Philippians 3:13

Time to Forget the Past and Reach Forth In This New Year

LOOKING AHEAD

Time: An old year is gone, and we enter into a new year. At this time of the year, we should consider some things about time.

Matthew 21:33 Hear another parable: There was a certain householder, which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a winepress in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country: 34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it. 35 And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another. 36 Again, he sent other servants more than the first: and they did unto them likewise. 37 But last of all he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son. 38 But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance. 39 And they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him.

Here is the parable of the landowner and the vineyard. The landowner planted a vineyard, hedged it about, digged a winepress in it for the harvested, built a tower for protection and then let it out to the husbandmen.

When it came time to receive the householders portion of the fruit he sent his servants to get it. The husbandmen refused to give the fruit to the servants to return to the householder. Not only did they refuse to pay the rent on the vineyard but they mistreated the servants. Beating, stoning and even killing them. Finally, the householder sent his only beloved son. “Surely” he said, “They will respect my son and give to him my share of the fruit”. But they took the son and killed him with the intention of taking the vineyard. Our Lord then put a question to his hearers. What will the householder do to those husbandmen? The religious leaders which he was talking to spoke right up. “He will come and destroy those wicked men, and give it to someone who will give the fruit to the householder.”

Our Lord then quoted an Old Testament passage:

40 When the lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen? 41 They say unto him, He will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons. 42 Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes? 43 Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof. 44 And whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

Then his hearers, the Jews, understood that he was talking about them and sought to lay hands on him, but couldn't because of the crowd.

Now, the thing that should catch our attention about this sermon is the tremendous span of time which our Lord covered here in just a few verses.

We see from, Matthew 23:34, 35 that the period of time covered by our Lord here in six verses is the period from the murder of Abel to the murder of Christ at Cavalry. This is quite an extensive period, in fact probably about four thousand years. Our Lord spoke of this period of time as though it were only a few days.

We are so used to living in "time" that we find it almost impossible to think in terms of two generations down the road. Yet, the word of God is not written in terms of one or two generations, but many generations.

Deuteronomy 20:4 Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: 5 Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; 6 And shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

The Lord speaks of four thousand years as though it were a day or two, or maybe a week. Regardless, in Matthew 21, he summed four thousand years of history into one simple illustration, and then drove the illustration right to the heart of the problem. Truth demands results. It either makes people angry or closer to God. Here, truth made these men very angry.

Another year has passed, and "it" still has not taken place

We seem to feel that if it doesn't happen within our lifetime it isn't going to take place. Or, worse yet, we feel that if everything is okay in our lifetime, everything will continue to be okay for generations to come; Hezekiah said what is in the hearts of the vast majority of Christians today, Is it not good, if peace and truth be in my days? So don't worry, be happy. 2 Kings 20:19. The result of that attitude is given Zephaniah 1:12—and punish the men that are settled on their lees: that say in their heart, the Lord will not do good, neither will he do evil.

If we can't see something take place within our lifetime, we have a very difficult time dedicating ourselves, or our energy and even the finances which God has provided to the task; it is a common malady with which we are all plagued. However, the wicked get excited over the idea of controlling the future through education, political activity, ungodly medical care, &., in order to obtain their goal of overthrowing God's law, which is meant to control the future for the Kingdom. They invest unbelievable amount amounts of finances to reach hundreds of years into the future. Marx and Lenin are two good examples, although history is full of examples. Men who knew they would not live to see their wicked devices come to pass, yet they invested every moment of their lives, every ounce of strength, every dollar they could scrape together, and others supported (and do support) their efforts which would not bear fruit for many generations. They have (and are) invested absolutely everything so that the future generations could control not only society but the world for evil.

On the other hand, it seems that Christians can see nothing but failure and wasted time, energy and money to invest in the advancement of God's kingdom into society because they cannot see immediate results.

Robert E. Lee's words,

"The truth is this: The march of Providence is so slow, and our desires so impatient; the work of progress is so immense and our means of aiding it so feeble; the life of humanity is so long, that of the individual so brief, that we often see only the ebb of the advancing wave and are thus discouraged. It is history that teaches us to hope."

We have a difficult time understanding that our investment in the Lord's kingdom now can lead to the enemy's overthrow maybe generations yet in the future. On the other hand, the enemy is fully convinced that what he invests today will further his cause many years down the road. (My wife continually reminds me that we must think past ourselves and into the generations to come.)

A New year, and looking ahead:

In I Chronicles we have the record of David's desire to build the temple to Jehovah God. God told him he could not accomplish what he desired to do for the Lord in his lifetime. Rather it would have to be his children which would do it. David of course, was disappointed, because he had his heart set on doing this great work for God, within his lifetime. But David did not allow this restriction to cause him to lay down and quit. In I Chron. 28, 29 we have some of the steps which David took to see that the Lord's work continued on. Actually we have quite a contrast between David's attitude here and Hezekiah's attitude in II Ki. 20:19.

Hezekiah's attitude was, "I'm going to die. As long as there is peace in my day, I'm happy. (This seems to be the all too prevalent attitude of our day. This attitude turned God's people over to the king of Babylon.)

David's attitude was, "I'm going to die. I didn't get done for God all I wanted to do so I am making provision for my son (Solomon) to carry on where I must leave off."

David (the man after God's own heart) definitely had his faults. But here we are shown a strength which we need to imitate. David wanted the future generations to serve God and advance His kingdom so he made provision as best as he could for them.

Quickly, we need to look at some of the provisions he made. (This is probably one of the most basic principles that we as well as new Christians must learn. We must learn to look past the effect of our decisions upon us or even our children and to the future generations. How will this present decision affect 4 generations down the road? Can we think that far ahead?)

1. Without salvation, there cannot be a godly heritage for our children. Unsaved children? why do we take it so calmly? Why are we not bothering everyone you know who might be someone of prayer to pray for those children? Don't we realize our children are our arrows into the future? Is our goal to serve God, and seek first His Kingdom? Can we expect our children to have a desire for a godly future if we do not exhibit that desire?

2. 2 Chronicles 28:7 repeats a warning and promise which started with Moses and is continued throughout scripture—be consistently toward His commandments. Be strong and consistent to do his commandments. The parents' non-consistent life can turn the child against God, and his law-word. Claiming to love God, His word, His people, His work and then not live up to those claims can be destructive to the generations to come. We must also be willing and quick to confess our shortcomings to God and to our children. (1 Jn. 1:9, Prov. 28:13, 14) Claiming to love God, then have an indifferent attitude toward the things of God can produce a double-minded child which will be unstable in all his ways. (Ja 1:8)

Example: David claimed to love the law of God with all his heart (Ps. 119), yet David took a woman who was forbidden to him. One of the first acts which Solomon did was to marry a woman who was forbidden to him, the daughter of the king of Egypt. Marriages then were seals of agreements between kingdoms.)

3. The education of our children must be in the terms of God's law. The king was to have a copy of God's law. It was to be read daily. If the child is not trained up in the way he should go in accord with the total law-word of God, they will go the way of the world. Deuteronomy 4:9 requires the parents—not the state, not the church—to teach the law-word of God not only to our children, but to our children's children. Anything less will cause the next generation to be lost to the devil's crowd. They must be trained in all the disciplines of life: agriculture, Science, Music, Art, the trades, Civil Government, Education, &c., to the glory of God.

Far more training takes place in the home than does anywhere else. The home is where the children learn proper response to situations, responsibility, honesty, character, discipline, love toward God and their fellow man, care and concern, and most of all, love toward God and his Word. The home is where respect for authority is learned. The home is where the work ethic is developed. The home is where the children find out if Christianity is real or just a matter of convenience. (Ps 127:1)

Rarely does God raise a person above his character which was developed in the home.

4. David encouraged Solomon to walk with the Lord. (1 Chron 28:20) With every stroke of David's pen, with his every breath, even his dying breath, David had one message. The only means of prosperity and success is serving God with all of our heart. Where do we place our emphasis for prosperity and/or success? Hard work, knowledge, education, (Thomas Edison finished only fourth grade. When was the last time we took Edison into consideration?)

All of these things are no doubt important, but our children can tell which is more important to us. Obeying God's word and pleasing Him for our prosperity and success; or, following after the world's methods. We are being watched especially by the young people of our church. As they make plans for their future, they will watch those who are already there. They will watch for how they got there and what they are doing now that they are there.

5. The matter of inheritance. As we read, 1 Chronicles 28 and 29 something really stands out which we not like to consider. David passed this wealth on to his son, Solomon. Not so Solomon could go do his thing. The purpose of that wealth was to build or advance the kingdom of God, 29:2.

When a parent passes the blessing, that is, the inheritance, on to an unbelieving child, or an indifferent child, or a rebellious child he blesses evil. To cut off a rebellious (against God) child is to curse that child's actions. We put our money where our mouth is.

