Gospel be preached and the power of Thy Spirit attend it; let Thy Church be strengthened; let Thy cause on earth be advanced and the works of Satan be destroyed!

Let Thy throne be established in our hearts; let Thy laws be administered in our lives and Thy name be magnified by our walk.

Let the Day be hastened when Satan and his hosts shall be completely vanquished, when Thy people shall be done with sinning forever, and when Christ shall see of the travail of His soul, and shall be satisfied. (Pink)

Thy kingdom come: 1) generally, God universal ruler and His absolute dominion over all His creation. 2) the external sphere of His grace where He is acknowledged as the waters cover the sea. 3) his spiritual and internal Kingdom, regeneration, born of the water and of the Spirit.

Prepare, renew, equip and furnish the Church with men who will boldly take the battle to the enemy. The kingdom of God advanced into and conquer the kingdom of darkness. (The “enemies” of the cross have been imported by the tens of thousands. Who will boldly take the battle to them the message of freedom from their bondage to their pagan religions through the Cross of Christ?)

We pray that the works of Satan be destroyed. (1 John 3:8 He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.)

Pray for God to furnish bold men of grace, power and the spiritual gifts needed to equip the People of God to confront the gates of hell, and effectively use all of their divinely provided weapons to advance His kingdom.

Pray that He will mature the saints in their calling and enable them by His grace to be faithful in all the duties assigned to them and grace to stand for their faith in all situation. (Ephesians 6:13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.)

Thy will be done: 1) beg God for spiritual wisdom to learn his will. 2) beg God for spiritual inclination toward His will. 3) beg God for spiritual strength to perform His bidding.

On earth as in heaven where God’s will is performed promptly, wholly, perfectly, delightfully, gladly and joyfully. God is lauded constantly and untiringly.

Do we really believe God will establish His kingdom over the whole earth through the church, or are we simply repeating words with no meaning?

Thy kingdom come is a prayer for Him to execute His worldwide judgment against sin and rebellion, judgment even in compromised churches that claim to be orthodox. The Word tells us that it is through judgment that All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the LORD: and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee. For the kingdom is the LORD’S: and he is the governor among the nations, Psalms 22:27, 28.

JUDGMENT WITH PURPOSE

By faith we understand that judgment is upon us for a purpose; that is, that the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness. (Isa 26:9. I will do unto them after their way, and according to their deserts will I judge them; and they shall know that I am the LORD. Ezek 7:27.)

Are we equipping ourselves, our families and those we can influence with the law of the Lord, so they will be faithful through God’s judgment of enemies of Christ? Will they be able to take places of leadership when the “gods” of this world fall by their own hand as they bite and devour one another. Let us not be discouraged nor consumed in the chaos which is meant to overthrow all godly order.

God’s righteous vengeance shall produce righteousness, or His word is not true.

Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief.

The media still reports COVID deaths in the hundreds of thousands even though the CDC reports that only 6% of the deaths are strictly COVID related

COVID-19 & MASS PSYCHOSIS

By Ray DiLorenzo, August 19, 2021

A COVID-19 psychosis has emerged due to the worldwide push to create distress, anxiety, fear, and grief because of a virus, not unlike the flu virus, but sold as a considerably lethal disease without viable treatment, at least initially, to build up the fear quotient.

America and much of Western civilization is experiencing a Marxist Revolution

We need to understand that America and much of Western civilization is experiencing a Marxist Revolution. These globalist Marxists, these European elites are committed and determined to turn America and the world into a one-world communist state. They are allied with the Chinese Communist Party (CCP), the Democratic National Committee (DNC), Big Tech, Big Business, the mass media, and Democrat operatives all over America. They are well funded by the likes of George Soros, Bill Gates, and the Chinese. Once we understand that, everything happening around us will begin to make sense...something we need very badly.

From the continual attacks on Donald Trump, before, during, and after his presidency, to the COVID-19 pandemic, to the massive cyber attack on the 2020 Election, everything we have seen and heard these past few years has been carefully planned and manipulated for affect by China, Democrat operatives and the mass media, including the likes of Big Tech. The programming even includes the mass shootings, the crime wave, the false flag events past and yet to come. The effect is for mass psychosis or even hypnosis, creating fear, and obedience, the giving up of freedoms, voluntary at first, 'for our health, and the common good.' The Democrat Party was determined to not allow Americans to enjoy a presidency that gave us the greatest economy and the most peace in many years.

We are witnessing a repeat of Russia's 1917 Communist Revolution and the Nazi takeover of Germany in the '30s (show me your papers). This revolution encompasses cancel culture, the elimination of Western culture and religion, the destruction of statues of the founding fathers, censorship, the withdrawal of freedoms, the blatant disregard for the law BY THE GOVERNMENT and the dividing of Americans...tribalism, segregating students by race in primary schools, mask mandates for no reason except for psychological control and developing partial-face identification software, and, of course, election fraud past and future.

Covid-19 has brought about a psychosis from people with no psychiatric history. People whispering to their doctors, "I think I've been infected." When the doctor asks why she's whispering, she says, "the government can hear everything." I personally have experienced once-friendly neighbors telling me to "back off" when I approached to greet them. A woman working as a hospital housekeeper was cleaning a room when a nurse entered the room looking like she worked at a CDC level 4. The housekeeper became agitated, pulling at her hair, shouting nonsensically. She could not be calmed down.

If ever there was an arranged marriage, it's between big business and government

The media still reports COVID deaths in the hundreds of thousands even though the CDC reports that only 6% of the deaths are strictly COVID related, making it only an above average flu season. Mixed messages are everywhere, even from once reliable government sources. We are told that the inexpensive drugs which have been proven to be effective against COVID-19 are not permitted because, according to the government, there is no proof as to their effectiveness. And yet we are harassed by the same government for not taking an experimental vaccine with no knowledge of the possible after-effects or even proof of its effectiveness.

This vaccine program has alarmed many distinguished physicians including the inventor of the mRNA vaccines, Dr. Robert Malone. He affirmed recently that this vaccine program needs to be stopped immediately. Enough world-class physicians have expressed deep concern as to their hazard causing millions to take a second look. And yet, the government and the press continue to push hard for the jab, not respecting the personal decisions of millions of people, while they still consider vaccine mandates. Why? Why are they pushing this so-called vaccine so hard? How much more suspicion and confusion are we to put up with? We must remember, freedoms once surrendered are never given back without a fight.

Big business is no better, mandating that their employees take the shot, against the law and every code of human conduct since the Nuremberg Trials. If ever there was an arranged marriage, it's between big business and government. It's a tenuous 'what can we get from them?' arrangement.

The stress of uncertainty and fear has affected many, particularly healthcare workers. The loss of control, the fear, much of it made manifest by misinformation by both the government and the healthcare industry. Doctors and nurses that fought the establishment, trying to bring calm back to the system, were either dismissed or disciplined. In 2020, most hospitals were inundated with COVID patients to the detriment of really sick people, all the while using ineffective treatments. Many heart attacks went untreated while cancer patients had to wait for treatment. The Left will only bow to science that furthers their agenda. Mike Lindell can show proof positive the cyber forensics of the 2020 election, but it will fall on deaf and dumb ears.

Anyone who has stuck their respective noses up in the air knows the last several years stink of political corruption, deceit, and above all, insurrection. And it never was from the Trump supporters. All of you in hypnosis, time to wake up. You in psychosis, heal thyself. If you don't snap out of it soon, events will overtake you and you wake up in a foreign land.

Comment: Billions of dollars of military equipment lost! So what? The Military Industrial complex will profit greatly as they reequip the bankers war machine.

FLUORIDE: AMERICAN'S PASSIVITY DRUG

Lies, Lies and more Lies

The rulers of this world must have a docile population who will have little or no resistance to their unlawful orders. They have worked to create a docile population through “public” antichristian education, entertainment, drugs, food, &c. Fluoride has been “heaven sent” for the wicked in order to create a docile population.

Watching various news sources, we are struck by the reaction of the Europeans against forced injections of an experimental “vaccine” and mask mandates as they hold mass rallies and march in the streets against the overreach of their various governments that are taking away their freedom. One would think it would be the other way around for the “Land of the Free, and the Home of the Brave.” The “whole world” looks to America as a land of freedom, yet Americans seem to have been taken over by passivity; they do not seem to care that their nation is being turned into a Police State controlled by Marxists. Where are the protests against tyranny as are taking place in Europe? The precious freedoms that cost the blood of many men are being destroyed by the forced injection of an experimental “vaccine,” the Mask Mandates, &c. There may be demonstrations in America, but they are ignored by the media.

Those of my age can remember the big “dustup” with the introduction of fluoride into the water supply about 60 years ago. It was no secret that fluoride was a poisonous passivity drug, and that fact has never been challenged nor disproved. The various state and local entities, with the valuable help of the ADA, won the battle of public opinion, so the poisonous passivity drug, fluoride is now accepted by the gullible public. However, fluoride can be removed from the water supply with enough public pressure, but how many say, “Oh well, so what?” (We very seldom drink public water. We have used well and spring water all of our lives. I also have used a distiller for many years, which is now for sale. We have a private spring open to the public about 5 miles away.)

For well over 60 years, fluoride has been promoted as a wonder drug to stop tooth decay, which was simply another government lie to cause the population to accept fluoride:

1. Fluoride is the same ingredient in rat poison and Prozac. Fluoride calcifies the pineal gland, otherwise known as your 3rd eye (intuitive senses) which literally has rods and cones, just like your other eyes. Fluoride also damages DNA.

2. Some fluoride results: Brain damage, tumors, cancer, immune system disruptor, thyroid disorder, arthritis, dementia, infertility, genetic damage and cell death, muscle disorders, lethargy, increased lead absorption, bone fractures, autism, Alzheimer's disease, apathy & passivity; it interferes with white blood cell production, kills brain cells, lowers sex drive; it is a sedative, accelerates the aging process, attacks the hypothalamus, affects heart circulation, produces receding gums, shortens lifespan, increases memory loss, joint pain, produces lack of motivation, inhibits melatonin production; increases kidney stones & kidney failure, damages stomach and digestion, produces inflammation, accelerates osteoporosis and many other nasty things.

3. Fluoride is a contaminated chemical byproduct up that comes from phosphate fertilizer manufacturing.

4. Over 170 million people or 67% of the U.S. drink fluoridated water, 43 of the 50 largest cities drink fluoridated water.

5. Hitler and Stalin fluoridated the water in concentration camps to sedate the prisoners. It is the main ingredient in Sarin nerve gas, and we are forced to drink it. (Fluoride removal requires special and expensive filters. Steam distillation removes fluoride.)

6. In 1955, Crest became the first fluoride toothpaste; fluoride is so toxic, that it's considered a toxic waste by the EPA. So why does our Food and Drug Administration allow it if it's a “known health risk?”

7. Most “developed” countries do not ingest fluoridated water, Yet, more people in the US alone drink it more than the rest of the world combined. In Western Europe, 97% of the population drinks “Non-Fluoridated Water.”

8. Many European countries have rejected the fluoridation process because they don't believe in mass medicating their water supply, hence, denying the right to their citizens informed consent.

11. China tried adding fluoride for almost two decades, but abruptly stopped adding it in 1983. They realized that it increased dental fluorosis by a shocking 550%!

12. Infants consuming formula made with fluoridated tap water consume about 100 times more than the recommended amounts and are found to have lower IQ levels than children who have not imbibed fluoridated water.

13. “Fluoride supplements that are sometimes prescribed to those who are not drinking fluoridated water have not been approved by the US Food and Drug Administration (FDA) for the prevention of tooth decay. The fact is that fluoride supplements the FDA has reviewed have been rejected. So with fluoridation, we are adding to the water a prescription strength dose of a drug that has never been approved by the FDA.”

<https://www.americaoutloud.com/did-you-know-that-fluoride-was-a-rat-poison-before-it-was-toothpaste/>

Important points from above:

First, fluoride is a known poison which does great bodily harm. It damages the DNA. Moreover, the EPA considers fluoride a toxic waste.

Second: Hitler and Stalin used fluoride to sedate their prisoners.

Third: fluoride is an ingredient in Prozac, i.e., “happy pills.”

Fourth: fluoride calcifies the pineal gland, that is, the intuitive senses, or one’s natural tendency for natural understanding instinct, individualism and freedom.

Fifth, 97% of Western Europe drinks “Non Fluoridated Water.”

The answer to our question, “Why are the Europeans so stirred up over the enforced vaccines and mask mandates, and Americans are not? Is the public passivity a result of the fluoride drug that has been quietly forced upon the American population?”

MULTITUDES DEAD AND DYING

Example:

VAERS Whistleblower: “45,000 Dead From Covid-19 Vaccines Within 3 Days of Vaccination”...

The data showed that between December 14th, 2020, and July 2nd, 2021, a total of 438,441 adverse events were reported to VAERS, including 9,048 deaths. Compared to the previous week, this was an increase of 2,063 deaths. ... However, it is known that only 1% of adverse reactions are reported, as a report commissioned by the US ... Department of Health stated that: “Adverse events from drugs and vaccines are common, but under-reported.

<https://rightsfreedom.wordpress.com/2021/07/22/vaers-whistleblower-45000-dead-from-covid-19-vaccines-within-3-days-of-vaccination-sparks-lawsuit-against-federal-government/>

Comment: The numbers are so bad that VAERS quit posting them. We hear the most “fearful” reports of how many are dieing of Covid-19. However, not being reported is how many of those have received the experimental “jab,” yet it is no secret, in Israel especially, that the majority of those deaths are from those who volunteered to take part in the world wide experment.

A CLOSE LOOK AT ROMANS 8:28, 29

Opening comment: We recognize that overall, all things, both evil and good, must work for the glory of God, the expansion of His kingdom, and for the well-being of His church, for God works all history to accomplish His good pleasure. All things for good in judgment against the ungodly, all things for good against the sinner in calling him to Christ, all things for good in revealing the hidden things of dishonesty, &c. Thy commandment is exceeding broad, (Ps119:96) tells us that v. 28 covers every area of life, but we will consider v. 28 in a limited sense of its context. (Paul wrote Romans under the extremely wicked reign of Nero, B. 37 – D. 68. He became Emperor at age 17, reigned 54-68 AD. Paul’s appeal to Caesar was to Nero.)

Romans 8:28 And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose. 29 For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren. 30 Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?

Romans 8:28, which should not be separated from v. 29, is probably one of the best-known, and maybe one of the more abused scripture as it is claimed by Christians and non-Christians alike to meet personal emotional needs. It is commonly wrested from its context and its proper understanding. The context of v. 28 is chapter 8 as well as all Scripture.

V. 17 And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. 18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

V. 22, groaning as we wait for our redemption. (2 Tim 2:12, Heb 13:3, 1 Pet 2:20. 1 Thes 3:4 promises tribulation–trouble, affliction, distress. Ro 5:3,12:12, 2Co 4:17, Php 4:14)

Observe, vv. 28, 29:

1) all things; 2) the called... Individuals are fore-known, they are predestinated in the Lamb that was slain before the foundation of the world. 3) according to his purpose... 4) his purpose is spelled out in v. 29, to be conformed to the image of his Son...