No doubt, if God's people would quit giving or leaving their wealth to those who are either indifferent to or are against God's work, a lot of that foolishness would stop. When we give that property or those finances to that child who is cold or indifferent to God, we are blessing their indifference. When we finance those who are not supportive of the Kingdom, we become partakers in their opposition. (Matt 12:30,) Can we support (or justify) those who are against Christ? Can we support those who are scattering abroad in opposition to Him? These are strong words from our Lord, but he makes it very clear. If a person is not seeking to advance the cause of Christ, they are against the cause of Christ.

Let me add. It isn't really the heathen, God hating, Christ-rejecting crowd that is destroying society. If there is any truth which stands out in the Old Testament prophets it is that judgment came because of the indifference of God's people. When we leave our wealth to those who are indifferent to the cause of Christ, we are supporting the very ones who are bringing God's judgment upon this nation we love.

Our allegiance is to the Law of the Lord, not to our emotions, particularly toward our children. (Matt 11:34-37, 10:34-38)

WHEN WE GIVE OUR FINANCES TO THOSE WHO ARE NOT ACTIVELY ENGAGED IN SEEKING FIRST HIS KINGDOM, WE ARE FINANCING ITS OVERTHROW.

** Our goal should be like David. He laid up his wealth to support the following generations so they could fulfill their responsibility to build the kingdom of God. God has not given and will not give us prosperity to consume it upon our own lusts. We will have to give an account for that consumption to God. His blessings come as we use what he has provided for his glory in accordance with his Word. Blessings upon us and upon society.

Let us reason together for a moment. No doubt one of the greatest dangers in Christianity today is the loss of reality. The reality of CAUSE and EFFECT. Folks no longer connect the two, but they cannot be separated. We must try to instill in our children (no matter how old) the law of cause and effect. If they are going to pursue their own lusts, they must learn that there is an effect, if not now, it will be there waiting for them. There is a price to pay for pursuing our own thing. What incentive is there if they can pursue their own lusts and still be supported in that pursuit by their parents? There is no incentive to turn from their wickedness.

The parable of the prodigal son is about forgiveness. It is about genuine repentance, so let us not make the Lord say something he did not say. No godly heirs? Then scripturally, we should rewrite our will or trust and leave the property or finances for the advancement of the kingdom of God, to advance the cause of Christ. Anything less is to pay for the destruction of the kingdom of God by supporting those who have no interest in His kingdom work.

We are living in a country and enjoying the freedoms for which godly men stood for 300 years ago as they did everything in terms of the many generations to come according to God's law. We will answer to God whether we financed those who were for Christ and his work, or those who were indifferent, or even against His Kingdom.

I'll be gone; therefore, I will not be responsible for how the inheritance I leave will be used, will not hold water with the Lord. We need to take the funds provided by God for the cause of Christ out of the hands of those who are indifferent to Christ.

6: There is the necessity of seeing that there is a godly civil government for our children and then training them to keep it godly, Hosea chp. 8. 7: There is the absolute necessity of speaking out and standing against evil and wickedness and teaching our children the necessity of speaking out and how to do it. This speaking out against the evil of society in the terms of God's law-word is required. John the Baptist did this and it cost him his head. (See Deut 22:1-4, Prov 24:10-12, Ezek 3 and 33, Ps. 50:18.) Hosea 5:11 and Jeremiah.

15:4 speaks of God's judgment against His people who would not stand against the evils around them. They failed to use God's word to expose evil.

There are several more areas which we won't pursue because of time. In conclusion we need to see the principle involved.

1. The anti-christ crowd is totally committed to their goal of overthrowing God and His word. Their goal is a long term goal. Started on this side of the flood by Nimrod at Babel.

2. They will dedicate all of their heart, soul, mind and strength to this goal, as well as their (and our) children and all of their wealth. Nothing will stop them, or discourage them from their goal to overthrow God. They know that they will not see success in their life-time but they press on by faith. Their commitment to free society (their children) from the confines of Christianity (God's word) is total. They have set everything that money can buy into action and by faith they believe that one day they will succeed. Succeed in freeing society (through the children) from the bands and cords of God's law (Ps. 2). To them this will be paradise on earth.

We as Christians should be at least as dedicated in seeing that the bands and cords of God's law remain in effect. We know that these bands and cords represent freedom and life. Freedom to do right and protection of life. With the loss of the foundation of God's laws in society, our children's children will not be safe on the streets.

Some time ago, I watched "Larry King Live" on CNN concerning the "worm" in the computers. One of his guests made this point. It is absolutely impossible to prevent this from taking place again apart from a policeman on every computer terminal. It must be a moral training. They have taught an "a-moral" education and now the results are starting to come to pass.

They will lose the freedom to follow God and righteousness as they feel God would have them to do will be gone; the freedom to raise their children as the word of God demands will be gone as it is already in a large portion of the world.

Worst of all, the indifference toward God and the cause of Christ which we permit in our lives and in the lives of the following generations will bring the judgment of God. To the wicked who want to pursue wickedness, His laws are restraints and death.

This warfare for the future is fought by faith. The wicked have faith that breaking the bands will result in paradise. They are investing all into this warfare. The righteous must fight the war by faith also. We must have faith that God's law represents God's requirements on mankind. As His laws are obeyed, the fruit is given to the householder. We must be dedicated to our faith or face the results. (Truth or consequences. Either the truth applied for the future or face the consequences.)

The warfare is for the future, which is why the socialists fight so hard for the upcoming generation through day-care centers and educational facilities of all kinds. We must have a God oriented vision of the future. We must work for future generations who will love the law of God (Ps 119) and rejoice in keeping it.

The wicked are winning this war because they are willing to invest everything in their desire to control the future. They have no problem putting plans into operation which may take hundreds of years to fulfill. God's people must also learn to plan with hundreds of years (many generations) in mind. If we don't, it will all be turned over to the world and the anti-christ by default and we and our following generations will pay the price.

God's people have an extremely difficult time seeing the need to set very long term goals into action (Lack of savings shows this). We have a very difficult time seeing the need to make a sacrifice now that will not see results for maybe 3 or 4 generations.

We have great problems seeing how such long term goals could possible work out. It seems so foolish. We have lost the faith of Hebrews 11, these all died not having obtained the promise. Our faith in the future which once made Christianity so powerful has been destroyed.

The faith once delivered to the Saints must be renewed. Debt has done its dirty work. Debt destroys that faith. "I want it now, pay later." Rather than the scriptural way, “I’ll plan now for what I want to see accomplished later.” What has happened to our faith in the future?

The promise that was for Solomon and is for us, is found in 1 Chronicles. 28:7 Moreover, I will establish his kingdom forever, if he be constant to do my commandments and my judgments, as at this day.

We need to ask God to give us a Biblical view of the future; to reset our sights and priorities; to enable us to see past our lifetime and even our childrens’ lifetime. We must rethink our outlook and have it changed to, “How can I apply the principles of God’s word so it will benefit my great-great grandchildren? What can I set in motion which, with God’s blessings can influence many generations for Christ and advance his kingdom?

It will take a supernatural work to overcome years of short-sightedness, but God’s grace will supply the needed glasses if we are willing to confront our failure.

3. God’s people must realize that we are responsible for the funds which God has provided for us. We are to be good stewards. This responsibility does not stop at death but plans are to be made to see that God’s funds will continue within his godly cause. The inheritance MUST GO TO GODLY CAUSES, whether to the godly children or godly institutions. We are only stewards.

STAND WE MUST

As We Enter Our Own 1776 Moment, Christian Leaders Must Make a Stand

By Bob Shillingstad, 12/23/21

“Our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other.” — John Adams

The French and American revolutions happened within a dozen years of one another, yet they centered on two very different concepts of individual liberty.

For the French, the goal was to ensure political equality. For the Americans, it was personal independence. This distinction helps shed light on what made the outcomes of the two revolutions so different.

To understand the American Revolution, we have to go back to the period between 1730 and 1750 when a religious revival spread across the colonies.

It began with Johnathon Edwards, John and Charles Wesley and an amazing evangelist by the name of George Whitfield. Whitfield delivered 18,000 sermons, and it has been estimated that over 80 percent of the colonists heard him preach. Many historians admit that there would not have been a revolution without this “Great Awakening.”

We think of the Boston Tea Party and slogans like “no taxation without representation” as the key rallying cries of the American Revolution. Although they spoke to the issues, these were not the root causes.

Pastors had begun preaching about individual liberty, rights granted by God and natural law. In fact, you can find phrases in our Declaration of Independence taken directly from sermons given during that period.

The British called these pastors the “Black Regiment” (later known as the Black Robe Regiment) and knew they were the enemy. They were not organized but were united in preaching religious liberty. Churches were burned and pastors jailed for saying that rights did not come from a king or government but only from God.

The French Revolution was totally different. During his despotic period of leadership, Maximilien Robespierre went so far as to create the Cult of the Supreme Being, a state religion based on secularism. This was part of Robespierre’s revolutionary program to completely destroy France’s Roman Catholic tradition in pursuit of an ambiguous “political equality” amongst the masses.

China, Russia and our allies are laughing at us. They know our moral strength is gone. Our allies realize they must separate from us, and China and Russia are going to press the advantage to the hilt.