According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love: Ephesians 1:4 (1 Pet 1:12)

5) And we know...

V. 28 is for the comfort of those who are seeking first the kingdom of God and His righteousness; it is their assurance that all their distressing circumstances are working to form them into the image of his Son, which is their goal. They are being assured that all things are working for His glory and for the good of the Elect. Because of that knowledge, they are able, by faith, to rejoice no matter what the circumstances, for they understand that God's will is being accomplished as He works to form the image of his Son in them.

Perfection, sanctification through suffering:

Hebrews 3:10 For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings. 11 For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren, ...

His people are conformed to the image of His son through suffering. Thus, we are told to Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice, because we are being conformed to the image of His Son. (Philip 4:4)

The context after v. 28 continues: V. 36, killed all the day long, and concludes with v. 39 and the impossibility of being separated from the love of God. Despite the distressing circumstances of chapter 8, it closes with this assurance, v. 37, Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name. (Acts 5:41)

Vv. 28, 29 afflictions and tribulations should produce joy in those who are the called according to His purpose, Rejoice evermore. (Rom 12:12, 1 Thes 5:16, 2 Cor 8:2, 1 Pe 4:13, 14, &c.) We ask, therefore, where is the promised comfort in v. 28 for those who are not seeking His kingdom and righteousness first of all, and who are not desiring that the image of his Son be formed in them? Those who are only seeking personal peace and comfort in their distress have no promise to claim, though they might find some emotional comfort here. Moreover, those who cannot honestly rejoice in v. 28 need to examine themselves to see if they are in the faith.

Romans 8 is an assurance for those desiring to be formed into the image of the Son. In the process of their sanctification to be like His Son, they face many kinds of distressing situations. They understand that the purpose of all things of v. 28 is to perform the spiritual work in the people of God. That is, all things are working together to conform His people to the image of His Son. How many of those who claim v. 28 are desiring to be conformed to the image of his Son? Thus, the logical implication is that if one's goal is NOT TO be more like his Son, v 28 only has a good emotional feeling. Being formed into the Son's image involves suffering even as He suffered, which the natural man does not want to read into v. 28.

There are more supporting passages on God's specific call, he did foreknow, &c., to specific individuals than we can go into, e.g., Acts 2:23, Eph 1:4, 11, Col 1: 15-18.

COVID BLESSING #5

Parents are pulling their kids out of public schools by the droves.

Public-school officials are panicking over drops in enrollment going into the new school year. They're going door-to-door (https://www.washingtonexaminer.com/news/public-schools-lure-students-enrollment-decline?mc_cid=f6a41f4082) to enlist students, planting yard signs pleading with parents to enroll their children, requiring bus drivers to call parents during their off hours, and asking that docents make calls to parents as well. They're hosting "town halls," inviting concerned parents to attend and to ask questions, hoping to reduce their anxiety over putting their kids back into public schools. Bob Adelman has a great story on this trend.

PUBLIC SCHOOL TEACHERS TURNING TO HOMESCHOOLING

Mom explains 'It was the best thing we ever did'

By Bob Unruh, August 12, 2021

The history of conflict between homeschoolers and public districts is long and punctuated by occasional knock-down, drag-out legal fights over issues that district officials view as theirs. After all, schools are organizations authorized by law to provide mandatory education to children, and depend on getting children into their classrooms for their funding. ($48,000 per student. The greatest increase in homeschooling has been Black and Asian families.)

Parents don't always agree.

But now a new report from the Washington Examiner looks at a number of public school teachers who have turned, for a number of reasons including the chaos in public facilities because of COVID-19, into homeschoolers themselves.

One who was interviewed was Amanda Hoerschelman, who was a fifth-grade teacher in Texas and Georgia. But on a recent move to Iowa, she had obstacles finding day-care for a 5-day-old daughter, and made the break, deciding to teach her own daughters at home.

"I never thought I would homeschool," Hoerschelman, a mother of four girls, told the Examiner. "My mom worked all when I was growing up, and I thought I would always do that. If you would have asked me 10 years ago, I would have never thought I would be doing this, but there was a shift in my heart."

Another "former" public school teacher is Johanna Duffy, who left a district in Florida when her son started school.

"It was when [COVID-19] was getting really bad. We pulled him out, and it was the best thing we ever did," she said. What she considered at first a short-term resolution now has turned into a long-range plan.

A third is Kristen Rhodes, who recently told The Atlantic she decided against public school kindergarten for her son because of requirements to wear a mask all the time.

The Examiner documented, "The pandemic has created an opportunity for all types of families who would have never otherwise considered homeschooling. Desperate parents stuck at home scrambled to keep their children on track. The general lack of coordination in public schools, coupled with inconsistent guidance from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention on safety and masks, pushed hundreds of thousands of parents to roll up their sleeves and give homeschooling a try."

Michelle Carter, whose family lives in Virginia, explained to the Examiner the move from public schools to homeschool "gives the opportunity to tailor what we teach our son. We've been able to work with [our son Toby] and go at his pace, which is something none of our other kids had at public school."

According to a report from the Home School Legal Defense Association, homeschooling has expanded rapidly in the last year or so.

"Between April 2020 and the present, data collected via the US Census Bureau's Household Pulse Survey (HPS) indicated that an estimated 22–23 million US households included school-age children. The percent of these households that had at least one homeschooled child (i.e., a child who was taught at home but not enrolled in a public or private school) was 5.4% in spring 2020, 11.1% during fall 2020, and 19.5% by May of 2021,” it reported.

But it noted future participation in homeschool still is hard to assess.

“Since 1999, the National Center for Education Statistics has found that the most frequent reason parents pulled their children out of public schools to homeschool them was because they believed that schools were unsafe places for learning. During the last year, of course, additional safety risks posed by COVID-19 increased those concerns. Even so, when the virus began to wane and schools began to reopen during spring 2021, it was expected that most students would return to school. Many did, of course, but it was also evident that more US families than ever before were choosing to homeschool their children, instead,” the report said.

“Consequently, either more time was needed before parents could again feel comfortable with the notion of sending their children back to school or else other things were perhaps responsible for their delay in doing so.”

Part of those decisions by parents moving forward likely will include consideration of academic instruction at the schools, which is either the second or third-leading reason for homeschooling in recent years.

“A report revealed that, on average, students had lost five months of academic gain in mathematics and four months in reading on average by the end of the 2020–21 pandemic-affected school year, with the biggest losses being incurred by historically disadvantaged groups,” the report said.

“When coupled with recent reports concerning parental dissatisfaction with some of the controversial subject matter that has been inserted into school curriculums, it seems reasonable that, before many parents halt their homeschooling efforts and re-enroll their children, they may wait until schools significantly improve the academic performance of their students and curriculum materials in their districts.”

The Examiner noted Yvonne Bunn, of the Home Educators Association of Virginia, said there has been a 48% increase in homeschoolers in the last year, which comes out to an additional 21,000 new students.

“Pretty much everybody knows somebody that homeschools,” she said. “That’s made a difference because they have personal connections with either someone in their family or someone in their neighborhood or someone in their workforce who homeschools their children.

It has become a mainstream alternative to public and private education.”

BUMPS AGAINST REALITY

Review: ‘Heaven on Earth: The Rise, Fall, and Afterlife of Socialism’ by Joshua Muravchik

Nick Clairmont, 4/14/19 The Washington Free Beacon

Joshua Muravchik’s definitive history Heaven on Earth was originally published in 2002 with the subtitle “The Rise and Fall of Socialism.” In order to stay definitive, it is now being updated and rereleased, with a third act added on to the historical drama of socialism in the form of its 21st century “Afterlife.”

Socialism, Muravchik writes, “was the faith in which I was raised.” And while he doesn’t belabor the personal, his status as an apostate from a long period as an involved socialist lends the entire project a bit of authority and a lot of fluency. He knows his stuff from the inside out, and he wants to understand and analyze, not merely attack, this tradition.

To quote another onetime socialist, George Orwell wrote in 1948 that:

Until well within living memory the forces of the Left in all countries were fighting against a tyranny which appeared to be invincible, and it was easy to assume that if only that particular tyranny—capitalism—could be overthrown, Socialism would follow. Moreover, the Left had inherited from Liberalism certain distinctly questionable beliefs, such as the belief that the truth will prevail and persecution defeats itself, or that man is naturally good and is only corrupted by his environment. This perfectionist ideology has persisted in nearly all of us, and it is in the name of it that we protest when (for instance) a Labour government votes huge incomes to the King’s daughters or shows hesitation about nationalising steel. But we have also accumulated in our minds a whole series of unadmitted contradictions, as a result of successive bumps against reality.

What Muravchik has done in Heaven on Earth is chronicle the whole story of those bumps against reality, in largely chronological order and in prose that is both direct and extremely stylish. This is the history of an idea, and it is told mostly through the human characters who conceived, advanced, and wielded that idea.

We start with French Revolutionary radical François-Noël (or Gracchus) Babeuf, the “first socialist,” and key member of the “Conspiracy of Equals.” His derring-do and philosophical commitments, expressed as he navigated the Revolution and the Terror, inspired Marx, the Comintern, and everyone else to ever evoke the S word.

From there we head across the Channel to England, where the mill owner and ideaman Robert Owen has decided that with the right vision (read: his own vision) and appropriately “scientific” principles, we could organize towns that function as perfect communities that develop people of high character, sharing everything, and producing products at a higher rate than their purely capitalist counterparts. If this sounds fanciful, he also apparently believed that as they developed science and society, they would be able to lessen the workload by taming previously untamed animals such as whales and lions. And if that seems fanciful, he also believed no revolution would be necessary to install socialism as the whole world’s system. The results of these towns that he set up by buying land in England and Indiana would prove so exemplary that they would be emulated everywhere. When his Indiana venture failed and was shuttered, he explained it away by blaming the character of the people who had populated it and nonetheless declared a moral victory.

This type of thinking, which is repeated over and over in Heaven on Earth, is the backwards “solution” Bertolt Brecht writes about in his poem of that name, in which he jokes about a people who:

Had forfeited the confidence of the government
And could win it back only
By redoubled efforts. Would it not be easier
In that case for the government
To dissolve the people
And elect another?

Stalin and Mao tried this “easier” solution quite literally.

For believing that no revolution would be necessary to bring the socialist future of the world they both believed would soon come, Marx called Owen a “utopian.” Marx’s prediction of an inevitable, spontaneous global class revolt followed by a post-capitalist utopia seemed to him, by contrast, pretty down to earth. Here Muravchik will have you chuckling—indeed, one of the most surprising and enjoyable things about Heaven on Earth is that it’s funny.

This is a unique quality in a definitive history—Di-armaid MacCulloch’s Christianity: The First Three Thousand Years doesn’t elicit much laughter, despite its brilliance. Not so with Heaven on Earth: Here is Communist Manifesto author Friedrich Engels taking a two month wine-drinking vacation during a much-anticipated revolutionary period in 1848-49. “The 1848 harvest was so infinitely rich ... better than ‘46, perhaps even better than ‘34! ... It will therefore readily be believed that I spent more time lying in the grass with the vintners and their girls, eating grapes, drinking wine, chatting and laughing.” (Champagne socialism has its own long history, too, it seems, and it traces to the same place as the regular kind.)

Muravchik has an eye for great quotes as well as details: The union organizer Samuel Gompers calls socialist theoreticians outside of the actual card-carrying labor force “men of isms and schisms” and reduces his cigar consumption to “twenty-five a day” out of concern for his health.

Muravchik covers real events and movements: the Russian Revolution through the end of the Soviet empire; the birth of fascism and its roots in socialism (Mussolini was editor of leading socialist journal Avanti! as a young leftist); the creation of social democracy as a political force in England and elsewhere in western Europe by Attlee and others; and “third world socialism” in postcolonial countries, focusing on Nyerere’s Tanzania.

We then learn about socialism’s defeats and repeals at the end of the 20th century, in a section that was the 2002 book’s close. Gorbachev and Deng modify the Russian and Chinese systems to be something quite unlike what early socialist theorists might have wanted. Tony Blair turns a perennially losing Labour Party into a winner by compromising on ... virtually everything of socialist principle. The kibbutzim of Israel, where socialism had been practiced at small scale with some success, break down in the third generation, as the family instinct and incentive to compete for more draw the communities apart.

But what of that surprise third act, the fresh Afterlife portion of Heaven on Earth? Muravchik has not lost the touch since 2002. It contains, for one, the least polemical and most exhaustive case that Jeremy Corbyn is a dullard, terrorist sympathizer, ideologue, and menace that I have yet encountered. That alone is worth the book’s purchase price. It also assesses Chavist Venezuela, Bernie Sanders, and the Occupy movement. And it closes with a look at the surprising and threatening disappointments of how China has developed under Xi, not back in a socialist direction but neither in the predicted postsocialist one.

Heaven on Earth is one of those books that's so clearly communicated you could open it anywhere and start reading and enjoying a section. But read it as a whole and you will find themes, the same forces reasserting themselves and undoing the socialists' predictions and promises, even as theoreticians invoke the same excuses and evasions.

Socialists are always abstractly analyzing capitalism, and perhaps a reversal is in order: A capitalist analysis of this socialist problem must start from the law that for human beings "incentives matter." So if you truly believe your incentive is creating and living in a "heaven on earth," a phrase Muravchik borrows from a quote by 19th century socialist Moses Hess, that will outweigh any disincentive. You will of course do anything and believe anything and commit any atrocity to achieve it. The results are always impractical and usually ugly, because the goal is not achievable. Not with human beings as we really are. This, Heaven on Earth so ably demonstrates, is the reality socialism inevitably bumps against.

BIDEN AND TRUMP

SHILLS FOR THE DEEP STATE'S VACCINE MANDATES

By Chuck Baldwin, August 26, 2021

For decades, I have been saying that there is no substantial difference between the Donkeys and the Elephants in Washington, D.C. And for the last four years, I have shown irrefutable evidence that Donald Trump has served the same Deep State global masters as his predecessors Barack Obama and G.W. Bush—and as Joe Biden, of course.

Nothing proves what I have said above any more than the way that Donald Trump is parroting the same establishment line (LIE!) as Joe Biden regarding the most important global event of our lifetimes, the greatest and most powerful attack against our liberties in our lifetimes: the phony Covid narrative, especially the Covid vaccines.

First, I urge readers to watch the message I delivered last Sunday to my Liberty Fellowship family both locally and internationally. The title of the message is: How Are Forced Covid Vaccinations Different From The Mark Of The Beast? They Aren't!

Until evangelical Christians come to understand that everything they have been taught about an Israel-based pre-tribulation rapture is a myth and that the Israel-based tribulation itself is a myth, their eyes will always be closed to the truth that the Covid narrative is first and foremost a spiritual deception and that submitting to this deception is to follow antichrist.

Secondly, the Covid vaccinations are killing people by the tens of thousands.

Paul Craig Roberts writes:

It is very strange to find corporations recruited to serve a coerced marketing campaign. We hear about the "pandemic of the unvaccinated." But there is no such pandemic. All evidence shows that the majority of new cases are among the double inoculated.