Instead of fighting for freedom like our Founding Fathers did, Robespierre was more concerned with destroying all features of French civic society in the name of progress.

In a cruel twist of irony, Robespierre and his Committee of Public Safety behaved just like the previous French monarch. For that reason, the French Revolution turned into a chaotic murder spree that saw tens of thousands of people executed at the guillotine for opposing Robespierre's vision. Hundreds of priests and nuns were killed and any vestige of Christian influence was abolished.

One historian noted that the only thing we can learn from history is that we don't learn from history. Tyrannical governments have enslaved people and demanded obedience for thousands of years. Most recently, we have watched Stalin, Hitler, Mao Zedong, Castro, Pol Pot and many others take power and suppress the church. They had to have total control and no competition.

Many are familiar with Dietrich Bonhoeffer, a brave pastor living in Germany under Hitler. Eric Metaxas, who wrote a best-selling biography of Bonhoeffer, recently said this about America as compared to Germany in the 1930s:

"Probably the principled similarity has to do with religious freedom. In Bonhoeffer's day, before his eyes, a robustly Christian nation was swiftly secularized by a powerful government. The church was divided and didn't know what to make of it and they didn't respond as they should have. So the church was overwhelmed by the state, and for all intents and purposes eventually ceased to exist."

The political, academic and media elites around the world are leveraging the chaos and confusion of the coronavirus pandemic and using them to radically alter society. The religious attacks are obvious. Christians who push back are vilified. Any defense of natural law or our freedoms under the Bill of Rights is ignored or under outright attack.

Are we at a 1776 moment or 1789? Do we have pastors and Christian leaders with the courage to speak up and be labeled the Black Robe Regiment?

It is not hyperbole to state that we are in the most critical time in our history since the Civil War. America is the last, best hope for Western civilization. Politicians are not the answer. The answer is the truth of the Bible and leaders who are not afraid to proclaim it.

There was a Second Great Awakening in the early 1800s, and one of its leaders was Charles Finney. His words resound today:

"Christ crucified for the sins of the world is the Christ that the people need. ... If immorality prevails in the land, the fault is ours in a great degree. If there is a decay of conscience, the pulpit is responsible for it. If the public press lacks moral discrimination, the pulpit is responsible for it. If the church is degenerate and worldly, the pulpit is responsible for it. If the world loses its interest in religion, the pulpit is responsible for it. If Satan rules in our halls of legislation, the pulpit is responsible for it. If our politics become so corrupt that the very foundations of our government are ready to fall away, the pulpit is responsible for it. Let us not ignore this fact, my dear brethren; but let us lay it to heart, and be thoroughly awake to our responsibility in respect to the morals of this nation."

Law of Justice

SUSPECT'S PARENTS CHARGED

IN MICHIGAN SCHOOL SHOOTING

A prosecutor has filed involuntary manslaughter charges against the parents of a 15-year-old accused of killing four students and wounding seven other people at a Michigan high school

THE LAW

The law in Exodus 21:28-32 tells us that even animals are responsible in the sight of God, as is the owner who did not keep the animal confined. (How many dogs have injured people, and the owners are not held responsible.) Therefore, the parents are responsible for the child if nothing is done to curb the delinquent child. Just as the ox and its owner are responsible for its action regardless of its age, so are the delinquent child and parents always responsible regardless of the child's age.

The owner of the animal either paid the penalty with his life, or paid an indemnity. This law applies to an ox, so how much does it apply to a child and his parents? Sin, punishment and restitution is not defined by personal feelings, but always according to God's law.

GLOBAL COUP

Italian Archbishop Vigano sent a message to the American people. He continues to speak out against the globalist threat this Christmas season.

“A Global Coup Has Been Carried Out Across the World – Has Destroyed the Very Foundations of the Rule of Law”

Archbishop Vigano's Message to America

MESSAGE TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

DEAR AMERICAN PEOPLE, DEAR FRIENDS, for two years now, a global coup has been carried out all over the world, planned for some time by an elite group of conspirators enslaved to the interests of international high finance. This coup was made possible by an emergency pandemic that is based on the premise of a virus that has a mortality rate almost analogous to that of any other seasonal flu virus, on the delegitimization and prohibition of effective treatments, and on the distribution of an experimental gene serum which is obviously ineffective, and which also clearly carries with it the danger of serious and even lethal side effects. We all know how much the mainstream media has contributed to supporting the insane pandemic narrative, the interests that are at stake, and the goals of these groups of power: reducing the world population, making those who survive chronically ill, and imposing forms of control that violate the fundamental rights and natural liberties of citizens. And yet, two years after this grotesque farce started, which has claimed more victims than a war and destroyed the social fabric, national economies, and the very foundations of the rule of law, nothing has changed in the policies of Nations and their response to the so-called pandemic.

Last year, when many still had not yet understood the gravity of the looming threat, I was among the first to denounce this coup, and I was promptly singled out as a conspiracy theorist. Today more and more people are opening their eyes and beginning to understand that the emergency pandemic and the “ecological emergency” are part of a criminal plan hatched by the World Economic Forum, the UN, the WHO, and a galaxy of organizations and foundations that are ideologically characterized as clearly anti-human and – this needs to be said clearly – anti-Christian.

One of the elements that unequivocally confirms the criminal nature of the Great Reset is the perfect synchrony with which all the different Nations are acting, demonstrating the existence of a single script under a single direction. And it is disconcerting to see how the lack of treatment, the deliberately wrong treatments that have been given in order to cause more deaths, the decision to impose lockdowns and masks, the conspiratorial silence about the adverse effects of the so-called “vaccines” that are in fact gene serums, and the continuous repetition of culpable errors have all been possible thanks to the complicity of those who govern and the institutions. Political and religious leaders, representatives of the people, scientists and doctors, journalists and those who work in the media have literally betrayed their people, their laws, their Constitutions, and the most basic ethical principles

The electoral fraud of the 2020 presidential election against President Trump has shown itself to be organic to this global operation, because in order to impose illegitimate restrictions in violation of the principles of law it was necessary to be able to make use of an American President who would support the psycho-pandemic and support its narrative. The Democratic Party, part of the deep state, is carrying out its task as an accomplice of the system, just as the deep church finds in Bergoglio its own propagandist. The recent rulings of the Supreme Court and the autonomous action of some American states – where the vaccination obligation has been declared unconstitutional – give us hope that this criminal plan can collapse and that those responsible will be identified and tried: both in America as well as in the whole world.

How was it possible to arrive at such a betrayal? How have we come to be considered enemies by those who govern us, not in support of the common good, but rather to feed a hellish machine of death and slavery?

The answer is now clear: throughout the world, in the name of a perverted concept of freedom, we have progressively erased God from society and laws. We have denied that there is an eternal and transcendent principle, valid for all men of all times, to which the laws of States must conform. We have replaced this absolute principle with the arbitrariness of individuals, with the principle that everyone is his own legislator. In the name of this insane freedom – which is license and libertinage – we have allowed the Law of God and the law of nature to be violated, legitimizing the killing of children in the womb, even up to the very moment of birth; the killing of the sick and the elderly in hospital wards; the destruction of the natural family and of Marriage; we have recognized rights to vice and sin, putting the deviations of individuals before the good of society. In short, we have subverted the entire moral order that constitutes the indispensable basis of the laws and social life of a people. Already in the fourth century B.C., Plato wrote these things in his last work the Laws and identified the cause of the Athenian political crisis precisely in the breaking of the divine order – the cosmos – between these eternal principles and human laws.

These natural moral principles of the Greco-Roman world found their fulfillment in Christianity, which built Western civilization by giving them a supernatural impetus. Christianity is the strongest defense against injustice, the strongest garrison against the oppression of the powerful over the weak, the violent over the peaceful, and the wicked over the good, because Christian morality makes each of us accountable to God and our neighbor for our actions, both as citizens and as rulers. The Son of God, whose Birth we will celebrate in a few days, became Incarnate in time and in history in order to heal an ancient wound, and to restore by Grace the order broken by disobedience. His social Kingship was the generating principle of the ordo Christianus that for two centuries now has been fiercely fought against by Freemasonry: because the Revolution it promotes is chaos; it is disorder; it is infernal rebellion against the divine order so as to impose Satan's tyranny. Now, as we see what is happening around us, we understand how mendacious were the promises of progress and freedom made by those who destroyed Christian society, and how deceptive was the prospect of a new Tower of Babel, built not only without regard for God but even in direct opposition to Him. The infernal challenge of the Enemy is repeated over the centuries unchanged, but it is doomed to inexorable failure. Behind this millennial conspiracy, the adversary is always the same, and the only thing that changes are the particular individuals who cooperate with him.