Public officials and the prostitutes are implying that it is those who refuse the vaccine who are responsible for the new outbreak when to the contrary it is the vaccinated people who are the cause of the variants and new illnesses. As Dr. Malone, the inventor of the mRNA technology used to create the vaccine, has patiently explained, the vaccine trains the virus to produce variants that escape vaccines.

Considering the enormous number of deaths and injuries associated with the vaccine, we are faced with the conclusion that the vaccine gives those vaccinated Covid illnesses. Some have severe symptoms, some die, others don't know they have it.

The medical establishment has avoided autopsies of vaccine-related deaths. The narrative doesn't want to acknowledge them. People ruined by the vaccine can get no help from the medical establishment. Finally an autopsy was done, and the first autopsy of a vaccine-caused death supports these conclusions:

"This post-mortem study only confirms our worst fears that the Covid-injections cause more harm than good, and may actually even speed up the spread of the virus."

No evidence exists that the vaccine protects against Covid. Indeed, the vaccine seems to spread the virus.

The Covid policy is so counterfactual and so contradicted by all evidence that conspiracy theorists who see a darker agenda at work are gaining credibility. When a vaccine has proven itself not to protect but to cause unprecedented deaths and illnesses, how can any intelligent person arrive at the conclusion that more vaccine is the solution?

A lawsuit filed in Alabama on July 19 “alleges a massive government cover-up of injection-related U.S. deaths that number ‘at least 45,000.’”

Dr. Peter McCullough “is professor of medicine and vice chief of internal medicine at Baylor University and also teaches at Texas A&M University. He is an epidemiologist, cardiologist and internist and has testified before the Texas State Senate related to COVID-19 treatments. He holds the distinction of being the most widely cited physician in the treatment of COVID-19 with more than 600 citations in the National Library of Medicine.”

Dr. McCullough publicly maintains that the Covid injections have already killed over 50,000 Americans.

McCullough said, “‘Good doctors are doing unthinkable things’ ...They ‘appear to be under a spell.’”

What most people don’t realize and what most Christian people should realize but don’t is that this “spell” is a supernatural deception of antichrist. (It is Judicial Blindness sent by God, ed.) And pastors and Christian leaders are as much under this “spell” as doctors.

Dr. Sherri Tenpenny says that 200,000 people have died after taking the jab.

In the same way that the CDC and medical establishment manipulated and exaggerated the number of Covid deaths last year, they are now manipulating and underreporting the number of deaths from the Covid vaccines.

And, again, Donald Trump is as much a willing propagandist of this global deception designed to both kill and enslave as Joe Biden.

Trump is all over the media shilling for the Covid vaccines. In Alabama, Trump was actually booed at one of his rallies for promoting the jabs. Maybe there is hope for his millions of seemingly mindless minions who still adore him, even as he is THE single most responsible person in the world for this global scamdemic known as the Covid narrative. He actually travels all over America bragging about that fact and complaining that the media isn’t giving him enough credit for this Big Pharma Frankenstein that he unleashed on the world. And still hordes of conservatives continue to believe this con man is America’s only hope.

Plus, it was Trump’s appointment to the Supreme Court, Amy Coney Barrett, who struck down a challenge to Covid vaccine mandates.

Supreme Court Associate Justice Amy Coney Barrett

struck a surprising blow [not to me; I tried to warn readers about her when she was appointed] against those seeking to defy COVID vaccine mandates on Thursday when she dismissed a challenge to a college’s mandate without comment.

A group of eight students at Indiana University sought an emergency injunction from the Supreme Court against their college’s vaccine mandate. In her role supervising the 7th Circuit Court of Appeals, Barrett reviewed the motion and denied it.

Barrett chose not to refer the matter to the full nine-justice court and offered no explanation for her decision in a move that could have wider implications for vaccine mandates across the nation.

I strongly urge readers to watch this brief video from StateOfTheNation.com. And please share it with every Trump toady you can. Sooner or later, something must awaken them to the fantasy world that Trump and QAnon have put them in.

Interestingly enough, while Joe Biden is doing everything he can to mandate Covid vaccinations in this country, Russian President Vladimir Putin is railing against forced jabs.

Those who are reluctant or anxious about signing up for a Covid-19 vaccine should be encouraged and incentivized to roll up their sleeves, Russian President Vladimir Putin has said, while railing against coercion and intimidation. [Emphasis added]

[T]he president insisted that there must be “no imposition” of jabs on the public.

You know things are looking bad when the President of the United States is out-Sovietizing the President of Russia.

Yes, both Biden and Trump are shills for the Deep State’s Covid vaccine mandates.

I will keep repeating it as long as I have a beating heart: America’s problems are not primarily political and will never be solved in the White House. They are primarily spiritual and will only be solved in the Church House.

When pastors and churches again become bastions of truth and courage, then and only then will America start on the path to recovery.

P.S. Third notice: I am really excited about the following announcement.

I was recently interviewed by Rashad Leonce on Changing The Narrative podcast. The title of the in-interview: Is The Modern State Of Israel Biblical And Should Christians Support It?

This is the VERY BEST interview on the subject of Biblical Israel that I have ever had. Rashad did a fantastic job of interviewing. He asked the right questions with a genuine seeking spirit and allowed me the time needed to fully answer the questions.

Accordingly, we are offering this audio interview on CD without cost (except for shipping and handling), as I believe this is the BEST resource to give to a friend or loved one in order to introduce them to the subject of the true Biblical teaching of Israel. It can be considered the FIRST primer for anyone unfamiliar with the subject.

I suggest that you listen to the free online audio version first. And if you feel it would be a suitable tool to give to friends and loved ones, order the CDs to give away. The CDs come in lots of 5 and 10.

Listen to the MP3 file of the interview here.

Comment: As hope builds around the “ballot box,” judgment builds up against US. Trump & Co is a false religion.

US OPENLY DECLARES WAR AGAINST CHRIST

Matthew 28:19 Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: 20 Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

The wicked are waging an all-out war to the death against the rule of Christ and His law. They are using everything possible to break the bands and cords of God’s law. Whoever’s law rules the land determines the sovereign of the land—God through His revealed word in the Commandments, or man as revealed in his fallen mind, Humanistic law? (Fauci’s law seems to be ruling the world at this time.)

Since this nation was founded basically on “Calvinistic” doctrine, the wicked have waged war against that doctrine of the Pilgrims from the very beginning; that is, against the bands and cords of God’s command-word as described in Psalms 2. That war gained a great boost against the reformed Christian faith when the Unitarian North under Lincoln invaded a foreign country over taxes. That free nation was founded according to the U.S. Constitution, The Confederate States of America.

Regardless of political party, the war against Christ continues and intensifies to this day. The Democrats are more open in their warfare than are the Republicans, but both are determined to institute their brand of humanistic law, which is not only far removed, but violently militates against the Biblical law-order as established by our founding fathers.

We have all seen what is taking place in Afghanistan. Americans have been abandoned in favor of Muslims that were flown here by the tens of thousands. Obama also imported multitudes of Muslims which resulted in Muslims now in Congress. In addition, we now have open borders which allows a mighty army of foreigners to invade this land with their various pagan religions. All this influx of pagan religions is intentional, with the purpose to dilute the WASP influence of Christian law to where it is non-existent.

With so many Muslims being imported into the US, we can expect the Islamists to have an increasing influence in Congress, and we can expect Sharia law to become accepted in our land.

Texas Judge Ordered a Muslim Woman to Undergo Arbitration Through an Islamic Court

A judge in Texas...effectively denied a U.S. citizen her constitutionally protected due process rights, choosing instead to order her to appear before an Islamic tribunal where her testimony is considered inferior. And when her lawyers sounded the alarm—the judge doubled down.