Dear American brothers and sisters! Dear Patriots! this is a crucial moment for the future of the United States of America and of the whole of humanity. But the pandemic emergency, the farce of global warming and the green economy, and the economic crisis deliberately induced by the Great Reset with the complicity of the deep state, are all only the consequence of a much more serious problem, and it is essential to understand it in depth if we want to defeat it. This problem is essentially moral; indeed, it is religious. We must put God back in the first place not only in our personal lives, but also in the life of our society. We must restore to Our Lord Jesus Christ the Crown that the Revolution has torn from Him, and in order for this to happen a true and profound conversion of individuals and of society is necessary. For it is absolutely impossible to hope for the end of this global tyranny if we continue to remove from the Kingdom of Christ the nations that belong to Him and must belong to Him. For this reason, the movement to overturn Roe v. Wade also acquires a very important meaning, since respect for the sacredness of unborn life must be sanctioned by positive law if it is to be a mirror of the Eternal Law.

You are animated by a yearning for justice, and this is a legitimate and good desire. "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness," says the Lord (Mt 5:6). But this Justice must be based on the awareness that this is a spiritual battle in which it is necessary to take sides without equivocation and without compromise, holding transcendent and eternal references that even the pagan philosophers glimpsed, and that have found fulfillment in the Revelation of the Son of God, the Divine Master.

My appeal for an Anti-Globalist Alliance – which I renew today – aims precisely to constitute a movement of moral and spiritual rebirth which will inspire the civil, social and political action of those who do not want to be enslaved as slaves to the New World Order. A movement that at the national and local level will be able to find a way to oppose the Great Reset and that coordinates the denunciation of the coup that is currently in progress. Because in the awareness of who our adversary is and what his aims and purposes are, we can disrupt the criminal action he intends to pursue and force him to retreat. In this, the opposition to the pandemic farce and the vaccination obligation must be determined and courageous on the part of each of you.

Yours must therefore be a work of truth, bringing to light the lies and deceptions of the New World Order and their anti-human and antiChristi matrix. And in this it is mainly the laity and all people of good will – each in the professional and civil role he holds – who must coordinate and organize together to make a firm but peaceful resistance, so as not to legitimize its violent repression by those who today hold power.

Be proud of your identity as American patriots and of the Faith that must animate your life. Do not allow anyone to make you feel inferior just because you love your homeland, because you are honest at work, because you want to protect your family and raise your children with healthy values, because you respect the elderly, because you protect life from conception to its natural end. Do not be intimidated or seduced by those who propagate a dystopian world in which a faceless power imposes on you contempt for the Law of God, presents sin and vice as licit and desirable, despises righteousness and Morality, destroys the natural family and promotes the worst perversions, plans the death of defenseless and weak creatures, and exploits humanity for its own profit or to preserve power.

Be worthy heirs of the great Archbishop Fulton Sheen, and do not follow those of your Pastors who have betrayed the mandate they have received from Our Lord, who impose iniquitous orders on you or who remain silent before the evidence of an unheard of crime against God and humanity.

May this Holy Christmas illuminate your minds and inflame your hearts before the Infant King who lays in the manger. And just as the choirs of the Angels and the homage of the Magi united with the simple adoration of the Shepherds, so also today your commitment to the moral rebirth of the United States of America – one Nation under God – will have the blessing of Our Lord and will gather those who govern you around you. Amen.

May God bless you, and may God bless the United States of America.

WORSE UNINTENDED CONSEQUENCES OF mRNA SHOTS

Analysis by Dr. Joseph Mercola

Note: Dr. Mercola's articles are now on a timer. They vanish after 36 hours, I believe. Mercola's article has many footnotes to scientific papers, that only a doctor can comprehend. I downloaded this PDF, so if you want a copy, let me know.

STORY AT-A-GLANCE

* "Worse Than the Disease: Reviewing Some Possible Unintended Consequences of mRNA Vaccines Against COVID-19," by Stephanie Seneff, Ph.D., and Dr. Greg Nigh, is one of the most comprehensive descriptions of the many possible unintended consequences of the mRNA gene transfer technologies incorrectly referred to as "COVID vaccines"

* As of December 3, 2021, the U.S. Vaccine Adverse Event Reporting System (VAERS) has logged 19,886 COVID jab related deaths. Pfizer — the only company that the U.S. Food and Drug Administration has granted full licensing for an as-yet unavailable COVID shot — accounts for 13,268 of them

* Calculations suggest VAERS COVID-related reports are underreported by a factor of 41. That means that in the U.S. alone, the actual death toll may be closer to 374,576. Including international deaths reported to VAERS would put the death toll at 815,326

* Key side effects that are now being reported in massive numbers include miscarriages, heart attacks, myocarditis, thrombocytopenia (low platelet count), shingles, Bell's palsy and a variety of permanent disabilities, many of which involve neurological dysfunction

* The side effects we now see being reported were entirely predictable based on the known science detailed in Seneff's and Nigh's paper

mRNA Jabs Are Shockingly Hazardous

As of December 3, 2021, the U.S. Vaccine Adverse Event Reporting System (VAERS) has logged an astounding 927,738 COVID jab related adverse events, including 19,886 deaths. VAERS can receive reports from vaccine manufacturers and other international sources, and if we exclude those, the death toll reported in U.S. territories exclusively stands at 9,136. ...

ENCOURAGEMENT

One of the Lamb boys married one of our granddaughters, so, obviously, we are getting to know the Lamb family. Talking with Mr. Lamb, he mentioned his "OnlineFarmMarket." I asked him to give me a rundown of what is going on. Here it is:

Online Farm Markets was inspired by my computer programming background, my sons' interest in market gardening, and the concepts of entrepreneurship and decentralization that I learned through Kevin Swanson and others. The purpose of OFM is to provide a service to homesteaders and small farm owners so they can sell their produce, meats and craft items to their local communities.

It allows them to spend most of their time in the areas where they have expertise, and less time learning to build a state of the art e-commerce site tailored towards the unique needs of homesteaders. Customers can order and pay for their items through the site, and the market owner receives pick lists and packing lists. The site also handles under or over-payments and has the ability to issue store credit.

One feature that I haven't see elsewhere for homesteader sites is the Growing plan that is 5% of sales. Part of the purpose of this is to encourage young entrepreneurs. If they only sell $50 worth of goat milk soap in a month, for instance, they can have a professional online store that only costs them $2.50/month.

HOW DO SOME CATHOLIC PRIESTS SEE WHAT MOST EVANGELICAL PASTORS DON'T SEE?

By Chuck Baldwin, December 16, 2021

One of the most mysterious paradoxes of the modern church is how most evangelical pastors can be so deaf and dumb when it comes to the Biblical Natural Law principles of Liberty. And nothing illustrates that reality any more graphically than the way most evangelical pastors have rolled over and played dead regarding the anti-christ Covid narrative. As I have said before in this column, most of the resistance to Fauci's fascism is coming from outside the church. On the whole, the evangelical church has submitted to the beastly Covid Empire lock, stock and barrel.

By submitting to the beastly Covid narrative, evangelicals have demonstrated that 1) They have zero awareness and discernment regarding all things antichrist and 2) They have zero resistance to all things antichrist. This means that in their heart of hearts, they have already submitted to the spirit of antichrist.

This is in spite of the fact that evangelicals claim a born-again relationship with Jesus Christ, which if true, would mean that they would be indwelled with the Holy Spirit, Who Jesus said would "guide [them] into all truth." (John 16:13) Certainly, this Holy Spirit instruction would reveal the system of antichrist to them.

I have brought several messages over the past 21 months showing from the Scriptures how the Covid narrative is a devilish, beastly, antichrist system.

In my mind, any pastor or Christian who does NOT see the antichrist nature of the Covid narrative is more than blind; he or she is spiritually blind, which casts much doubt on their spiritual confession.

To make it even more perplexing, there are several outspoken anti-Covid narrative priests, bishops and cardinals from the Catholic Church who are courageously resisting the draconian Covid system.

It is a very strange and very sad day when leaders from a false religious system have more understanding regarding the God-given Natural liberties of man than do leaders from within Christian orthodoxy.

Story Number One

A German cardinal has sparked controversy by claiming that the coronavirus pandemic has been used by the likes of George Soros and Bill Gates to create a global "surveillance state."

The Covid-19 pandemic has sparked "chaos" and "turmoil" stemming not only from the "lacking knowledge" about the transmissibility and danger of the virus itself, but from the will of the super-rich to "snatch an opportunity to bring people in line," Gerhard Ludwig Mueller said in an interview with Austria's St. Boniface Institute last week. He is a high-ranking judge at the Vatican court.

The world's financial elites are now using the pandemic and the measures governments take to fight the spread of the virus to subject people to "total control" and establish a global "surveillance state," he added. The St. Boniface published a video showing a small part of the interview and the cardinal has since confirmed to the German dpa news agency that the footage is genuine.

"People, who sit on the throne of their wealth," see an "opportunity to push through their agenda," the cardinal said, naming Microsoft co-founder Bill Gates, billionaire George Soros and the head of the Davos Economic Forum, Klaus Schwab, among those behind the alleged global control scheme.

The cardinal then accused the global financial elites of an attempt to bring forth "a new man" created "in their own image and likeness," adding that he would not wish such a fate on himself. "That has nothing to do with democracy," the former Regensburg bishop, who once headed the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, said.