...Collin County District Judge Andrea Thompson ordered a Muslim woman seeking a divorce from her husband to undergo arbitration not through regular channels but through an Islamic court, also known as a Fiqh Panel—a move that the woman’s lawyers argue is an obvious and unconscionable affront to her constitutional rights.

Two law systems are battling for world control. Biblical law as found in the Commandments, and Humanistic law as developed in the imaginative mind of fallen man. The wicked are promoting any law-system to replace the historic biblical law-system of the founders of this nation: Humanistic law, be it named Sharia law, Noahide Law, or whatever antichristian law they can enforce on the population. The Noahide Laws: Few Christians have heard of the Noahide Laws or know that they were signed into US law on March 20, 1991 by George H W Bush. The Noahide Laws are from the Babylonian Talmud; according to the 1906 Jewish Encyclopedia,

“They declared that the following six commandments were enjoined upon Adam: (1) not to worship idols; (2) not to blaspheme the name of God; (3) to establish courts of justice [who defines justice, ed.]; (4) not to kill; (5) not to commit adultery; and (6) not to rob...A seventh commandment was added after the Flood-not to eat flesh that had been cut from a living animal.”

“The Talmud frequently speaks of ‘the seven laws of the sons of Noah,’ which were regarded as obligatory upon all mankind, in contradistinction to those that were binding upon Israelites only. (Tosef., ‘Ab. Zarah, ix. 4; Sanh. 56a).

For more than you want to know about the openly antichrist Jewish religion, Judaism, see <https://www.biblicalexaminer.org/JudaismOpen.html>. (We continually get appeals to send money to help feed “Jewish widows.” Why would the followers of Christ support and feed those who are at war against the Christian God? Our giving must be according to God’s law-word, not according to emotion.)

Interesting Observation: In Ezekiel 38 & 39, it is Gomer and his bands who move against the Gospel Church in the last days; those last days started with the Incarnation. Japheth was the father of the Aryan Race. His sons were 1. Gomer, 2. Magog, 3. Javan, 4. Tubal, 5. Mesheck and 6. Tiras. Gomer’s oldest son was Ashkenaz, making the list of enemies of the Gospel Church in Ezekiel 38 uncles or brothers of today’s Ashkenazi Jews. (Baker’s Bible Atlas, Chapter III.) Israeli leadership openly admits that the “Jews” in Palestine have no connection with the Biblical Jews—according to Matthew 23, 24, God annihilated ancient Israel with His Roman army in 70 AD. It is estimated that 95% of self-proclaimed Jews today are basically from the Turkic tribe of the Ukrainian–Russian Khazars, who “converted” to Talmudic Judaism in 950 AD. Today, they identify themselves as Ashkenazi Jews. The Khazars readily admitted to and were proud that they were descendants of Japheth, and not of Shem: https://www.biblicalexaminer.org/PDF/J_WhoIsAJew.pdf

We have two systems fighting for the heart and soul of mankind, and thus for the control of the world. With the great influx of pagans, the Christian religion in “our once-Christian nation” is confronted with several totally pagan, antichrist religions: Islam, which utterly hates Christians, Judaism which also is openly antichrist as well as the apostate “Christianity” that denies the power of the Gospel to subdue the nations to Christ, “So why Try?” they say. The spiritual conflict is over which religion’s laws will control the world, Humanistic law or Christian law? Islam plans to conquer the world with the sword. Zionism, i.e., Judaism (Ashkenazi Jews), plans to conquer the world through the banking system as they buy up everything, including elections, with FED created dollars and easy “credit.” Soros is an Ashkenazi Jew, as are the vast majority of the bankers who make up the FED system.

Humanism and Christianity are battling for the control of the world.

However, the outcome of the battle was established 2000 years ago

2 Corinthians 10:3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh: 4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;) 5 Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ; 6 And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

Romans 8:37 Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

Events in these “last days” are becoming very serious as God moves the nations into open bloody warfare against Christ and His church. What are His people to do?

But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen. (2 Peter 3:18) Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. (Eph 6:13)

We must grow in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour, pass that knowledge along, and be encouraged in His sovereign grace to see us through whatever He has in store for us.

Habakkuk 3:16 ¶ *When I heard, my belly trembled; my lips quivered at the voice: rottenness entered into my bones, and I trembled in myself, that I might rest in the day of trouble: when he cometh up unto the people, he will invade them with his troops. 17 Although the fig tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines; the labour of the olive shall fail, and the fields shall yield no meat; the flock shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls: 18 Yet I will rejoice in the LORD, I will joy in the God of my salvation. 19 The LORD God is my strength, and he will make my feet like hinds' feet, and he will make me to walk upon mine high places. To the chief singer on my stringed instruments.

Yet I will rejoice in the LORD, I will joy in the God of my salvation, for we understand that according to Psalms 37 and 73 the workers of iniquity shall soon be cut down like the grass; they shall wither as the green herb. We are told to wait patiently on the Lord, and not fret because of those who plan and bring evil devices to pass.

Psalms 37:12 The wicked plotteth against the just, and gnasheth upon him with his teeth. 13 The Lord shall laugh at him: for he seeth that his day is coming. 14 The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, to cast down the poor and needy, and to slay such as be of upright conversation. 15 Their sword shall enter into their own heart, and their bows shall be broken.

However, we understand that the Stone of Daniel 2 struck the image of man 2000 years ago, and even now is in the process of grinding that like the chaff of the summer threshingfloors; and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.

Isaiah 11:9 They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

His grace will be sufficient as it is needed to see us through this period of His history.

Joshua 1:9 Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the LORD thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.

US STATE DEPARTMENT'S INCREASING WAR AGAINST CHRIST

This writer did not pay attention to “politics” until after his discharge from the Navy in 1965. At that time, he learned from a girl friend (member of the Birch Society) about the US State Department’s war against America, especially against “Christian” America. The Afghanistan fiasco has clearly revealed the depth of the Department’s hatred for America as it was founded. (Sadly, even presidents who have professed love for America have failed to clean out the viper’s nest in the SD. Fear?)

This writer’s personal observation: It has been open knowledge for many years that there is NOTHING that takes place on the national or international scene that is not preplanned.

Watch: Biden’s spokeswoman calls COVID-19 a global ‘PLANDEMIC’

So, whoever is controlling Biden planned this sudden withdrawal from Afghanistan which armed the Taliban and influenced the US public to support to importation of a 150,000 + Muslim army into the US which may well be under Taliban leadership. Will the nations of the world lose confidence in the US over Afghanistan, nations will abandon the USD, which will result in the total collapse of the Petrodollar which was established at the 1944 Bretton Woods Conference. The result will be the end of the American Empire, much to the delight of the State Department. Though I certainly love the USA, my allegiance is to another kingdom, the Kingdom of God. Let us not forget that allegiance as our nation fails.

Matthew 28:19 Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: 20 Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am Dabney goes into great detail of the cause of the war, including the secret meeting with Lincoln, Discussions, Secular, pgs. 71-107, 1897. Sprinkle Publications reprint, Harrisonburg, Va.) Regardless of political party, the war against Christ continues and intensifies to this day. The Democrats are more open in their warfare than are the Republicans, but both are determined to institute their brand of humanistic law, which is not only far removed from, but violently militates against the Biblical law-order as established by our founding fathers.

We have all seen what is taking place in Afghanistan. Americans have been abandoned in favor of Muslims that were flown here by the tens of thousands.