Ask yourself, dear evangelical friend, have you heard your pastor say anything like this—even once? If not, why are you still attending a church with such an obviously politically controlled and spiritually silenced pastor?

Story Number Two

A Catholic priest has slammed vaccine mandates from the pulpit, saying that "no earthly king or president... gets to dictate what we must put into our bodies."

Addressing his congregation at Christ the King Church in Towson, Maryland, Father Edward Meeks of the Ordinariate of the Chair of Saint Peter used Catholic doctrine to defend the right of bodily autonomy through his homily.

Speaking on the feast of Christ the King, November 21, Meeks reminded the congregation that "you and I belong to another realm, another kingdom. This earthly kingdom, this earthly realm is not our home; it is part of our journey."

Mentioning the "ongoing conflict" within the human being, Meeks noted that in saying that "Jesus is our Lord and King, what we're saying is that we owe our allegiance and our loyalty first and foremost to Him and to His kingdom."

"So then how does this principle work itself out in our daily lives, practically speaking?" he asked rhetorically.

Drawing from Scripture, Fr. Meeks defended the right of individuals to refuse forced medical intervention, saying that the body must be cared for since it is a "temple of the Holy Spirit":

Our King tells us in His written word that our bodies ... are temples of the Holy Spirit. First Corinthians, 6:19: "Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, which you have from God? You are not your own, you were bought with a price, so glorify God in your body."

Do you believe that? Do you believe that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit? Do you take it seriously?

Among all the other things that that implies – if you do, if you do take it seriously – is this: that no earthly king or president or public health official or billionaire technocrat gets to dictate what we must put into our bodies – into these temples of the Holy Spirit.

For decades, I have been flummoxed by the inability (or unwillingness) of evangelicals to understand the evil, conspiratorial nature of our Enemy. If God would warn the prophets, priests and people of Old Testament Israel of the evil conspiracies of the Enemy in that day (Ezekiel 22:25 – 29; II Samuel 15:12; Jeremiah 11:9) and if evil conspiracies are noted taking place against the Early Church (Acts 23:13), are we to think that that same diabolical Enemy has abandoned his evil treacheries in our day? Such a proposition is utter foolishness!

For the past 21 months, our Arch-Enemy has been manipulating the medical and pharmaceutical industries, including hospital officials, local health boards and health officers, educational systems, including school teachers and principals, the major media, Big Business and politicians from both parties to launch the most diabolical and devilish antichrist system of our lifetimes. And the vast majority of evangelical pastors don't even see it.

Then again, these same evangelical pastors do not see the diabolical, devilish nature of Zionist Israel either. Maybe that explains it. I am willing to bet that the Catholic priests, bishops and cardinals referenced in this column also understand the sinister evil nature of Zionist Israel. That is not a coincidence.

The blindness of evangelicals to the antichrist system known as Zionism has blinded their eyes to many things, including the antichrist nature of the Covid Empire. (Jerry Fallwell was purchased by the Zionists, ed.)

A WORKMAN MUST STUDY

Introduction

The lack of Bible knowledge among those who profess to believe the bible is appalling. Is it any wonder that so many “believers” are swept along by emotion, nice sounding words, &c.?

We should be greatly distressed over the numbers of pastors and religious leaders who have not even read God’s Word through at least one time, yet they profess that they believe the Bible from cover to cover. (I had one pastor tell me that he did not know if he had read the Scriptures through even one time, but he does read with his family every day.) The same is true of the average believer who may be trying to establish his doctrine from various books outside of Scripture. Example: One may establish his Calvinistic doctrine by reading what others said. Admittedly, it is much easier to search others for a particular doctrine rather than search for ourselves through the whole of God’s law-word. True and pure doctrine comes only from God’s word, not from the pulpit, men we respect, books, nor from word of mouth. How many claim to believe the 5 Solas, yet have never read the entire Word of God through for himself? Before one studies what others say, he should have his belief established for himself by Scripture Alone.

2 Timothy 2:15 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. 1 Peter 3:15 But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear:

Suggestions on HOW TO STUDY

There are many who feel that their way of proving they’re a Christian and love God is to spend a certain amount of time every day in devotional books or in reading the Bible, and in prayer. Hence, reading scripture and prayer can easily become rituals which may make us feel sanctimonious. However, the purpose of reading Scripture is to learn what God has in His law for each of us, and then apply those laws to every area of life and thought. The more we grow in our obedience to the law, the more we grow in sanctification, and in pleasing God. Be ye holy, for I am holy. Holiness is the result of applying the law of God. Reading scripture is

NOT to see how much we can read nor how fast we can get through the entire Scripture. It is far better to read one chapter a day and get something from it than to read many chapters a day and not get anything except a spiritual feeling, i.e., self-devised devotion.

One should read the entire Bible as one book, one page after another. Here are some attitudes that should be present if one desires that the Lord to teach him.

1. Must be teachable, and even plead with God to re-teach if required. I have found Psalms 119 very instructive in how to pray as one reads:

V. 12 Blessed art thou, O LORD: teach me thy statutes.

V. 26 I have declared my ways, and thou heardest me: teach me thy statutes.

V. 33 HE. Teach me, O LORD, the way of thy statutes; and I shall keep it unto the end.

V. 64 The earth, O LORD, is full of thy mercy: teach me thy statutes.

V. 66 Teach me good judgment and knowledge: for I have believed thy commandments.

V. 68 Thou art good, and doest good; teach me thy statutes.

V. 108 Accept, I beseech thee, the freewill offerings of my mouth, O LORD, and teach me thy judgments.

V. 124 Deal with thy servant according unto thy mercy, and teach me thy statutes.

V. 135 Make thy face to shine upon thy servant; and teach me thy statutes.

[My favorite Psalms 119 passage is 98 Thou through thy commandments hast made me wiser than mine enemies: for they are ever with me. 99 I have more understanding than all my teachers: for thy testimonies are my meditation. 100 I understand more than the ancients, because I keep thy precepts.]

2. One must be willing and able to lay aside any preconceived notions and teachings. No matter how respected the teacher might have been, nor how emotionally attached to or committed we are to a pet doctrine, if it is not according to God’s entire word, it must be abandoned.

Philippians 3:15 Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.

If one is not willing, even anxious to be taught by God’s Spirit from His word, then he might as well leave Scripture alone, and continue serving the god of self.

Here are suggestions given by my pastor to the church in the 1970s. (Following these suggestions started my journey to where the Lord now has me.)

Keep a note book with your Bible. Maybe make the note book small, about the size of your Bible, so you can easily keep it with your Bible. At beginning of a Bible chapter, put the chapter name and date, e.g., Jeremiah 12, April 7, 1999 (the date I first put this article together). To make it easier to keep track of, use a new page per chapter.

Here is a list of things to look for. Keep the list in the notebook, and number each paragraph accordingly. Write out what stands out to you, particularly in your present situation. [Date: ___ Passage: ___]

- 1) Sin to avoid, or sin to confess and forsake.
- 2) Promise to claim.
- 3) Example to follow.
- 4) Command to obey.
- 5) Lesson to learn, or new truth to note.
- 6) Question to be answered. Take the time to look up at least one thing in the passage you have questions about.
- 7) Something to pray about.
- 8) Verse to memorize or meditate on (write it out).
- 9) Decision to make.

Obviously, not every point will be addressed in you passage, but get something out of it. As you read, remember three things:

- 1) the context of the passage.
- 2) to whom is the passage is directed. To whom is the Lord speaking.
- 3) the spiritual and historical situation that is being dealt with by the passage.

Example 1: 1 Corinthians 7 was written to believers who would very shortly enter into the Great Tribulation of Matthew 24. Caring for a wife during that time could be very daunting, so Paul advises to hold off marriage if possible.

Though many Scripture passages were unique instructions for specific situations within the above three points, every passage has an application for Christians for all time. In other words, look for the basic teaching of a passage, and do not make it say something that neither the context nor author is saying. Do not torture the Word of God to make Him say something He does not say. (2 Peter 3:16)

Example 2: In Matthew 18:21 & 22 the Lord is teaching forgiveness, compassion and pity. He is not telling us that we must forgive those who owe us money, have lied to us, who have defrauded us, or who refuse to confess their sin against us. (Luke 17:4) Clearly, genuine repentance, turning about, is required for forgiveness from God and from man, Proverbs 28:13.

3. Is it God's will

1. The word of God must approve the action or decision.
2. The door must be open; that is, circumstances. Ideal circumstances cannot be the only measure of a decision.
3. The still, small voice; Godly peace in the heart.

Theological books are fine, but they must not establish our various doctrines. Only the entire Law-Word of God has the authority to tell us what to believe and how to act.

I pray that the above will encourage you to study and let God direct your steps into all truth.

GIVING THANKS TO GOD

By Dr. H. Rondel Rumburg

“And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him” Col. 3:17.