Americans with their blue passports were withheld from getting on the evacuation planes as 150,000 totally un-vetted Afghans were evacuated to the US. There is little doubt that the vast majority of those Afghans are members of the Taliban, along with their leaders. That 150,000 plus the vast horde of illegals coming across the southern border are being imported for purpose. Obama also imported multitudes of Muslims which resulted in Muslims now in Congress. In addition, our open borders allow a mighty army of foreigners to invade this land with their various pagan religions. Now there is talk of US “Foreign Aid” to Afghanistan, and of China taking advantage of the situation to go in with building the infrastructure.

As a former US Navy Seabee who was on his way to Vietnam in 1965, it was quite disquieting to see that the US Navy cap I purchased some time ago was made in Vietnam where many young men were killed or maimed and came back addicted to drugs. War is a moneymaking fraud! Not to worry though! The military/industrial complex will make huge profits as they replace what was given to the Taliban.

However, the CIA is not about to leave Afghanistan, for that country is the number one source of opium. Did the CIA pay off the Taliban so they would have free access to the poppy fields? There is big money in drugs, human trafficking—which no one seems to be concerned about]war, oil, and, for the bankers, fiat paper “money” to “loan” to combatants on both sides. For centuries, wars have been financed by bankers, who then hold the nations in their grip. The House of Rothchild has been the number one financier of war for the last several centuries before the advent of the central banks who could finance a nation’s wars with paper. People are only a soulless, lifeless number from whom to strip the fruits of their labor, make the Biggs Bigger. War has been used by the US since the time of Lincoln to overthrow governments that are unapproved by the Northern Establishment. God will judge.

The Big Short is the true account of how the banks brought down the financial system in 2008, and cause untold financial damage worldwide. The bankers came out smelling like a rose with huge bonuses, and no one was held accountable. The game continues today, but under different names. The outcome must be worse than it was in 2008. The video is “R” with good reason, so beware.

A sufficient word about Afghanistan

WHY WE WERE DEFEATED IN AFGHANISTAN

These few words by Jetbrane says it all:

In 2008 American troops confiscated, threw away, and burned God’s Word at Bagram Air Base in Afghanistan. The Bibles were written in the Pashto and Dari languages, and the Defense Department was concerned the books might somehow be used to convert Afghans.

The incident became public in 2009. Lt. Col. Mark Wright told CNN such religious outreach could endanger American troops and civilians because Afghanistan is a “devoutly Muslim country.”

But there was another reason the Bibles were confiscated. Military rules forbid troops from proselytizing in the country.

“The decision was made that it was a ‘force protection’ measure to throw them away because, if they did get out, it could be perceived by Afghans that the U.S. government or the U.S. military was trying to convert Muslims,” Wright said in the interview.

1.) We wouldn’t force Bibles on the Afghans but we would force modernizing their culture in a Cultural Marxist direction.

2.) We wouldn’t force Bibles on the Afghans but we would kill them for following the precepts of their faith in expelling the infidel.

3.) We wouldn’t force Bibles on the Afghans but we would fly the flag on our embassy.

It is absolutely ridiculous for modern armies to think they can win wars by killing people without killing the gods of those same people. (We went into Afghanistan intent on killing as we go but we don’t want to kill the gods who make them the enemies they are? No war is successfully fought until the gods of the people whom war has been made against are slaughtered. The Christian God would have killed Allah dead but the gods of America (the FEDS) would not allow that to happen and so sought to kill the God of the Bible instead by burning His Word.

I have no tears left for pagan America. They have sewn the wind now let them reap the whirlwind.

Postscript — I was one of a minority of Americans who opposed the stupid Gulf War, to begin with. I never was a believer in the neo-con policy of “Invade the World, Invite the World,” and I was (and remain) convinced that 9-11 (the alleged causus belli of the Bush II Gulf War) had more to do with the American Deep State than it had to do with Iraq or Afghanistan. Iraq and Afghanistan, like Lee Harvey Oswald before them, were mere patsies.

My orders are to fight; Then if I bleed, or fail, Or strongly win, what matters it? God only doth prevail. The servant craveth naught, Except to serve with might. I was not told to win or lose, – My orders are to fight. ~ Ethelwyn Wetherald

Ed comment: Though I certainly love the USA, my allegiance is to another kingdom, the Kingdom of God. Let us not forget that allegiance as our nation passes into history, and the Kingdom of God increases.

After World War II and the defeat of Japan, MacArthur asked for 10,000 missionaries to come fill the vacuum left by the defeat of the Japanese god, the Emperor. Fulfillment of that request could have led to Japan being a Christian nation, but the church was not prepared for victory, and only provided a handful. We must prepare for victory as the gods of this world are being shaken and destroyed by our Great God.

HALLOWEEN AND THE REFORMATION

Halloween is the most heavily celebrated holiday of the year, even more than Christmas. In fact, the establishment changed the ending date of “Fast Time” in order to give people more time to celebrate Halloween. It should be quite distressing to those who love the Lord that churches celebrate Halloween, which is a celebration of the dead. My dad was a lay pastor and I can well remember dressing up for Halloween parties at the church, c. 1948 to mid 50s.

Halloween! Let us consider Rehwinkel’s The Flood. Quoting:

CHAPTER IV Warning of the Coming Flood

When the ark had been completed and the period of grace had expired, Noah received instructions to enter the ark with his own household and with the animals which were to be kept alive. At the beginning of the 600th year of Noah’s life the ark was finished, and on the tenth day of the second month of that year he entered the ark. This raises the question what was the first month? If, as some hold, the first month corresponded to the end of our month of September and the beginning of October, it would mean that the Flood began, according to our reckoning, about November of the 600th year of Noah, or the 1,656th year of the world. And with Noah went into the ark his three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth, and their wives, eight souls altogether. They took two of every kind of animal, but of the clean animals they took seven, which, according to Luther and other interpreters, means three pairs to continue the species and one male for the purpose of sacrifice. (Pp. 63, 63. Note that the distinction between clean and unclean was from the beginning.)

CHAPTER XI Other Historical Evidences for the Flood

Here, then, is another interesting and stubborn fact which must be met honestly, for all these ever-recurring incidents found with so many people so widely separated with respect to both time and place cannot be accounted for as a mere accident. These traditions, differing in some of their details, evidently have a common source in the same historical facts.

But there is another tradition found with many peoples in widely separated areas in both ancient and modern times which bears witness to the historical fact of the Flood, even to the extent of pointing to the season of the year in which this fearful cataclysm destroyed the human race. That season is the festival of the New Year, observed at the disappearance of the Pleiades at the end of October or the beginning of November. Urquhart, who reports these traditions, says that a new-year festival connected with, and determined by, the Pleiades seems to be one of the most universal of all customs. It is not only the fact that New Year's Day was observed by so many people at about the same time which makes this significant, but that the observance of this event was always connected with the memory of the dead or was observed as a feast of the ancestors.

The natives of Australia observed this day at about the season mentioned. On this occasion they painted a white stripe over their arms, legs, and ribs, and dancing by the light of the fire appear like so many skeletons celebrating. The same custom is found among the savages of the Society Islands, where the closing of the old and the opening of the new year were celebrated about November. At the conclusion of this celebration each man, returning to his hut, was expected to offer a special prayer for the spirit of the departed relatives.

In the Fiji Islands a commemoration of the dead takes place toward the end of October.

In Peru the new year came at the beginning of November and was called Ayamarka, which signifies "carrying a corpse." The festival was celebrated in memory of the dead and was observed with songs and music and by placing food and drink upon the graves of the dead.

The Hindus celebrate their Durga, a festival of the dead, which originally was their New Year's Day and was observed on the 17th day of November.