An essential element in honoring God and living happily is thanksgiving. It is a necessity in the human life. Harvests were celebrated by times of thanksgiving. Deliverances were celebrated by times of thanksgiving. Paul, whom the Lord chose to write our text, was familiar with giving thanks to God. Thanks is not something which is automatic in a fallen world. It must be given! Thanksgiving is an attitude of the Christian life.

Paul in different places in the inspired writings gave reasons for giving thanks to God in a vast array of areas. First, he was thankful for his daily bread (Acts 27:35). Second, he gave thanks for the faith of other saints (Rom. 1:8). Third, he gave thanks for being caused to triumph in Christ (2 Cor. 2:14). Fourth, he gave thanks for deliverance from temptation (Rom. 7:25). Fifth, he gave thanks for the memory of friends (Phil. 1:3). Sixth, he gave thanks for kindnesses in the day of trouble (Acts 28:15). And seventh, he gave thanks for Christ the “unspeakable gift” (2 Cor. 9:15).

Consider the context of our verse in verses 12-17. In verse 17 Paul tells us what is “most efficacious to regulate our life in holiness and the fear of God” (John Davenant). “Whatsoever ye do in word or deed” is a very comprehensive statement. It encompasses preaching or teaching the word of truth as it is in Christ, in hearing and learning the word of truth, in singing psalms, hymns and spiritual songs, in human relations whether personal, family, local church or civil, or in the practice of things normal, spiritual, physical, ethical, etc. Everything, which is done in word or deed, is to be done for the glory of God. And whatsoever is done must be all done “in the name of the Lord Jesus” and this means under His authority, with His strength, in the assurance of His love, according to His mind (that is the mind of Christ), in His spirit (Eph. 5:20), and all done for the glory of God. Absolutely everything in life is to be done in the light of the revelation of our Lord. It will then be harmonic with that word.

The words, “Giving thanks to God and the Father by Him” tells us how we are to conduct ourselves toward our God. The latter part of verse 17 concerns us with three things, [1] the meaning of thanks, [2] the method of thanks, and [3] the mediator of thanks.

FIRST, THE MEANING OF THANKS.

What does it mean? [1] “Thanks” (eucharistountes) means to be grateful or express gratitude to God as an act of worship. The root word expresses the feelings of joy or that which causes rejoicing. It expressed an attitude of great joy culminating in thanksgiving. This is the Greek word primarily used to express thanksgiving to God. [2] Thanksgiving to God is a necessary and permanent element in the Christian life (Eph. 5:20), and it is God’s will (1 Thess. 5:18). There is no way to pray without it (Col. 4:2; Phil. 4:6; 1 Tim. 2:1). [3] This is the word which is the key to our enjoyment, for “thanks” is a necessity to joy “otherwise we are inferior to the brute animals” (Davenant). “For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving: for it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer” (1 Tim. 4:4-5).

How is it manifested? [1] Thanksgiving must be done in spirit or with the heart. Words are not sufficient. Gratitude must well up in the heart for thanks to be properly given. [2] Thanksgiving must be given with the deep sense of our personal unworthiness as the twenty-four elders demonstrated it when they cast down their crowns and fell on their faces (Rev. 4:9-11; 7:12). [3] Thanksgiving must be a perpetual duty. If we must pray without ceasing and thanks is a necessary part of prayer it stands to reason we must give thanks without ceasing (Eph. 5:20; Rev. 7:12).

SECOND, THE WAY OF THANKS.

We shall see that thanks [1] must be given, and [2] must be given to God the Father.

Thanks Must be Given—“giving thanks.” [1] The text made this clear for Paul spoke of “giving” thanks. You cannot “take” thanks any more than you can take love. Thanks, should be cheerfully given in order to mean anything, just as God loves a cheerful giver, even so He loves a cheerful giver of thanks. [2] “Giving” thanks is the mode God reveals. Only this way can we have “thanksgiving.” Psalm 136 presses this point quite well.

Thanks Must be Objective—“to God and the Father.” [1] The aim of thanks is our “God and Father.” Our gratitude must be bestowed on the proper person. Not only must there be proper motive in giving thanks, but there must be the proper objective of giving thanks. Thanksgiving is not aimless and nameless. It is imperative that the right person be thanked. God the Father is eternally the Father of Christ by nature and of all His people in Christ eternally by adoption. The Father is the fountain of Deity and the head of the family. He is the author of all good that we receive by His Son’s mediation and the Holy Spirit’s action. [2] The words “to God and the Father” are not to be taken separately but together in order to declare who is our God. Our God is He who has proved Himself a Father in Christ, loving us in Christ, and accepting us in the beloved. God is the Father of our souls, our mercies, and our Saviour.

THIRD, THE MEDIATOR OF THANKS

Christ Is the Mediator of Thanks—"by him." "We are accepted in the Beloved." Look at the first part of verse 17. [1] It is through Christ alone that thanks can be given or is acceptable. Thanks is a sign that one has rightly received Christ and is rooted in Him (Col. 2:6-7). Thanks is a sign that the peace of God that passes understanding has come through Christ (Phil. 4:6-7). Thanks is a sign that one has a contented mind in Christ and always rejoices (1 Thess. 5:18; Phil. 4:6). [2] Everything done in word or deed is to be done "in the name of the Lord Jesus." And if it is "in" our Lord's name it will also be "by" Him. [3] Thanksgiving is a paramount element in the Christian life and without Christ it is nonexistent as acceptable behavior before God the Father. The only channel by which we may pour forth the elixir of thanks is through Jesus Christ the channel by which we were reconciled to God. Jean Daille remarked, "our thanks themselves cannot be grateful to the Father, nor come into His presence before the throne of His grace, except they are addressed and presented by Jesus Christ, who alone is able to perfume both our persons and our poor performances with that odor which is necessary for all that would appear without confusion before this Supreme Majesty."

Christ Must Be the Mediator of Thanks. [1] There is no salvation in any other. It is through Christ that we have access to God the Father. He had to remove the middle wall of partition. He had to remove the bondage of sin and death. He had to remove the wages of sin. We may come boldly to the throne of grace in prayer, and if thanksgiving is a necessity to prayer, and it is, we must come with thanksgiving (Col. 4:2). [2] Without Christ all is vain. How can one sing praises with a heart empty of Christ (v.16)? How can one give thanks with a heart empty of Christ? How can one have peace with a heart empty of Christ—the Prince of peace (v.15)? "Christ is all, and in all" (v.11). God's mercies, which come through Christ, breed thanks. Since Christ brings down God's mercies, He also carries up our thanks and praise to God. We must pray in Christ's name, and we must give thanks in His name. [3] Our thanks will not have a pleasing sound to them before our God unless mediated "by Him." We have no merit or acceptance before heaven without our Lord, our King, our Redeemer, our Mercy Seat, our Advocate, our Intercessor or our Daysmen. We are only accepted in the Beloved. All our righteousnesses are as filthy rags and thus we have no standing without that righteousness of Christ imputed to us by grace.

CONCLUSION:

Paul's constant urging to give thanks reflects on our nature to be neglectful of giving thanks. There are many ways to give thanks to God: [1] we give thanks when from the heart we worship with thanksgiving in spirit and in truth; [2] we give thanks when we are obedient in the Lord's Supper for we receive the "cup of blessing;" and [3] we give thanks when our lives are ordered according to the revealed will of God and we offer the praise of thanksgiving.

The giving of thanks in public worship gives as it were the people an opportunity to say "Amen" (1 Cor. 14:16). The precious providences of God along with His promises and provisions must not be received without thanks. All of us have been taught to say thank you to persons giving us gifts. This being true, what should we offer to our awesome transcendent God? The supplying of the saints with necessities and all else should cause much thanksgiving to God (2 Cor. 9:11-13).

[1] Paul sought to incite the Colossians and us to the holy practice of daily thanksgiving. We cannot be pleasing to God without it.

[2] Paul sought to humble us if we are unthankful or neglectful in our giving of thanks. A person, for example, who eats unto the Lord is one who gives thanks (Rom. 14:6).

[3] Paul reminds us that not glorifying God as God, and our unthankfulness to God engenders a vain imagination and a darkened heart which is foolish (Rom. 1:21).

VEGETARIANISM: A PREVAILING HERESY

By Ovid Need, Jr.

The character of the times in which we live is such as to call forth from us even this admonition, that we ought not to be astonished at the heresies (which abound) neither ought their existence to surprise us, for it was foretold that they should come to pass; nor the fact that they subvert the faith of some, for their final cause, by affording a trial to faith, to give it also the opportunity of being "approved." Groundless, therefore, and inconsiderate is the offence of the many who are scandalized by the very fact that heresies prevail to such a degree. . . [Tertullian, A.D. 145-220, The Ante-Nicene Fathers, vol. III, p. 243.]

The prevalence of and the ready acceptance of heresies by believers is neither new nor unexpected. Hence a primary purpose of instruction in God's Word is countering heresies.