The Persians called November Mordad, that is, the angel of death, and the feast of the dead, which took place at the same time as in Peru, was considered a New Year's festival.

With the ancient Druids the night of the first of November, in which they annually celebrated the reconstruction of the world, was full of mystery. According to a custom connected with this event, the priestesses were obliged at this time to pull down and rebuild each year the roof of their temple as a symbol of the destruction and renovation of the world. If one of them, in bringing the material for the new roof, let fall her sacred burden, she was seized by her enraged companions and torn to pieces. On this same night the Druids extinguished the sacred fire, which was kept burning throughout the rest of the year; and at the signal all the fires in the community were put out, and it was believed that, in the complete darkness that followed throughout the land, the phantom spirits of those who had died during the preceding year were then carried by boats to the judgment seat of the god of the dead.

A strange relic of this Druidic festival has survived in our present Hallowe'en (Hallow Eve) on the last day of October and All Saints and All Souls Days on the first and second of November. In former years the relics were even more numerous — in the Hallowe'en torches of the Irish and the bonfires of the Scotch and Welsh, while in France it was customary to visit the cemeteries and graves of their ancestors at this time.

The Mexicans to this day observe a day of the dead in much the same way and at the same time. They still place food and drink upon the graves of the departed ancestors, as modern travelers in that country have observed.

In ancient Egypt the day of the dead was observed on the 17th day of Athyr, which corresponds to the 17th day of November. On this day the Egyptian priest would place an image of the god Osiris in a sacred ark and launch it into the sea until it was borne out of sight.

Now it must be admitted that the origin of these strange traditions is not as clearly traced as the Flood traditions, and yet there seems to be a connection between these strange events and that great event in the history of the human race.

The date of the festival (of the dead, ed.) corresponds to the date of the Flood if, as some hold, the year began in the fall of the year. There are others who question this. All these traditions have in common a remembrance of the dead, which seems to point to a major calamity of the human race. Then there are echoes of a perishing world and the rebuilding of another. Customs and traditions found so widely scattered and with so many people must have their origin in some great experience in the past history of man. There is no common experience of the human race which would so well account for these strange customs and traditions as the Flood. And we may therefore well agree with Urquhart, who in concluding his remarks on these traditions says: "Here the traditions not only unite in bearing down to our own times that awful cry of anguish which once shook earth and sky, but also fix upon the very month and the very day which the Scriptures have recorded."

(Rehwinkel, The Flood. Concordia Publishing House, 1951. Thirteenth printing, 1972. Pp 168-171.)

Accordingly, Rehwinkel makes a good case that the world-wide "festival of the dead" was and is in remembrance of the wicked who perished in the Flood.

The world was perishing under the heavy load of sin, so God sent the Flood to correct things, and start over again. Obviously, most of those who celebrate Halloween have no idea of its original purpose, though it is common knowledge that it is a celebration of the dead. The Church of Rome incorporated that pagan celebration into their religious practices in order to entice the pagans into its fold. By the way, Halloween is the number one income-producing holiday for retail, or at least number two after Christmas.

Daylight Savings Time was lobbied for by the retail industry. An extra hour of “daylight” meant shoppers would remain shopping longer, and more gas would be sold. Then a few years ago, the candy manufacturers lobbied for an extended date (after Halloween) to return to standard time, so they could reap the benefit of the “Halloween” beggars for candy. (As a youngster, our mother used to take us “trick or treating” for candy. Our daughter who lives in Ft. Thomas KY comes to our house for Halloween night so they do not have to put up with the endless stream of beggars.)

Conclusion:

Everything that has taken place since Adam, and will take place until the angel proclaims that time shall be no more happens according to God’s fullness of time; that is, everything happens according to God’s predetermined, foreordained timetable. He alone controls history, down to the lowest sparrow that falls to the ground, and the very hairs of our head that wash down the drain. What can escape the attention of the Everlasting God of Scripture?)

Halloween

History points to its source being demonic. History points to its meaning being heathen sorrow over God’s destruction of the world because of sin. October 31 is the date that the world without Christ celebrates the remembrance of the dead (the wicked who died in the Flood?).

October 31 must be a day of rejoicing, not of mourning. It is the date the start date of the Reformation of which we are all beneficiaries. The Redeemed should celebrate the reformation from the bondage to Roman’s worship of death. We celebrate the new life of victory in the true Reformation through Jesus Christ. (Make it a point to see the old 1956 B&W movie, Martin Luther. The new one is not worth the time.) Let us rejoice in that day, and be glad in it for the renewal of the hope as proclaimed by prophets, the Lord himself, and the authors of the New Testament.

This is a day that the Lord hath made; let us rejoice and be glad in it, for the church was set free from the evil superstitions of the elders, particularly Roman paganism.

FYI

Medical professionals who have been on the frontline helping people during COVID are now told they must succumb to this experimental injection. They are now desperate for help. However, many of them have seen the damage caused by these experimental injections. One RN has witnessed six people die from taking COVID shots and is seeing others experience “urinating clots of blood, paresthesia (burning or prickling sensation), gastroparesis (stomach stops processing food), altered mental status, respiratory arrest, cardiac arrests, new onset seizures and new onset diabetes.” She says, “I have patients who can’t walk anymore.”

Governments to demand constant surveillance of your blood, body fluids and medication compliance

The ultimate goal is constant government surveillance of your location, your vaccine compliance, your medication compliance, your speech compliance, your thought compliance and your total worship and obedience of the medical police state regime that’s killing you. Brighteon, 9/4/21

In the June Examiner, we showed that the Covid “vaccine” is a miniature computer injected into the body. Combined with 5G and AI, this computer will be able to track the compliance of all who have been “jabbed.” Thus, the over-the-top demand for everyone to participate in this worldwide experiment of total population control. The “vaccine” has nothing to do with stopping Covid, and everything to do with total control of the population.

Hearing a message on Psalms 2, v. 6 cought my attention. The central verse is v. 6 Yet have I set my king upon my holy hill of Zion.

upon my holy hill of Zion — Zion, selected by David as the abode of the ark and the seat of God’s visible residence (#1Ki 8:1); as also David, the head of the Church and nation, and type of Christ, was called holy, and the Church itself came to be thus named... (Jamieson, Fauset, Brown)

That is, the Church of the Living God is the new Mt Zion sought by Abraham in Hebrews 12. Which brings us to 2 Kings 11:10 And to the captains over hundreds did the priest give king David’s spears and shields, that were in the temple of the LORD.

We see that the house of the Lord contains the armory, the weapons of war with which to equip the Saints to defeat the Devil’s army. 2 Cor 10:4, Eph 6.

Micah 3:1 But in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow unto it. 2 And many nations shall come, and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God-- of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem. 3 And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. 4 But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it. 5 For all people will walk every one in the name of his god, and we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.

Conclusion: The King rules in and through His church. As His command-law is proclaimed by faithful preachers from His church and His people apply it, the foolish, imaginative dreams of the kings of this world crumble.

PERSONAL

I had a “Heart attack” in 1999, pacemaker and 3 more stents by the time 80 years old came around, August 14. The mercies of the Lord are without number. My wife with the help of some close friends had a surprise birthday party for me on the 15th. And it was a surprise. As any pastor-teacher will tell you, a few words of encouragement make him thank the Lord and want to continue on in the Lord.

We mentioned in the last Examiner of a Country Before Country conference at the church where we attend in Batavia Ohio, September 2-4. The conference was extremely well attended. It attracted around 170 primarily young men from all over the US, and who are involved in their branch of the Kingdom work. There were many more there to get encouragement as to how to better influence their areas of society for Christ. There will be another CBC conference next year. Plan now to attend. <https://www.facebook.com/countrybeforecountry/>