Paul, writing to his son in the Lord, Timothy, gave some very explicit instructions. Paul's purpose was both to warn, and urge Timothy to warn, others of the danger of strange, false doctrines that would influence the church, 1:3. Paul warned that demonic doctrines contrary to the Law-Word of God would creep into the church under the guise of Christian doctrine, v. 4. Paul warns Timothy of many teachers who will come in the name of Christ, professing things contrary to sound doctrine. (It is interesting that Paul implies an example of unsound doctrine is that Christ must reign visibly in order to be the King of the whole earth, 1:17.)

Paul instructs Timothy in several points of sound doctrine in chapters two and three. Having spoken to Timothy in general terms in the first three chapters, Paul gives him some very specific warnings, i.e. Now the Spirit speaketh expressly . . . , 4:1. Paul thus identifies the following instructions as explicitly from the Spirit, and clearly identifies some of the unsound doctrines that will be accepted by many believers. The Spirit foretells "a dreadful apostasy which should happen in the last times" (John Gill), and gives the apostasy's details, so God's people can easily recognize it.

The author of the prophetic warning is the Spirit of God; the author of the apostasy is the enemy, i.e. seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils, 4:1. Hence, the Spirit could not be more candid in identifying the authors of the apostasies he is about to identify, nor in identifying the apostasies' time-frame of appearance.

Paul warns Timothy that the "wily" devil (Eph 6:11) tries to convince, by whatever means possible, that it is preferable to abstain from meats. Origen, a pupil of Clement of Alexandria, said of 1 Tim 4:1-4:

. . . But these persons, because of the ignorance of their understandings, are not only unable themselves logically to state the truth, but cannot even give their attention to what is advanced by us; and entertaining unworthy ideas of His divinity, have delivered themselves over to errors and deceits, being depraved by a spirit of error, rather than instructed by the teaching of the Holy Spirit, according to the declaration of the apostle, "Following the doctrine of devils, forbidding to marry, to the destruction and ruin of many, and to abstain from meats, that by an ostentatious exhibition of stricter observance they may seduce the souls of the innocent." [ibid, vol. IV, p. 285.]

In his lie, the devil offers believers a higher level of holiness and/or health, e.g., "You can," says the enemy, "be more holy and/or more healthy than what the Lord offered you in His Word. The Lord gave you a good outline, but here is a better way. Do more than what He said." Furthermore, the lying enemy is not above using apparent truth nor subverting truth to support his efforts to seduce the saints to follow doctrines of devils.

[T]o abstain from meats: Though one of the more obvious modern applications of abstain from meats is the Roman practice of "abstaining from meats" during Lent or on special days, e.g., Fridays, the understanding of the phrase is clearly "abstain from animal food," i.e. vegetarianism. Irenaeus gives us an idea of the background of "abstain from animal food": Under CHAP. XXIV. — DOCTRINES OF SATURNINUS AND BASILIDES:

. . . This heretic [Saturninus, ed.] was the first to affirm that two kinds of men were formed by the angels,— the one wicked, and the other good. And since the demons assist the most wicked, the Saviour came for the destruction of evil men and of the demons, but for the salvation of the good. They declare also, that marriage and generation are from Satan. Many of those, too, who belong to his school, abstain from animal food, and draw away multitudes by feigned temperance of this kind. They hold, moreover, that some of the prophecies were uttered by those angels who made the world, and some by Satan; whom Saturninus represents as being himself an angel, the enemy of the creators of the world, but especially of the God of the Jews, [ibid, v. I, p. 349, Irenaeus Against Heresies.]

Hence, abstention "from animal food," i.e. vegetari-

anism, strongly implies, knowingly or unknowingly, service to another god, demonism. Thus when one abstains from meat for better health, he says that God did not give in His Word all the details needed for a healthy diet; he, therefore, attacks God, saying that He did not tell man all he needs to know in His Word for good health, 2 Tim 3:16. Vegetarianism, by establishing a “higher” standard than does God, thus serves another god. (Please note, though, that we do not include in this statement those who forego “animal food” for specific medical reasons, e.g., partially removed stomach.)

VEGETARIANISM, its source

[M]any of the health food stores are actually fronts for the Hindu gurus. Much of the New Age Hindu teachings are presented as “scientific.” Diet is a large part of this movement, especially vegetarianism. I have seen a number of people trapped in demonic bondage through frequenting various “herbalists” and health food stores and maintaining a rigid vegetarian diet as prescribed in various magazines and books containing New Age teachings. [Prepare For War, by Rebecca Brown, M.D., Revised Edition, 1992, p. 123. Whitaker House, 580 Pittsburgh Street, Springdale, PA 15144.]

Dr. Brown also makes this interesting observation:

Another area of witchcraft which Christians unwittingly use is in the area of herbs. Most of the herbalists and herb shop owners are involved in witchcraft. Incantations are done over the herbs, that is why they work so well. God has given us various herbs which have some medicinal qualities. But if you want to use herbs for medicine, I strongly urge that you grow your own. Most of what you will buy has been involved in rituals of some sort . . .

[ibid, p. 122. This writer would suggest that when using purchased herbs one renounce any hidden things of dishonesty that might be connected with them. One knows not the origin of the herbs though purchased from a “neutral” source.]

WHY?

Why, therefore, would seducing spirits and devils, according to Paul’s warning, desire Christians to abstain from meats? Again, quoting Dr. Brown:

. . . Spiritual battling results in an acute loss of protein from our physical bodies. If we are not careful to increase our intake of high quality protein during times of intensive spiritual battle, we will become weak. The scriptures have much to say on this subject.

Ever since God’s covenant with Noah in which he gave Noah animals to eat, Satan and his Demons have been trying to stop humans from eating meat. It is interesting to note that today’s Hindus and many other Eastern religions (all of which are forms of demon worship), believe that the success of either a medium or an adept whose powers come from the demons possessing them, depends on the presence in their bodies of a subtle fluid called “akasa,” which is soon exhausted, and without which the demons are unable to act. This fluid, the Hindus say, may be regenerated only by a vegetarian diet and chastity.

All of the New Age teachings, especially the teaching of the yogis, emphasize vegetarianism. Yogis says that the “vibrations” of meat are harmful and will decrease spiritual sensitivity. A multitude of supposed scientific reasons are put forth in all sorts of media teaching that the eating of meat is harmful. None of this can be backed up by scriptures. Unfortunately, a large number of Christians are accepting these teachings. Why the emphasis on vegetarianism by Satan’s kingdom? [Dr. Brown points out that, “Yoga is for one purpose only, union with (the Hindu god, ed.) Brahman. It cannot be separated from the demonic religion which created it. Yoga is specifically for the purpose of opening up the practitioner to the entrance of demons. . . (T)he goal of yoga is physical death,” ibid., pp. 194, 195, 199. Emphasis Dr. Brown’s].

As we study the Old Testament and the laws God gave to his people, the children of Israel, we find that the spiritual warriors of those days were the Levites of Israel.

Their diets were clearly high in beef and lamb.

If beef is so harmful, then why did Abraham prepare beef for God Himself to eat when He came to visit him? Abraham would obviously prepare the best he had (See Genesis 18:1-7).

If we look at the various spiritual warriors of renown in the Old Testament, we will find that every time, before they engaged in a great battle, God prepared them with the eating of meat. For instance, Elijah. Please note the menu provided for him personally by the Lord during his period of preparation just before he faced all the prophets of Baal [Dr. Brown quotes 1 Kings 17:2-6, ed.].

The Lord speaks very directly through Paul to this point in the New Testament [Dr. Brown then quotes 1 Tim 4:1-5, ed.].

I have searched medical literature carefully, and, despite all the publicity, there simply are no good studies that conclusively show that red meat is harmful. (Please note, I am referring to lean meat, not the fat, which the Lord told the Israelites not to eat when He gave them the Law through Moses.) [This writer wonders if maybe the gross violation of Lev. 11 by American Christians has weakened them spiritually and physically?] In fact, much work has been done showing the merits of protein supplements in a very wide range of illnesses. But Satan has such control of the medical field that it is extremely difficult to get the average physician to pay any attention to the merits and necessity of protein. [Yes, this writer heard Paul Harvey quote a news release that vegetarians live longer. But who controls the media that produced the release? Has not the media proved its usefulness to the powers of darkness in forming public opinion? ed.]

If you will stop to evaluate, you will find that the bottom line in any health food teaching or fad is the abstinence from meat. This is no accident. It is a carefully masterminded plan by Satan, because he knows very well the protein needs our bodies have and the tremendous protein drain caused by involvement in spiritual warfare. If Satan can keep God's warriors from eating meat, he can cause much weakness and illness among them from the lack of protein. The physical body rapidly loses its ability to fight infections when deprived of protein. Many people die unnecessarily in these days of "modern medicine" because their doctors don't supplement their protein intake. [This writer's 80-year-old, very active father was told a few years ago by his doctor that if he did not eat meat, he would not heal from a serious surgery that had just taken place. The length of life before the flood, i.e., over 900 years, shows that illnesses had not been prevalent before the flood. Moreover, the flood may well have changed some things concerning spiritual warfare, ed.]

During times of intense battling we often find it necessary to eat meat at least twice daily. If we do not, we rapidly lose strength and often become physically ill. I have worked with many people who, when under intensive attacks by witchcraft, became excessively weakened and even ill, simply because they did not know about God's simple principles regarding the needed protein intake. All of them were much improved when they increased the amount of meat in their diets. . . .

The whole area of spiritual warfare is a very deep and dangerous one. We must stay close to our precious Captain and follow His orders day by day. As long as we follow and obey Jesus Christ, He will see us safely through all our battles, [ibid, pp. 290-294.]

Though Dr. Brown is a woman, and this author cannot agree with all she says and does as recorded in her book, she certainly uncovers some serious concerns about the rise of the modern Hindu influence in the church, and we MUST NOT IGNORE THE FACTS: The modern increase of Hindu influence in the West, America particularly, has been accompanied with an acceptance of vegetarianism and the influence of seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils. American Christianity is under serious attack, and Washington's immigration policy is one of the weapons of attack: Its policy clearly encourages Hindus to immigrate here, compromising and confusing the clear teachings of God's Word.

HINDUISM, its influence

The Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some will say that the Lord did not create "animal food" for man's use, that the use of "animal food" will make one less healthy than those who do not use it; those who follow the lies have departed from the faith, for they have followed seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils, for this practice clearly violates the Truth, 1 Timothy 4:3.

It is, therefore, wicked to command men to abstain from meats, and evil in those who do it, for such abstinence attacks God and His Word. Meats are to be received with thanksgiving because they have been provided by Divine Providence for man's well being — both spiritual and physical. So far from abstaining from them, man ought to take them, and use them with all thankfulness.

Those who believe and know the truth should not be bound by the "New Age" movement's Hindu diet, i.e., vegetarianism; they should be free from its rites, rituals, ceremonies and inventions of men, e.g., "God did not love you enough to give you everything you need to know in order to be completely holy and healthy."

V. 4, For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused is the clear command, but those warring against God cannot accept God's Word. Obviously, there is a condition on receiving meats: if it be received with thanksgiving. The vegetarian cannot receive it with thanksgiving to God because he is contemptuous against God: He believes that God provided meat for man's ill health.

V. 5, For it is sanctified, or set apart by God's Word for man's use (See Gen 9:4). The meats sanctified are listed in Leviticus chapter 11. It would be redundant to go over the list found in Leviticus 11, so this writer urges the reader to check The Institutes of Biblical Law, vol. I, p. 297 [1973, The Craig Press, R.J. Rushdoony].

Would the Lord encourage His people to eat something injurious to their health?

Deut. 12:15, 16: Notwithstanding thou mayest kill and eat flesh in all thy gates, whatsoever thy soul lusteth after, according to the blessing of the LORD thy God which he hath given thee: the unclean and the clean may eat thereof, as of the roebuck, and as of the hart.

Only ye shall not eat the blood; ye shall pour it upon the earth as water.

Would the Lord command His priests to eat something injurious to their health? See Ex. 12; Lev. 6; 7:23.

CONCLUSION

The spiritual battle is real; the Lord God has provided all that is needed for victory over the enemy of our souls, and the primary portion of the whole armor of God is the truth as revealed in the totality of God's Word, Eph 6:10-18.

We must, accordingly, confront the doctrines of devils with the Word of God not only outside our churches, but also in our personal lives.

JESUS NEVER CAME TO BRING ‘PEACE’

Few verses are more popular at Christmas than Luke 2:14: “Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward man.” It’s a heart-warming verse that Christmas cards and decorations have simplified, for decades, to mean “Peace on Earth.”

It’s also the one that Linus quoted in A Charlie Brown Christmas (1965) in his classic “drop the mic” moment during a speech after Charlie Brown yelled in frustration: “Isn’t there anyone who knows what Christmas is all about?!” Charlie Brown was decrying Scrooge-like commercialism.

Boy, were those the good old days when that was all we had to worry about.

In our woke world, you don’t think much about commercialism destroying “the true meaning of Christmas” anymore because we’re too busy trying to keep political psychopaths from destroying the whole country. It’s creating an ambient sense of dread – a constant rattling that reminds us that things are way out of whack. We’re feeling like Asaph who wrote in Psalm 82.5: “All the foundations of the earth are unstable.”

When foundations and institutions that we thought were unshakable start to shift too much – and for too long – we instinctively let go of the stuff that’s crumbling to hold on to what’s immovable.

Peace on Earth – at least the way most have understood it – is one of those crumbling things. Given the times, it rings hollow. And it’s OK to let it go because Jesus never said it. It’s not what the Bible teaches. You don’t have to look it up. Just look at the Earth. The proof’s in the pudding.

The kind of peace Jesus brought was a personal reconciliation between God and man, not necessarily peace between man and man. In fact, because of who Jesus claimed to be – the Christ, the Messiah, the one and only Son of God – it elevated conflict and division to biblical proportions between man and man, man and governments, man and learned culture, and between man and his most intimate relationships: Family. Some men, cultures, governments, and families can be deeply committed to things that are completely false, and they demand that you fall into line. Or else. Love them, then build boundaries. God comes first.

“Do not suppose that I have come to bring peace to the earth,” Jesus said to His disciples as he sent them out as “sheep among wolves” (Matthew 10:34, NIV). “I did not come to bring peace, but a sword [division]. For I have come to turn a man against his father, a daughter against her mother, a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. A man’s enemies will be the members of his own household.”

Make no mistake, when you put what was happening in the context of the times, Jesus was history’s greatest Disrupter. He brought deep division in the most intimate of relationships. No one shook the foundation of civilization to its core more deeply than Jesus Christ. Why? Because men had come to believe things, for centuries, that were false. Because He came to tell them the truth – hard truths – to “make the crooked places straight,” as Isaiah foretold. And because He came with the highest authority – Son of the God who created everything.

That didn’t sit well with people.

Jesus never wished for division. Division came because of the way people, groups, religions, and governments responded to what He spent three years telling them. Hard truths. If this man really was God’s Son, as He claimed to be, that shifted authority away from the crooked things they had anchored themselves to for centuries. “Multitudes” followed Jesus. That was threatening. He kept talking anyway.

Jesus threatened the authority of the tyrannical religious leaders of His day. After His crucifixion, His followers threatened the authority of a Roman government that would persecute and kill Christians for over a century after Nero. Today, it threatens the tyrannical authority of Islamist states and groups, some of whom strategically create an atmosphere of extreme fear by killing Christians in the most grotesque ways when people who grew up in strict Muslim cultures convert to Christianity.

And Christianity now threatens the tyrannical authority of groups and governments in America that want to impose abortion, same-sex marriage, gender identity, critical race theory, arbitrary lockdown mandates, and a cornucopia of other legal perversions on all Americans – particularly Christians – regardless of who they ultimately answer to.

One of their tools? Cancel culture. It's been difficult for me to respect this high-schoolish term; this malignant wart that grew out of social media. What we call cancel culture is really something more deeply inhumane that's old as dirt. It's threats, intimidation; it's creating an atmosphere of fear to force people into violating their deepest convictions. It's punishment. And it's getting old.

Christians are peacemakers, but when you all but force them to defy God's will, you've breached sacred territory. Under the cover of equity and civil rights, wokeness pressures Christians to put other things first. Christians are instinctively law-abiding people. But when you force them to obey laws that conflict with God's immutable laws, don't be shocked when a more muscular Christianity kicks in.

That doesn't sit well with some people.

The woke response to people who refuse to violate their consciences is the sticking point. A tyrannical response makes division inevitable. It's as old as "Thou shalt have no other gods before me." This is where Jesus, Earth's greatest Disrupter, brings the idea of peace into balance: "Do not suppose that I have come to bring peace to the earth? I did not come to bring peace, but a sword."

In 2015, the woke crowd even punished Linus, a cartoon figure, when students at W.R. Castle Elementary in Kentucky were prohibited from quoting his biblically based speech in their performance of A Charlie Brown Christmas. Remember that?

"As superintendent of Johnson County Schools," said Thomas Salyer, "I recognize the significance of Christmas and the traditions and beliefs associated with this holiday. In accordance with federal laws, our programs will follow appropriate regulations."

Bah!

It took a bill from the Kentucky Senate in 2017 to turn that around but Linus had it exactly right in the cartoon. And if you look closely, Linus drops his trusty security blanket at the moment he quotes the angels urging the shepherds – who were "sore afraid" – to "fear not."

Fear not, for the Lord Jesus Christ has gone from His cradle as a baby to His throne, from where He directs all events in heaven and earth for His own glory and for the benefit of the Elect.

PSALMS 149

4 For the LORD taketh pleasure in his people: he will beautify the meek with salvation. 5 Let the saints be joyful in glory: let them sing aloud upon their beds. 6 Let the high praises of God be in their mouth, and a twoedged sword in their hand; 7 To execute vengeance upon the heathen, and punishments upon the people; 8 To bind their kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron; 9 To execute upon them the judgment written: this honor have all his saints. Praise ye the LORD.

By faith we look forward to the day promised to His people in Psalms 149:6-9
